

Wagon for Sale.
A Wagon, custom made, has a few weeks.
J. L. DONLE, West Quincy, or E. HALL, East Stoughton.
The Spring-Time.

Free town has voted that any person or persons, non-residents of the town, that go there to start any kind of business shall be exempt from taxation for five years.

The Regular Conventions of St. Paul's Lodge,
No. 37, will be held every WEDNESDAY EV-NING, at 7 1/2 o'clock, at their new Hall.

Per order,
T. H. NEWCOMB,
Quincy, July 9. W. C.

Twenty-Eight Years' Practice.

In the Treatment of Diseases incident to Females, has placed DR. DOW at the head of all physicians making such practice a specialty, and enables him to guarantee a speedy and permanent cure in all the worst cases of Vag-erations and all other Menstrual Derangements, from whichever cause, and letters for advice must contain $1.

Office No. 9 KNOXSTREET, BOSTON.

N. B.—Board furnished to those desiring remaining transient.

Quincy, July 3 1871. 29-17

NOTICE is hereby given, that the subscribers have been duly appointed Executors of the will of
JOSEPH N. BROWN,
 late of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk, deceased, testate, and have taken upon themselves that trust by giving bonds, as the law directs. All persons having demands upon the estate of said deceased are required to exhibit the same; and all persons indebted to said estate are called upon to make payment to
JOHN F. BROWN, Executors,
WILLIAM J. VINAL.
 Quincy, March 13, 2074. Mar 30 - 3w

The largest Stock in Boston from which to select a Suit.

WILMOT'S

121, 123 & 125

Washington Street,
BOSTON.

March, 24. 12

Novelities, selected in Europe, by personal inspection tion, last fall. Send for a Catalogue.

C. S. LONG
Brighton, Mass. and No. 4 Beacon St., Boston

March 16. 6w

WILBOR'S COD LIVER OIL AND LIME.

The great popularity of this safe and efficacious preparation is alone attributable to its influence upon the system. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Scrophulous Humors, and all Consumptive Symptoms, and has no superior, if equal. Let no neglect the early symptoms of disease, when an agent is so ready to hand which will cure the disease, and prevent the Chest, Lungs or Throat. Manufactured only by A. B. WILSON, Chemist, No. 166 Court Street, Boston. Sold by all druggists.

March 16. 6w

SAVE THE CHILDREN
 Multitudes of them suffer, linger and die because of Pain-Worms. The only known remedy for the most troublesome and dangerous of all worms in child or adults, is Dr. Gould's Pain-Worm-S. Fairly verified, cures death in all worms; a valuable cathartic, and bene-ficial to health. Warranted. Price reduced to 10 cents per bottle.
 GEO. C. GOULDWIN & CO., Boston

D. B. STETSON
 WILL WARRANT
ALL BOOTS & SHOES

If any prove poor or deceptive work, he will give new ones in return.
 Quincy, Feb. 3.

To which the Female sex are (cable). DR. V.
 HANBERT'S FEMALE RENOVATING PILLS.
 From Germany. These Pills are the most object of this notice, is to inform the afflicted that these Pills are sent by mail every where by express, and by the following Agents, Messrs.
 Barrington, Providence, R. I., or C. C. G. G.
 and Co., Boston, Mass. 4c

Hartshorn's Liniment.
 FOR Rheumatism, Sprains, &c. Hartshorn's Liniment, No. 18, which has proved so successful. Also Bishop Scott's Liniment.
 For sale by _____ Mrs. E. HAYDEN
 Quincy, Feb. 17. 1f

Woolen Blankets.
 CHEAPER than ever, at ABERCROMBIE'S
 Quincy, Dec. 9. 1f

in addition to its full descriptive price list, we carry 3000 varieties of choice flower and shrub seeds, 1000
Seeds, Rare Gadolites, Lilies, Tulipens, etc., with full directions for their culture. This list is without doubt the most perfect work of the kind published.

25¢ Sent Free to applicants upon receipt of two stamps. Address:

WASHBURN & CO.,
100 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.
March 16. 2m

PAPER HANGINGS, BORDERS AND CORNICES.
Just received and for sale
VERY CHEAP
E. CLAPPY
Quincy, April 2.

was back, black ducks, brants, wild geese, curlews, yellowlegs, birds called "willetts," and others. Indeed the Captain could not sleep nights for the noise of them. One evening a flock of about twenty of twenty-five cents paid to a competent housewife, was roasted and proved a most acceptable dish.

New year's day was passed at Beaufort, which the negroes celebrated in their accustomed vivacious style, ending with a barge race from Judge —, upon the constitutional duty of supporting the government. Head winds compelled several days stay at Beaufort and its vicinity, but at length after three hundred miles of interior navigation, through canals, creeks and sounds, they pushed through New Inlet and followed the coast from Fort Macon to Fort Fisher. Breakers running at a great height were encountered at New Inlet, but the yacht went through like a duck, and via Cape Fear River, they reached Smithville, N. C., where the first warm and comfortable weather was experienced.

Winning was visited January 7, and considerable curiosity was manifested to get a sight of the Yankee cruiser. It was not gratified, however, in the manner desired, as she came to anchor in the stream near a man-of-war. The local reporter of the day, by making quite a journey along shore, secured information enough for a paragraph, and retired, feeling happy. Leaving Smithville, January 9th, they sailed for Hubbell's Inlet and Little River, the latter being the line between North and South Carolina. Here they were boarded by a citizen, who proved to be Captain Dunn, formerly of Salem, Mass. He was very cordial in his salutations, and insisted that they should dine at his house, which invitation was accepted. Capt. D. gives proof of his Yankee antecedents, and is already running a turpentine distillery and cotton gin, to which he will add the manufacture of lumber as soon as a certain fourteen-foot fall of water can be made available by a canal, already in progress.

Leaving this point with a northerly breeze, the voyagers sailed into the broad ocean, where, off Cape Romain, they were becalmed at night and lay at anchor until morning, thirty miles outside of everything. Nothing of special interest occurred until they reached Charleston, the wind being cold and northerly, as it had most of the time from the start. Some repairs of the rigging were here made, and the little vessel, being manned by Reed and "Dan," having already made of circuitous navigation, sailed for Savannah and Jacksonville.

The extraordinary inclemency of the season and the stilled accommodation of the vessel had their effect upon the veteran Captain, and numerous twinges of rheumatism forbade the further pursuit of pleasure on the wave. Persuaded that it was as cold at Charleston as at Boston, he took passage for home.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1872.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

SMART. A lady in this town, over whose head has passed the sunshine and snows of some seventy winters, made last week twenty six button holes in one day, besides attending to other duties. We should like to know where that can be beat! not out of Quincy we bet.

DANCING SCHOOL. Mr. Ross B. Walker, the favorite teacher, opens to-day a school for Masters and Misses in the latest and most fashionable dances. He needs no introduction from us as the large schools taught by him in this town for many years, made him a large circle of acquaintances.

TEA PARTY. The Sociable given by the ladies of the Congregational Society at their Chapel, on Wednesday evening, drew together a large assemblage of happy faces and was a very enjoyable affair. Such reunions serve to foster and strengthen a kindlier feeling and interest in the well being of the individuals composing a society, and it is a pity they were not more frequent.

CONCERT. The entertainment in aid of the Homeopathic Hospital, at the Town Hall on Thursday evening, from some unaccountable cause, was but thinly attended. Mrs. David's company of singers possesses some fine vocalists, and gave a very pleasant entertainment. We trust they will have better luck next time.

SPRING. The past week has been quite April like, with its sunshine and showers. Tuesday forenoon we had the first thunder and lightning of the season, and were treated to a genuine thunder shower during the night. There was a very heavy fall of rain in this vicinity which has done much good, and now as soon as the frost is out of the ground the tillers of the earth will commence their work, which has been so long delayed by the severe cold weather. Oh who does not long for the joyous spring weather; and how gladly we will listen to catch the first peep of the frogs, or eagerly seek for the lonely violets. Give us the pleasant spring time with its birds and flowers, when everything is awakening to new life. The birds have commenced their morning songs in earnest. A few more of these warm soft showers will spread a beautiful green carpet over the fields, and in a few short weeks the trees will be decked with beautiful foliage.

We have noticed a few timid looking flowers in Col. Packard's yard. They look as if they were a little ashamed to be seen in the vicinity of the splendid flowers in the hot house.

CORRESPONDENCE. We have been compelled to lay over several very interesting communications, which are in type, owing to a rash of advertising.

REPLY. A very interesting reply to Taxpayer, will appear in our next issue.

APPOINTMENTS. The Selectmen have made the following appointments:—
Special Police.—Samuel T. Allen, Jos. W. Lombard, Josiah Randlett, James Haverhan, Charles H. Curtis, Wm. Costaine, A. Glines and Geo. Cahill.
Surveyor of Wood and Bark.—Richard Newcomb, Richard Newcomb Jr., Edward A. Adams, N. B. Farnall, Geo. B. Pray, H. H. Farnum, Hiram Prior, Eliab Ramsdell and S. F. Newcomb.
Weigher of Coal.—Geo. B. Pray, Wm. Cushing and N. B. Farnall.
Weigher of Hay and Granite.—N. B. Farnall.
Weigher of Vessels.—Josiah Adams.
Superintendent of Lockup.—W. M. French.
Superintendent of Burials.—Chas. H. Kimball.
Sexton and Undertaker.—John Hall.
Superintendent of Almshouse.—A. P. M.
Physician.—Dr. J. A. Gordon.
Superintendent of Town House.—Jacob Flint.

QUINCY SAVINGS BANK. At a meeting of the Quincy Savings Bank Corporation, held on Tuesday, April 9th, 1872, the following persons were elected officers for the year ensuing:
President.—Edward Turner.
Vice President.—Israel W. Munroe.
Secretary.—George L. Gill.
Treasurer.—Daniel Baxter, Noah Cummings, Whitcomb Porter, George A. Brackett, Charles A. Howland, Horace B. Spear, John D. Whitcher, John Q. Adams, D. Howard Bills and Henry Barker.

GOOD TASTE. We could not resist the temptation, while passing the store recently occupied by James A. McLellan & Co., even if as in the city they should call us country, from stopping to admire the excellent taste displayed in the arrangement of the goods in the windows. Handsome ribbons, laces, and such like were placed very temptingly to attract the attention of the ladies, while the gentlemen cannot but admire the beautiful neckties and shirts, which look so inviting. The attendants have ever been courteous, polite and attentive in their service, and we are sure that you will find that you will receive the same prompt attention as in past years, for the present clerks will do all in their power to please those visiting this establishment.

ACCIDENT. On Saturday evening last, while Dr. Gordon was visiting a patient near the South Depot, his horse became frightened at the cars, broke his fastening and started on a run towards Franklin street, but when turning the corner near the residence of the late Eli Hayden, he hit the post or some other obstacle, smashing the carriage quite badly and clearing himself. He then continued on his race up as far as the residence of Dr. Stetson, where he stopped very quietly until Mr. Charles H. Curtis came, and fixing his flying harness led him off. A poor forlorn looking female who happened to be passing that way, was badly frightened when she saw the Galpin like animal coming towards her.

DOGS TAKE NOTICE. Your usual proclamation is issued and the Town Clerk takes your money. April 30th is the day of grace. See notice.

REAL ESTATE SALES. Mrs. Stephen K. Bancroft, has sold to Mrs. Nathan A. Brickett, 18,810 feet of land with buildings, on the east side of Goff street in this town, for $6000.

Charles Breck, has sold 56 1-2 acres of land with buildings on both sides of the Brook Road, Milton, to Henry A. Wood and Duncan Welsh for $22,000.

A. K. Teale and Geo. K. Gannett sold 4 acres on the old Canton road, to Town of Milton, for $4500.

Joseph W. Robertson sold to Mrs. William S. Cording 234,946 feet of land on Adams street, for $5873.

John Allen sold to Henry O. Roberts an undivided half of 433,728 feet of land, bounding on Squantum, Atlantic and Ocean streets, and Quincy bay. Also half interest in the flats appurtenant for $11,250.

PHOTOGRAPHS. We beg to draw the attention of our readers to Warren's Photographic establishment in this town. This firm has recently started the above branch here, under the management of Mr. W. P. Simpson. The celebrity which the firm enjoys needs no comment. In Boston, their fame equals that of Sarony & Gurney of New York. Cambridge is the headquarters for finishing and printing the photographs. One of the specialties is copying from tintypes and ordinary photographs, the same being finished in ink. We have seen several of the above as rendered by Mr. Simpson, and pronounce them gems of photography art.

STATE CONVENTION. The Republican State Convention at Worcester, on Wednesday, elected as delegates at large to the National Convention at Philadelphia, Dr. George B. Loring of Salem, ex-Gov. William Claflin of Newbury, Hon. Alexander H. Rice of Boston, the Hon. Sylvester Johnson of Adams, the Hon. P. Emory Aldrich of Worcester, and the Hon. Oliver Ames of North Easton; with Cyrus Wakefield of Wakefield, the Hon. Amasa Norcross of Fitchburg, E. W. Kingsley of Boston, Gen. H. G. Briggs of Fitchburg, Charles E. Whiting of Northampton, and the Hon. Thos. Talbot of Billerica, respectively, as alternates. The resolutions adopted support to the fullest extent the administration of President Grant, whose re-nomination is strongly recommended. The nomination of Senator Wilson for Vice President is urged, and a handsome compliment paid him for his efficient and devoted adherence to the principles of the party.

Arrived at Quincy Point, yesterday, schooner Richard Vaux, with 340 tons Brookside Lykens Vaux coal to D. H. Bills.

Special Correspondence.

NEW YORK, April 4th, 1872.

The quiet of our city was again broken yesterday by the unveiling of another murder. A policeman yesterday morning was informed by a man that a dead body was lying in an alley running out of Roosevelt street. This part of the city is one of the very worst, and is occupied by the lowest and poorest portion of our community; sailor boarding houses and dance-houses being scattered profusely through this section. The policeman went to the place indicated, and found the body of a man lying in the alley, with the head enveloped in a coat, the whole tied up with a piece of tarred rope. The murdered man was conveyed to the station house, and was yesterday viewed by hundreds of people, but up to the present time he has not been recognized. The police are making strenuous efforts to unravel the mystery, and the detectives are following every little clue in the hope of finding the murderer. The accepted opinion is that the man was inveigled into one of the numerous dens, and then robbed and murdered, and the body thrown in the alley.

The small-pox still rages with violence in New York and Brooklyn, there having been 104 cases last week in this city. In the latter city scarlet fever is raging among children, as is the so-called spotted fever (cerebro-spinal-meningitis). This new disease is increasing in its ravages to an alarming extent and almost invariably proves fatal. So that the outlook for the coming summer is not very favorable, all these diseases prevailing at present, with a good chance for the cholera when warm weather comes. The city is in a very dirty condition, and the necessity for immediate action is apparent, as our Board of Health explained yesterday in their meeting.

The remains of Major General Anderson were conveyed yesterday, from their temporary resting place in Second street Marble cemetery, to West Point. The occasion was one of intense interest, and the streets, through which the procession passed, were thronged with people. The 9th and 71st militia regiments paraded, and also the commandery and lodge of which the deceased was a member. A prominent feature was the old torn flag which stood the storm of shot and shell at Sumter, and which yesterday enfolded the form of its brave defender. A somewhat strange occurrence was that although President Grant was in town, and the procession passed his hotel, yet he was not seen, certainly not a very creditable thing, when we reflect on the noble character of General Robert Anderson, and his services to his country.

The nation has sustained a great loss in the death of Professor Morse, the inventor of the telegraph. His demise occurred on Wednesday morning. His last appearance in public was at the unveiling of the Franklin statue, in Printing House square, in January last. He died full of years and honors, having been the recipient of decorations from nearly all the crowned heads of the world. His funeral takes place to-morrow, and will be attended by many of our most prominent men.

THE GREAT MUSICAL CONCERT.—Owing to the extraordinary amount of preparation necessary to the production of the Opera with proper éclat, on May Day, we are unable to give a full programme this week. We learn, however, that there will be at least fifty voices, besides numerous supernumeraries, forming a grand chorus. The costumes will be rich and varied, and the properties novel. Owing to the large expense attending this entertainment, the price of admission will necessarily be somewhat higher than heretofore, but still not beyond what will be amply repaid in pleasure. The body of the house will be reserved, and we advise all to secure their tickets early to avoid disappointment.

CAUCUS. At the Republican Caucus held at the Town Hall, on Monday evening last, the following gentlemen were elected Delegates to the State Convention, held at Worcester, on Wednesday last:—Charles Marsh, Henry H. Faxon, Warren W. Adams, George Veazie, 2d, and N. B. Farnall.

The same gentlemen were also elected Delegates to the District Convention.

KNIGHT OF PTBIBAS. The St. Paul's Lodge of this place celebrated their second anniversary at the Hancock House last night. About one hundred ladies and gentlemen partook of an excellent hot turkey supper, with usual gifts, served in good style, always so acceptable to the guests at this house.

We are glad to be able to direct our readers who need "clothing" to the House of L. D. Boise & Son, whose unique advertisement appears in another column. Those who shall favor them with their orders will find every word they have said is true, and will thank us for commending their goods, styles and prices.

INSANE. Last Friday afternoon, Officer Farnall took Mr. Dennis Sullivan, who resides on Brackett street, and on the following day carried him to Taunton, by order of the Selectmen. He was a very quiet and peaceable citizen, and the cause of his insanity was supposed to proceed from an injury to his eye which he received while pursuing his vocation, that of a stone cutter.

THE DIX ISLAND HOMICIDE. The trial of Bernard Little for the murder of Charles H. White, closed in the Supreme Court at Rockland, Maine, on Monday last. They were both residents of this place. Several months previous to the homicide they had been at work at Dix Island, stone cutting, boarding at the same house. It did not appear this difficulty of a serious character had ever existed between them at the trial.

Little was arraigned for murder in the first degree and plead not guilty. He maintained a calm—almost indifferent—demeanor throughout the trial, and when he stood up to hear the verdict not the slightest emotion was visible.

The Judge addressed a few feeling remarks to the prisoner, and then the clerk read the sentence: "Bernard Little, the Court having considered the crime of which you stand convicted, order and sentence that you be confined to hard labor for life, in the State Prison, situated at Thomaston in the county of Knox and State of Maine." The prisoner was taken in custody of the Sheriff, and has since been conveyed to Thomaston.

For the Patriot.
SIDEWALKS.

During the two years that Mr. Farnall was Surveyor of Highways, he made great improvements in the method of repairing our sidewalks. I am at a loss to know why the present incumbent of that office should resort to the old policy of using coarse, unscrubbed gravel and stone, when it is cheaper and better to repair with good material.

ONE WHO WALKS.

ACCIDENT. We learn from the Boston Herald that the venerable Quincy Tufts, Esq., was quite seriously injured by the slipping of his crutch from under him, at the residence of his sister, in Weymouth, where he has been confined by sickness. In his fall he fractured his thigh, and it is feared that the accident may be attended with serious consequences.

Our readers will find on the outside page a very interesting account of the Yacht voyage, of Capt. John Spear of Neponset, and Mr. Reed of Squantum.

The ancient city of Antioch, in Syria, was recently almost destroyed by an earthquake, and fifteen hundred persons lost their lives.

The value of the imports of Boston during the last week in March was two and a quarter million dollars.

WANTED!
AN INTELLIGENT AMERICAN BOY, 16 or 17 years of age, who can make himself generally useful, may hear of a good situation. Address L. W. THAYER, Box 50 Post Office, or at his residence, near the Depot, Quincy, April 13.

$10 REWARD!
STOLEN from the premises of the subscriber, ten hens of a choice breed. The above reward will be paid on return of the property to CHARLES P. TERRELL, Quincy, April 13.

NOTICE.
TOWN OF QUINCY.
CLERK'S OFFICE, April 13, 1872.
(Extracts from the Statutes of 1867—Chap. 130.)

"SECT. 1. Every owner or keeper of a Dog shall annually, on or before the thirtieth day of April, cause it to be registered, numbered, described and licensed for one year from the first day of the ensuing May, and shall cause it to wear around its neck a collar, distinctly marked with its registered number, and shall pay for such license for a male dog two dollars, and for a female dog five dollars."

Owners or keepers of Dogs in this town are reminded that said dogs must be numbered and registered in the Records of the Town of Quincy during the present Month.

Applications for license must be made to the Town Clerk, GEO. L. GILL, Town Clerk, Quincy, April 13, 1872.

NEW STYLES
—OF—
BOOTS and SHOES,
FOR
Spring and Summer Wear,
JUST RECEIVED AT

D. B. STETSON'S,
Which he will sell at lower prices than can be bought for in Boston, or vicinity.
Quincy, April 13.

PHOTOGRAPHS!
MR. WARREN
WILL continue to make PHOTOGRAPHS AT REDUCED RATES.
FOR ANOTHER WEEK.

All other Pictures made on the most reasonable terms. He will also be prepared with Special Facilities for making Views, Residences, Factories, &c., and any parties requiring such, will send their address to Warren's Photograph Rooms,
Over the Post Office, QUINCY, Mass.
April 13.

SHINGLES.
SAWED AND SHAVED
Cedar Shingles,
FOR SALE LOW.
Wharves No. 470 Albany St., and at Neponset, BOSTON.
A. T. STEARNS & SONS.
Boston, April 13.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL!
Mr. H. B. BROWN
WILL hold the Annual Festival on May Day in the TOWN HALL, as heretofore. The exercises will be as follows:—
Doors open at 9 o'clock, A. M.—Games, Marches, &c., till 12. In the afternoon a 10 cents. Children, 5 cents. Adults, 10 cents.
Quincy, April 13, 1872.

ALL who wish to appear as masques can do so, but will be admitted whether in masque or not.
These exercises will close punctually at 5 P. M., in order to prepare for Concert in the evening.

Grand Juvenile Fancy Dress and Masquerade Social.
All who wish to appear as masques can do so, but will be admitted whether in masque or not.

NEW STORE. We take pleasure in calling the reader's attention to the advertisement of Goldwhait, Snow & Knight, whose new store, one of the largest and handsomest in the city, is well stocked with the most elegant and complete assortment of carpets to be found in Boston.

BY JOSEPH W. LOMBARD, AUCT. OFFICE, No. 73 Hancock Street, Over C. C. Johnson's Apothecary Store.

AUCTION.

WILL be sold at PUBLIC AUCTION, this day, SATURDAY, April 13th, at 2 o'clock, P. M., at the SALOON of S. S. BRYANT, cor. Hancock and Granite Streets, Quincy, ALL the FIXTURES of said Saloon, suitable to carry on the business of a first-class Dining Saloon, consisting of the following articles, viz:—
Two Elegant BILLIARD TABLES, nearly as good as new; Three Sets of Billiard Balls; Four Marble Slabs; Two Stoves and all the Cooking Arrangements; Table Cutlery; Crockery and Glass Ware; Chairs and Tables; one Extension Table; one Show Case; Bells and Pins, &c.
To be sold by order of Attorney,
Quincy, April 13.

FOR SALE.
A COTTAGE House with 7 rooms, situated on Quincy Avenue. There is about one-half acre of Land with a variety of Fruit and Shade Trees. Excellent well water, and a running brook near the house.
Inquire on the premises of JOHN LANGKIN, Jr.
Quincy, April 14.

PIANOS!
THE Undersigned having secured the agency for
"Haines Brothers" Pianos,
OF NEW YORK.
Is prepared to sell a good piano at a price within the reach of all.
Every piano is warranted for five years. Old Pianos taken in exchange. Address
WILLIAM W. BEMIS, Wollaston Heights,
Boston, April 13.

Great many persons are beginning to rejoice over the departure of Winter, and in the prospect of milder and more pleasant weather. The Spring, which is the loveliest season of the year, will be hailed by thousands as a

Thing of Beauty
When, in a few days, the ice and snow shall disappear under the benign influence of the ascending sun, and every face shall wear a smile, and the buds begin to swell, and the flowers to bloom about the paths which we shall tread—now

We are offering a New and Choice Line of

Hamburg Edgings, and Insertions, VERY CHEAP!

JOE LOT OF LINEN AND LACE COLLARS, AT HALF PRICE!

ALSO
Linen Collars and Cuffs.

IN GREAT VARIETY.

LADIES' and CHILDREN'S HOSIERY & GLOVES,

IN FINE QUALITY AND Complete Assortment.

FINE ASSORTMENT OF

SCARFS and TIES,

For Ladies' and Misses' KID GLOVES.

Handkerchiefs in all Styles,

FULL LINE OF

RIBBONS.

Worsted and Yarns,

Buttons, Braids, and Bindings

TRIMMINGS.

FANCY GOODS.

Gent's Furnishing Goods.

DOMESTIC DRY GOODS,

ALL AT

Popular Prices.

Very Lowest Prices.

NEW MARBLE BUILDING,

43 & 45 Washington St.

Goldwhait, Snow & Knight.

FIRE KINDLINGS.

10 CENTS will buy a package that will keep dry thirty-six days.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, March 2.

BOSTON STORE,

BOSTON GOODS,

BOSTON PRICES.

Quincy, April 13.

BOSTON STORE

Late McLELLAN & CO.

NEW SPRING GOODS.

WE are now DAILY OPENING

New and Attractive Goods

FOR THE SEASON,

and shall continue to receive fresh supplies of articles suitable for

Ladies' and Children's Wear,

AS WELL AS A GENERAL VARIETY OF

SMALL WARES,

Adapted to the Wants of Families.

We purpose to have the BEST GOODS in these departments, and invite the residents of Quincy and vicinity to Examine Our Stock!

which will be cheerfully exhibited, as it is the intention of the proprietors of the

BOSTON STORE,

PRINTS!

GINGHAMS,

Bleached and Brown Cottons,

CRASHES, DIAPERS,

HOOP SKITS,

NEW GOODS received Every Week.

Miss C. S. HUBBARD,

Near the Post Office.

Quincy, April 6.

LOST.

A GOLD LOCKET WITH PICTURES.

THE finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the same with

MR. MORRILL, Station Agent.

Quincy, March 30.

FOR SALE.

THE well-known Store kept JOHN ADAMS, of about ten tons hardware, well found in Sails, Rigging, &c.

Quincy, April 6.

FOR SALE.

A BOUT 600 CHESTNUT and RED CEDAR POSTS. Apply to

PAUL WILD.

Quincy, April 6.

FOR SALE.

ONE LIGHT HAY-RIGGING, Steel Springs, ONE SET SINGLE HARNESS.

ONE CART.

GEORGE W. B. TAYLOR.

Wollaston Heights, April 6.

To Let at Quincy Point.

ONE HOUSE 5 Rooms, with Garden, containing 5 Rooms, with 1 1/2 Acres of Land, on Brackett Street, suitable for one or two families. Also, about 8 acres Mowing and Pasture Land, with a well, situated near the depot. Possession given immediately. Apply to

DANIEL BAXTER.

Quincy, April 6.

W. A. STEARNS, MASON,

At the Golden Estate, on South Street, QUINCY POINT.

NOTICE.

Miss C. S. HUBBARD

would respectfully announce to the Citizens of Quincy and Vicinity,

that she has purchased the

STOCK, FIXTURES, AND GOOD WILL

of the Store formerly occupied by

Miss M. O. COPELAND,

where she intends keeping a full line of

SMALL WARES,

Hosiery,

GLOVES, CORSETS,

Neck Ties,

Ladies' and Children's Handkerchiefs,

WORSTEDS,

GINGHAMS,

Bleached and Brown Cottons,

CRASHES, DIAPERS,

HOOP SKITS,

influence will last indefinitely, as they are rarely redeemed by the bank that issued them.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1872.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons.

Anonymous communications are not published.

Bold and Brutal Assault.

Henry H. Faxon, Esq., our honored Representative, was most brutally assaulted on Friday afternoon last, while in the cars on his way home from Boston, by George L. Odiorne, a resident of this place. The facts appear as follows:—There had been for a year or more some ill-feelings between Messrs. Faxon and Odiorne, which had arisen from two or more causes. The firm in Boston, where Mr. O. was employed, received some time since an anonymous communication, speaking rather freely of Odiorne's character or actions, and naturally having a tendency of prejudicing his employer against him; and we learn that he has quite recently left the store. The anonymous letter was supposed by Mr. Odiorne and others to have been written by Mr. Faxon, although he denies it.

Another cause of difficulty between the gentlemen was on Temperance grounds. Mr. Faxon has been for some years a strong advocate of temperance, using his money and time freely in aiding the cause. And, at times, talked too freely for his good. On the other hand, Mr. Odiorne indulges occasionally in a social glass, "for the stomach's sake." Associating with others of the same class, he has naturally opposed Mr. Faxon when occasion occurred.

On the day of the assault, ex-chairman of the Selectmen, a particular friend of Mr. Odiorne, had been brought before Judge Colt of the Supreme Court, for refusing to deliver up books belonging to the town, and his firmness had received quite a shock. Mr. Faxon had taken very active steps in bringing Mr. Underwood, the ex-chairman to justice; probably he had done as much, or more, than any other gentleman in Quincy to develop his doings.

This had caused considerable feeling on the part of Mr. Underwood and his friends towards Mr. F. They were returning from the trial and to keep their spirits up, it is said, one or more had indulged a little too freely, and was attracting the attention of many in the smoking car. Mr. Faxon went into the car, as quite often he had done on former occasions, and took a seat next to the door.

As soon as the ex-chairman saw Mr. Faxon he commenced threatening him, being some eight feet from where Mr. Faxon was seated. Mr. Faxon made no reply but took out a memorandum book and took down some of his remarks.—Mr. Odiorne, no doubt aroused by Mr. Underwood's remarks, rose from his seat and approaching Mr. Faxon, struck him half a dozen or more blows upon his head in rapid succession. Wedged into the corner of the car Mr. Faxon was unable to rise or offer any resistance, and if it had not been for Capt. Deverson, who stepped forward and stopped the assault, we know not what would have been left of our Representative—probably nothing but his hat and boots—as Mr. Odiorne is smart enough to whip two or three just like him.

Mr. Orin A. Fogg, a young man known to many of our readers who felt desirous of aiding Mr. Odiorne, or doing something in Mr. Underwood's behalf, stepped up to Mr. Faxon, and it was said, struck him one blow, but on trial it was not sustained. Whether he did or not we cannot say, but no doubt, he was somewhat frightened at what he thought might be the consequences. He left the town on leg bail the next morning and it was rumored that he would return after the missing when wanted. Officer Farnald however kept track of his tramp and found him at Randolph.

Messrs. Odiorne and Fogg were summoned on Saturday to appear before the Municipal Court, on Monday, to answer to the charge of assault. The reading of the complaint was waived and the prisoner pleaded not guilty. The plaintiff was then called upon the stand, and gave a statement of the affair as it occurred.—He was followed by Messrs. Allen, Dewson, Gordon and Garrity. The witnesses were cross-examined with a view to show that Mr. Faxon provoked the assault, but no evidence was elicited.

The testimony for the Government was here completed, and finding no evidence against Mr. Fogg, he was discharged. The defense intimated they were not to offer evidence, and Judge Parmenter remarked that he understood it was the intention of defendant's counsel to carry the case up if a decision of guilt was rendered.

Upon the evidence it appeared a gross and unprovoked assault. He did not know what testimony the defense would offer, and therefore would declare it out of his jurisdiction to pass upon. He ordered the prisoner to recognize in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the sum of $500 for the Superior Court.

BANK STOCK. Jos. W. Lombard sold at auction, on Tuesday last, twenty shares of the National Granite Bank at $132 per share, to Mr. Elzezer Frederick.

NOTICE. The Rev. Samuel Kelly will preach at the West Quincy Sabbath School room, to-morrow morning, at half past ten o'clock.

Town of Quincy, vs. E. W. Underwood.

This much talked of, and to the citizens of Quincy highly important case, bearing as it does upon those of every class, where a town official is supposed to have been tampering with records of the town and Cemeteries, came before Judge Colt in Boston, on Friday last week.

The case was called at 3 o'clock, when the Defendant appeared without Counsel, and denied having any books or papers belonging to the town, but after some questioning admitted to a memorandum or a diary for his own personal use.

John Q. Adams, Esq., Counsel for the town, then stated to his Honor that the Defendant did have books and papers, and (to use the learned Counsel's own words,) ample opportunity had been offered him to give them up, but stubbornness alone was the cause of his withholding them, and that proof was ready.

Messrs. Asa Wellington, William A. Hodges, William Rhines and Joseph T. French were sworn, but only one examined. Asa Wellington was sworn and testified as follows:—That he was chosen as a Sub-Committee by the Committee chosen by the town, and that he called upon the Defendant. Said Defendant showed witness four books. One of Lots sold in Cemetery, to whom, &c.; one of Burials in the main Cemetery; one of Burials in Receiving Tomb, and reinterments in the main Cemetery; and one was an Index book which the foregoing three books were in a great degree compiled, and which books the Defendant said belonged to the town of Quincy.

The Court without hearing any other evidence then said that there was no reason why the books should not be delivered.

The Defendant said that he did not know as there were any records kept, and if there were, they were private, and if produced might criminate himself; that the people in Quincy said he was a deceiver. He still adhered to his first statement that he had no books.

Mr. Adams then stated that the Defendant had admitted to him that he was $300.00 behind, which had not been paid. The Court said that he had had books and must produce them, and if they were destroyed, it would be the worse for him.

Defendant then refused to give up the books. Whereupon the Court issued an order upon him to deliver to the Chairman of the Selectmen, within seven days, all books belonging to the town.

A TINY BABY. We have often heard, and read, of tiny specimens of humanity, but we think that Quincy can boast of being the birth place of one of the smallest. This wee little Miss lived to be eighteen days old, and its parents felt great encouragement as it seemed so natural in its stretching, gapping, and it would cry some. But it was too frail a blossom for this cold world, and the good Gardener has transplanted it to a more genial climate. Small as she was, she filled a large place in the affections of her parents and this affliction has added another wound to their fond hearts. As we looked upon its little perfect features we could compare it to nothing but a small wax doll, about twelve inches long. A finger ring could be easily slipped over its hand up to the shoulder. Its weight was but one pound. Her parents are what we call good sized, and the father informed us that their little son over seven years old, who is as large as any children of that age, weighed but about two pounds at his birth.

ENGINEERS. At a meeting of the Selectmen held on Tuesday last, the following gentlemen were appointed Engineers of the Fire Department for the ensuing year:—

W. M. French, John W. Hall, Amos Littlefield, George B. Pray and William Gregg.

THE FAIRY OPERA. We would advise all intending to be present to secure their tickets at once as they are being taken up very rapidly. Seats purchased previous to the commencement of the Opera will be reserved throughout the evening, and the seats are so numbered there can be no misunderstanding in regard to them. We would also call the attention of the little folks to the Festival during the day. Mr. Brown has made extensive preparations for their enjoyment in a rational manner, and one which will not subject them to the diseases incident to games in the open air at this season. Music will be furnished by Mr. Monk and Mr. Allen is prompter, which is sufficient guarantee of its excellence. The small fee of ten cents only is charged which admits all the day. Let all the little ones be present, and pleasure for one day at least, will be theirs.

TOWN MEETING. As will be seen by our advertising columns, the Selectmen have issued a warrant for a meeting to be held on the 7th of next month. A petition to see if the town will allow the manufacture and sale of ale and beer within its limits, was signed by the following persons:—

E. W. Underwood, Frederick Hardwick, Luke Rideout, John L. White, Thomas Faxon, Geo. L. Odiorne, Lewis F. Atteuton, Joseph G. Noland, Frederick H. French, James W. Rideout and O. A. F.

PHOTOGRAPHS. Any of our citizens who desire nice pictures should call at the Photograph Rooms over the Post Office. They will be better pleased as a general thing, with photographs taken at this place, than those procured in Boston.—Mr. Simpson understands his business, and gives most perfect satisfaction. He is excellent in taking out-door views, and we would call particular attention of those having fine residences that they desire to have photographed.

Ripe melons in Southern California are plenty now—days.

"This Way Mr. Merryman."

The Great Stone and Murray Circus, John H. Murray, Proprietor, will exhibit in this place, on the afternoon and evening of Friday next, announcing many new faces and features in their performances. The management has secured during the past winter, four of the most popular artists in Great Britain, including Miss Lizzie Keyne a dashing and beautiful equestrienne. David A. Seal, the great London Court Jester, whose every joke and sarcasm is entirely original with himself, and the L. Claire Brothers, who will appear in perilous feats upon the flying trapeze and astonishing aerial evolutions. Chas. F. Reed, a distinguished American equestrian and champion, six horse rider and pirouetteist, will appear in rivalry with Harry Welby Cooke, the artistic British rider. Hagle and Franklin the powerful and graceful young gymnasts have been engaged to introduce new feats of strength and agility in the gymnasium. The announcement of the reappearance of the young Tom Barry, the vocal humorist, will give universal satisfaction, for who has not laughed at him and his comic Elephant "Bolivar" over and over again. That terrible animal is still under perfect control and balances himself on his ear, and walks on his eye brows with perfect ease. The Stone and Murray Circus is now larger and more complete than ever before, numbering in the aggregate 250 men and horses. The entire outfit is new and the efforts of the director are to maintain the reputation of the past, as being the model institution of the country. Ladies and children who desire to witness the sports of the arena will be provided with carpeted seats and find courteous ushers in attendance, and the same rules governing the pavilion as in any first class musical or operatic entertainment.

For the Patriot.

Pay of Female Teachers.

We were glad to notice, in your issue of three weeks ago, an article in regard to our poorly paid female teachers. We think every teacher, would extend to the writer, a kindly grasp of the hand and most heartily thank him, for thus bringing the subject into public notice. Why should we not pay our teachers, as well as do our neighbors. We have visited schools in our neighboring towns and in our own, and see no reason why they should not be as amply rewarded, for their equally valuable service. In no instance can I discern that our schools are in any way behind our neighbors, except in salary. They are, in every respect as far advanced and well conducted, and our teachers as capable, hard working and faithful. Then why are they not as well paid.

I understand, an advance in salaries, has been made the present year, but it is so very slight, I will not venture further comment, by stating the paltry sum; and when your correspondent considers, that, instead of seventy-five dollars they are obliged to spend, at the lowest calculation, twice that amount for expenses outside their board, he will see, that instead of a small surplus in, they are quite a large surplus out, at the end of a year. No doubt, some will say, there is no necessity for such an outlay; but let them remember, a teacher is liable any moment to be surprised by visitors, (often strangers) and of course must be prepared for such emergencies. I think the present year's appropriation, was allowed by the majority of the people with the expectation and wish, that our teachers, were to be better paid: and, one some of the number having the matter in charge, has acknowledged there was money enough to do it, why is it not done.

Hoping, ere long, to see that Quincy shall not be spoken of as being "behind the times" in that respect, and to see the first move made in the right direction. I patiently await. JUSTICE.

REAL ESTATE SALE. Double House and one-half of an acre of Land, on Kidder street, by Henry H. Faxon to John Brady, for $1800.

ARRIVAL. Schooner Louise F. Smith, Capt. Brown, arrived at the Point, on Wednesday last, with 352 tons Lykens Valley Franklin coal for Owen Adams.

SEEDS. We take pleasure in calling the attention of farmers and dealers to the advertisement of Messrs. Schlegel, Everett & Co., found in our columns. All persons purchasing seed of them can place most implicit confidence, as we have found personally from many years of experience. They have issued this spring a most beautiful catalogue with new and excellent cuts which are very attractive. Let none of our readers when visiting the city for seeds of any kind fail to give them a call.

THE CAMPERS ARE COMING. The Great London Circus, with a Managerie, are to visit this place soon. It comprises a large collection of wild and tamed animals, and other paraphernalia of circuses.

MR. LEWIS' CONCERT. The musical entertainment at Revere Hall, on Wednesday evening last, given by Mr. L. W. Lewis and Miss Maria Hartley, was one of rare excellence. Mr. Lewis proved himself to be a vocalist of superior powers and cultivation, and the hearty demonstrations of applause from the large and intelligent audience present, gave evidence that his efforts to please on this occasion, were highly rewarded.

We hope Mr. Lewis may make it in his way to visit Quincy again before he returns to his native country, and he will be sure to meet with a hearty reception.

A cargo of eleven hundred barrels of apples arrived in Boston, on Wednesday, from Annapolis, Nova Scotia.

Green peas are 25 cents a quart in Charleston, S. C.

Special Correspondence.

New York, April 23d, 1872.

The trial of Fanny Hyde, in our neighboring city of Brooklyn, which has just closed, is a striking expose of one side of city life. Mrs. Hyde, as you remember, shot and killed her employer, Mr. Watson, in his factory in Williamsburgh, where she was employed. The trial commenced last Monday, and terminated on Sunday last. From the evidence elicited, the following facts were made public: Fanny, at the age of fifteen years, was forced by a second marriage of her father, to enter the world and gain a livelihood by her own endeavors. She went to work in the factory of a Mr. Watson in Williamsburgh, and continued there until the day of the murder, with but slight interruption.

At the time of her entering into this place she was a pure, virtuous girl, a devout member of the church, and a good member of Society. Mr. Watson was at this time, to all appearances, a perfect gentleman, about 43 years of age, married, with a daughter about the same age as Fanny. Not many weeks elapsed before Fanny fell from the path of virtue, a victim to the wiles of her older, and lecherous, employer. The many wiles used, the practiced arts used can never be known, and though many blame the girl for her fall, yet we must consider the difference in age and station. The employer, a middle-aged man, versed in the arts of life, probably practiced on other victims, the girl only fifteen years of age, young, unexperienced and poor.

The intimacy thus commenced was continued for years, the seducer having the audacity to bring his victim into his own family circle.

The girl's health gave way, she became the very reverse of her former self, and was forced to seek a physician's aid to assist her in covering up the evidences of her guilt and shame. At last she found a man whom she loved, and she resolved to break away forever from her former life. She informed Watson, and he swore on the Holy Bible, never more to molest her after marriage. Yet a week after marriage we find him renewing the liaison, by means of threats of exposure to her husband, as he had done before by threats of exposure to her parents. At last life became unendurable to Fanny Hyde, and her exclamation, "I wish that I was dead," came from the very depths of a broken heart. She resolved to free herself, even by murder, and purchased a pistol.

Again the employer sought to effect his foul purpose; she resisted, until driven to desperation she shot him through the head. For months this woman, or rather girl for she is not yet nineteen years of age—was the inmate of a prison-cell. The jury, before whom she was tried, failed to agree, ten for acquittal, two for manslaughter in the third degree.—Mrs. Hyde, was ably defended by Ex-District Attorney Morris, whose summing up was one of the most masterly efforts ever listened to in Brooklyn, and which drew tears from both jury and auditors.

Yesterday bail to the amount of $2500 was accepted, and Fanny Hyde stepped a free woman until her next trial. The public, who have a perfect right to judge, as well as a jury have agreed upon a verdict, and the verdict they render is—verdict the seducer right. Were this an exceptional case it might be passed over and alas! throughout our great city, in hundreds of work-rooms, there are many such as Fanny Hyde, and many there are among us who hold up their heads in pride, who if they had their just deserts, would be beside Watson in his grave. I have taken up so much space in the account of the trial that I have room for little more.

The new charter, which has passed both Houses at Albany, and now awaits the action of the Governor, is the cause of a great deal of exciting discussion.—The culminating system of voting seems to meet with but little favor from all sides, and is in advance declared unconstitutional. My own opinion is, that the charter is a perfect failure in regard to the wants of our citizens, and that Governor Hoffman will surely veto it. We certainly need a new charter, but we want one made by experienced hands, filled with accepted theories, not crude or new projects.

Candidates are thick as huckleberries in August, no less than 200 prominent men having been named for the position of Mayor.

The weather still keeps cool for the season. Good 111 1-4.

CARPETS. For the better accommodation of our customers, we have taken in connection with our former extensive warehouses the lower story, 629 Washington St., which gives an entrance to our carpet and furniture Emporium from the first floor. We feel assured that this improvement will be appreciated by our patrons. We shall still continue to sell a little lower than the lowest for cash or on liberal terms.

B. P. CUNNINGHAM & Co. A 27 3w

THE "DOMESTIC" has a self-adjusting tapers, which requires no change for different thicknesses.

NEWCOMB & CO., IMPORTERS OF FRENCH BOOTS.

JUST received, an invoice of GAY'S DOUBLE and SINGLE SOLED BOOTS, LEZ, Congress and Button. Also, the FRENCH TOES. We also manufacture the LATEST Style of BOOTS and SHOES to Order, from the best French and American stock.

At the Lowest Cash Prices.

GENT'S RIDING LEGS made to order. Call and examine our new SEAMLESS BOOTS and GLOVES, which for ease and durability, are superior to any now offered in the market. The Ladies are informed that their Department is under the supervision of Robert K. Lewis, whose years of experience have gained for him such a reputation.

NEWCOMB & CO., No. 43 Bromfield Street, Boston. April 27.

Wollaston Heights.

The growing enterprise of this place is clearly perceptible in the new residences that are springing up all over the beautiful Heights. Among these we notice Dean Sparrow, Mr. Jameson's, Mr. Mason's, Mr. E. Sparrow's and Mr. Currier's. Also Mr. Waterhouse of Boston is building a palatial residence, it stands on a beautiful spot, surrounded by a couple of acres, which commands a view unsurpassed by any in town.

The company have given two large lots of land for the erection of a Congregational Church, and the work on the Baptist Chapel will at once be resumed. The Hotel and business block is being enlarged to afford accommodation for its patrons, and we look forward to the erection of a large hotel at no distant day—on the site reserved for that purpose.

Ladies' Gold Watches!!

Of American and Foreign Manufacture.

$35.00 TO $100.00.

WITH EXTRA HEAVY CASES, And warranted equal to any to be obtained for the price.

Gent's Gold Watches,

Fine American movements and Gold Cases, made to any special order and warranted in every particular.

$75.00 to $150.00.

Gent's Silver Watches,

$15.00, $19.00, $20.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, $50.00, $70.00.

JOHN O. HOLDEN'S,

No. 87 Hancock street, QUINCY.

JOHN WILLIAMS, QUINCY.

HAVING purchased the right, under Scrimschaw's Patent, for Quincy and Braintree, to use the

Improved Composition for Pavements, CONCRETE,

Is now prepared to put down SIDE WALKS, GUTTERS, CROSSINGS, DRIVEWAYS, BAY CELLARS, &c., at short notice. ORDERS WILL BE PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. Office Box at Quincy Railroad Depot. Quincy, April 27.

PHOTOGRAPHS!

CAN BE HAD AT

Warren's Photograph Rooms, Over the Post Office, QUINCY, Mass.,

FOR ANOTHER WEEK,

At $2.50 per DOZEN!!

Remember, that this is but half the usual price. Our Large Pictures in Black Walnut Frames, at $2.00, are giving general satisfaction. Call and have one. Quincy, April 27.

PAINTS, OIL, VARNISH.

HAVING been appointed Agents for Quincy and vicinity by the well known and long established firm of

C. E. FOLSON & CO., of Boston, to sell their PAINTS, OILS AND VARNISH the public can be assured that they can be furnished with the above articles at the

Lowest Market Prices.

By calling on

J. W. LOMBARD & C. T. MANSFIELD,

No. 75 Hancock Street, Quincy, Over C. C. JOHNSON'S.

Town Meeting.

NORFOLK, SS. To either of the Constables, of the Town of Quincy, in said County, Greeting:

In the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, you are hereby required to notify and warn the inhabitants of the Town of Quincy, qualified to vote in town affairs, to meet at the Town Hall, in said Quincy, on TUESDAY, the Seventh day of MAY next at 1-1/2 o'clock in the afternoon, to act on the following articles, viz:—

ARTICLE 1.—To choose a Moderator.

ART. 2.—That any person allowed to manufacture, sell or keep for sale, or to have in this town the ensuing year. The vote shall be by ballot—yes or no. The polls to be kept open not less than two hours.

ART. 3.—To see if the town will instruct the Selectmen to favor or oppose the laying out of Newbury Avenue, so called.

ART. 4.—To see if the Town will authorize the Surveyor of Highways to lay out on the Squantum Road, the unexpended balance of last year's appropriation.

ART. 5.—To see if the Town will appropriate the sum of Five Hundred dollars, for the building and furnishing of a suitable lockup, in addition to the appropriation made at the last Annual March meeting, and that the Committee chosen at that meeting to furnish a lockup, be authorized to expend the same therein.

ART. 6.—To see if the Town will furnish equipments for the Constables and Police officers of Quincy.

ART. 7.—That any person allowed to manufacture, sell or keep for sale, or to have in this town the ensuing year, the vote shall be by ballot—yes or no. The polls to be kept open not less than two hours.

ART. 8.—To see if the Town will instruct the Selectmen to favor or oppose the laying out of Newbury Avenue, so called.

ART. 9.—To see if the Town will appropriate the sum of Five Hundred dollars, for the building and furnishing of a suitable lockup, in addition to the appropriation made at the last Annual March meeting, and that the Committee chosen at that meeting to furnish a lockup, be authorized to expend the same therein.

ART. 10.—To see if the Town will furnish equipments for the Constables and Police officers of Quincy.

ART. 11.—That any person allowed to manufacture, sell or keep for sale, or to have in this town the ensuing year, the vote shall be by ballot—yes or no. The polls to be kept open not less than two hours.

ART. 12.—To see if the Town will instruct the Selectmen to favor or oppose the laying out of Newbury Avenue, so called.

ART. 13.—To see if the Town will appropriate the sum of Five Hundred dollars, for the building and furnishing of a suitable lockup, in addition to the appropriation made at the last Annual March meeting, and that the Committee chosen at that meeting to furnish a lockup, be authorized to expend the same therein.

ART. 14.—To see if the Town will furnish equipments for the Constables and Police officers of Quincy.

By E. F. E. THAYER, Auctioneer, Office 105 Washington Street, Boston.

Horses, Cows, Hay, &c., AT AUCTION.

MONDAY, April 29, at 1 o'clock, P. M., at the Farm of SIMON PALMER, Esq., on the Randolph Turnpike, near Milton, Mass., the following stock, consisting of 1 Heavy Horse; 1 Hay Wagon; 1 Mowing Machine; 1 Hay Wagon; 1 Covered Wagon; 2 Carriages; one Sleigh; Lot of Stock Tools; 1 Grind Stone; one Root Cutter; 1 Harrow; 1 Churn; 1 Hay Cart; Churns; Ox Yoke; Old Iron; FARMING TOOLS; Lot of Oak Fank; 6 Barrels Old Vinegar; empty Barrels, Pouches, HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, and other articles.

Sale positive, as the Farm has changed owners. No postponement on account of weather. TERMS CASH. Milton, April 27.

MILLINERY.

A GOOD APPRENTICE WANTED. S. H. HUSSEY. Quincy, April 27.

LADIES' BOOTS.

JUST received a lot of VERY FINE FRENCH KID BUTTON BOOTS.

Also American Kid Button Boots, High Foxed Button and Lace Boots, High Calf Boots. Selling Cheap by GEO. SAVILE, 90 Hancock Street, opp. Post Office, Quincy, April 27.

TO LET.

FIVE ROOMS will be let to a small family without children, in a pleasant location near the Quincy A. R. Depot. Apply to Mr. BOWDITCH on the premises, or to HOLBROOK & FOX, 8 Kilby St., Boston. April 27.

Beautiful House Lot FOR SALE.

CONTAINING about 13,000 feet, corner of Greenwood and Putnam streets, in Quincy; view of the city and surrounding country. Apply to Mr. BOWDITCH on the premises, or to HOLBROOK & FOX, 8 Kilby St., Boston. April 27.

Quincy Fire Department.

NOTICE. All persons having demands against the Quincy Fire Department are requested to present the same on or before NEXT SATURDAY, as the officers of the Department are desirous of having all bills for the year, which ends May 1st, settled.

NOTICE.

Whereas, SAMUEL G. BEAL, HAS this day been discharged from my employment, I hereby caution all parties against making payment to him of moneys due me.

E. WILLIAMS DEAN, 327 Tremont Street, Boston, April 18, 1872.

FOR SALE.

A CUBAN Pony, weighing 100 lbs. will run 10 miles an hour, sound and kind, afraid of nothing and safe for any one to drive. Address

W. H. CAVANAGH, Braintree, Mass. Quincy, April 27.

Importers, Growers, and Dealers

IN SEEDS.

THE subscribers would call the attention of Farmers, Gardeners and Dealers to their large and very carefully selected Stock of Seeds, all of the NEW CROP, and such as can be depended on as being pure and true to name. It embraces an unusually large variety of Garden, Grass, Field and Flower Seeds. Catalogues furnished free to applicants. SCHLEGEL, EVERETT & CO., 16 SOUTH MARKET STREET, Boston, April 27.

FLOWER SEEDS.

MRS. E. HAYDEN, has just received her Spring supply of rare and beautiful Flower Seeds, some in assorted boxes, with prizes, from the Establishment of W. H. Lyman & Co., and others.

Also, reliable Vegetable Seed, which she offers for sale. March 25.

FLOWER SEEDS BY MAIL.

25 PACKETS of Choice Flower Seeds sent FREE on receipt of $1. Catalogues free on application.

Flowers.

WEDDINGS, FUNERALS, AND PARTIES, TO ORDER. DEE & DAVY, FLOWERS, 57 Tremont Street, Boston, April 27.

Shirts! Shirts!!

If you want a nice, fitting WHITE SHIRT, CHEVROT SHIRT, WOOLEN SHIRT, CRICKET SHIRT, Under Shirts and Drawers, the best place to get them for a little money is at GEORGE SAVILE'S, 90 Hancock Street, opp. Post Office. Quincy, April 27.

TEAS. TEAS.

At 60 Cents a Pound.

We will guarantee to sell as good TEA as is sold in the City at 75 cents to $1.00 a pound.—Call and try them at

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, 550 and 552 Washington Street, BOSTON.

Goods delivered in QUINCY free of charge. Boston, April 27.

TEAS. TEAS.

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, CAN show you the best assortment of the finest new crops of TEAS imported, retailing at prices from 40 cents to $1.00 a pound, and pound warranted to give satisfaction. If it is not returned and the money refunded, we will be returned and the money refunded. C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, 550 and 552 Washington Street, BOSTON.

Groceries delivered in QUINCY free of charge. Boston, April 27.

Teas! Teas! Teas!

VERY BEST TEAS!! OOLONG, JAPAN, ENGLISH BREAKFAST, AND THE BEST Green and Black Teas Mixed, All retailing at $1.00 per pound, at

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, 550 & 552 Washington Street, BOSTON.

Groceries delivered in QUINCY free of charge. Boston, April 27.

TEAS. TEAS.

A GREAT SAVING can be made in every family by purchasing their TEAS of

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, 550 and 552 Washington Street, Boston. Groceries delivered in QUINCY free of charge. Boston, April 27.

TEAS. TEAS.

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, ARE SELLING prime strong and sweet TEAS at the low price of 50 cents a pound, and every pound warranted to give satisfaction. Call and see them at

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS, 550 and 552 Washington Street, Boston. Groceries delivered in QUINCY free of charge. Quincy, April 27.

Another New Departure.

GREAT ATTRACTIONS! AT THE BOSTON STORE

Formerly McLELLAN & CO. For the Spring of 1872.

The Ladies and Citizens generally of QUINCY and vicinity are invited to examine our Stock before purchasing. We shall always exhibit a good line of Goods and at prices as LOW as at any store in the City, saving to our customers the expense and trouble of going "in town" for many of their wants.

All our Goods shewn with pleasure, and none urged to buy.

A large assortment of

APRONS, ALPACAS, BUTTONS, BRAIDS, BINDINGS, Bustles, Button-Hole Twist.

COLLARS, CUFFS, CORSETS, CORSET CLASPS, CAMBRICS, COTTONS, COMBS.

DRESS GOODS, DOMESTIC GOODS.

EDGINGS, ELASTICS, Eureka Silk and Twist.

FRINGES, FRANKELNS, FRENCH CAMBRIC, GLOVES, GIMPS, GINGHAMS, GRENADINE.

HANDKERCHIEFS, HOOP SKIRTS, HOSIERY, HAMBURGERS.

Imperial Embroideries.

JAPANESE POPLINS, JEWELRY, JRANS.

Kid Gloves, Knitting Cotton.

_____

waterer cause. All letters for advice must contain Office No 9 ENCAMOTE STREET, BOSTON.
N. E.—Board furnished to those desiring results treatment.
Boston, July 5 1871 sp-3p

W. W. PRATT & CO.
57 Bromfield St., Boston.

All kinds of Pure Wines, and Liquors.
Boston, April 20. 4w

37 and 39 Temple Place.
BOSTON.
April 6. 4w

or adults, is Dr. Gould's Pin Worm-Syrup.
 Family vegetable, pure, small in all forms, a valuable cathartic, and beneficial to health. Warranted.
 Price reduced to 50 cents per bottle.
 GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Boston.

Quincy and make return to this Court under oath that such notice has been given.

GEORGE WHITE, Judge of Probate Court.
Quincy, April 20.

Poetry.

The Happy Man.

Happy the man who will not take
The drink that does intoxicate;
Which makes the noblest works of God,
Worse than the beasts that tread the sod.

Happy the man who tries to save
Our children from the drunkard's grave
And trains them up to hate the foe,
That laid so many millions low.

Happy the man who will not rest
Till free from drink the world is blest
The fruitful source of sin and shame,
Of wicked deeds too foul to name.

No human mind can estimate
The worth this demon does create;
Lord help us in Thy name to fight
To conquer and destroy this foe.

Home, Farm and Garden.

How to Raise Asparagus.

A correspondent sends the following directions: Select a half acre of deep, rich loam soil, take pains thoroughly to pulverize it to considerable depth; give it twenty loads of manure or more, if you have it to spare, plough the manure in. Prepare a bed of sufficient size in one corner to sow three pounds of asparagus seed in rows a foot apart, and take good care to keep the weeds out. Plant the remainder in carrots or some other vegetable and give the whole careful cultivation. In the fall gather your crop of carrots, which you will find more than repays all the expense incurred. Give your asparagus bed a heavy top dressing of stable manure. In the spring again give your half acre a heavy manuring; plough under, be particular and plough deep; pulverize the soil thoroughly with the harrow; lay out in rows three feet apart and into them transplant the asparagus plants, ten inches apart. After the first weeding give them a top dressing of salt-say about sixty-five pounds to the square rod, and more will not injure it. It is not only beneficial to the plant but kills the weeds saving a great amount of labor. The salt must always be used in the spring. Once in two or three years give a liberal top-dressing of superphosphate. Always buy your fertilizers of responsible dealers. If proper attention has been paid to transplanting, &c., you will now have 8000 or 9000 first class plants, of an article which is always saleable and will always bring a remunerative price. Of course the net profit will depend somewhat upon the location. If near a market and you give it a reasonable share of your attention, you should make, clear of all expense, $150 yearly.—Massachusetts Ploughman.

Poultry Keeping for Women.

There are many women who, especially within the last half dozen years while the price of eggs has been so high, make money much faster by tending poultry than by sewing. It is an occupation especially suited to women, because it involves patience and constant attention to details rather than strength. Then again, the hardest thing for many men to learn, in handling either poultry or bees, is gentleness. How many times we have seen boys, and men with no more sense than boys, jerk hens roughly from their nests, enter the poultry house abruptly and frighten the occupants till they rush in a fluttering mass into the farthest corner, and keep the poultry community in constant agitation and distress. But all domestic animals appreciate the manners of women attendants when they are fortunate enough to be cared for by them. Now that there are women gardeners and florists, who by commendable industry and business qualities have risen to eminence in those callings, and while one of the most successful, if not the most successful bee keeper in the world is a woman, we hope to see others give poultry more attention than it has hitherto received. Aside from profit, the keeping of fine poultry for fancy is an elegant pastime very popular with English ladies, and we see no reason why the fashion should not be adopted here.—Poultry World.

Incidents.

During the late war, a woman went into a grocery shop, and found she was asked double the former price for candles, so she wanted to know the reason why candles were so dear.

"Oh, it is the war that causes it," the grocer replied.

"Dear me," exclaimed the woman, "have they actually got to fighting by candlelight?"

"That seat is engaged," said a pretty young maid, in a car one day.

"To whom?"

"A young gentleman, putting," she said.

"Then where is his baggage, pray?"

Her ruby lips opened like rosebuds in spring, her face in deep blushes was dyed, as muttering crossly, she cried: "You hateful old thing! why, I am his baggage."

"John, I saw your cousin Isaac a few weeks ago, and he had just received a terrible fall, which cut a gash in his arm."

"Ah, poor fellow; what did he fall on?"

"Well, really, I forgot now, but it rather strikes me he fell on Tuesday morning."

"Mamma," said a little girl, "what's the meaning of a book being printed in 12mo?"

"Why, my dear," replied the mother, "it means that the book will be published in twelve months."

A

Great many persons are beginning to rejoice over the departure of Winter, and in the prospect of milder and more pleasant weather. The Spring, which is the loveliest season of the year, will be hailed by thousands as a

Thing of Beauty

When, in a few days, the ice and snow shall disappear under the benign influence of the ascending sun, and every face shall wear a smile, as the buds begin to swell, and the flowers to bloom about the paths which we shall tread—now

IS

The season for Gentlemen to think about laying aside the heavy garments which they have worn during the cold months of Winter, and to don lighter Clothing SUITED to the warmer days of Spring and Summer. It is

A JOY

To be able to refer them, for their supplies in this line of goods, to such a House as that of L. D. BOISE & SON, where may be found one of the best assortments of CLOTHS and CLOTHING in the city.

FOREVER

My proprietors have occasion to know that their goods suit the people, and their patrons to know that there is no better place in Boston to get perfect Firs, and well-made Garments, than at

L. D. BOISE & SON,

Merchant Tailors & Clothiers,

30 Washington Street, 30

BOSTON.

April 13.

8w

IMPORTANT INVENTION!

COMBINATION SOLO STOPS, TO BE FOUND ONLY IN THE
Geo. Woods Parlor Organ
ARE THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENT ever introduced into instruments of this class.—
All interested are invited to judge of the merits claimed for them.

New Pattern Cases,

OF EXCEEDINGLY RICH AND ELEGANT DESIGNS.
WAREHOUSES,
Music Hall, - - Winter Street,
BOSTON.

Organs sold on instalments, and old instruments taken in exchange.
April 13.

Hartshorn's Liniment.

FOR Rheumatism, Sprains, &c. Hartshorn's Liniment, No. 18, which has proved very successful. Also Bishop's Liniment.
For sale by Mrs. E. HAYDEN.
Quincy, Feb. 17.

FIRE KINDLINGS.

10 CENTS will buy a package that will kindle a fire of thirty-six fires. Sold by W. ABERCROMBIE.
Quincy, March 2.

AMATEUR Cultivator Guide

TO THE FLOWER & KITCHEN GARDEN.
WE are pleased to announce that the 26th Annual Edition of this well-known work is now ready, containing a magnificent new colored lithograph, besides hundreds of engravings, in addition to its full descriptive price-list of 2000 varieties of Flower and Kitchen Seeds, Rare Gardenias, Lilies, Tuberoses, &c., with full directions for their culture. This is without doubt the most perfect work of the kind before the public.
25 Cents sent to applicants upon receipt of two stamps.
Address
WASHEURN & CO.,
100 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass.

NEW Franklin Market,

Beach Street, between Lincoln AND SOUTH STREETS.

A. CHASE & CO.,

FISH STALLS, No. 16 and 18, KILLBUCK, and moved to No. 31 Hancock St., representing the same with a full assortment of the best.

Oysters at $1.20 per gallon, Or 20 cents per quart. Parties out of town can have their orders filled, and goods sent to Depot to care of Baggage Master.
Boston, Dec. 30.

Funeral and Furnishing UNDERTAKER.

THE Subscriber having taken the Furnishing Undertaker's business of Mr. CHAS. H. KIMBALL, and removed to No. 31 Hancock St., representing the same with a full assortment of the best.

CASKETS, COFFINS, ROBES AND HABITS, is prepared to attend to all who may favor him with their orders at the shortest notice. Having had several years experience in the Undertaking business, he hopes by strict attention to merit a share of patronage.
JOHN HALL
Quincy, March 19.

NEW NECKTIES.

JUST RECEIVED

A splendid Assortment OF NECKTIES adapted to the SPRING SEASON, selling at low prices.
GEORGE SAVILLE,
Quincy, March 16.

NOTICE!

PERSONS WANTING MORNING PAPERS CAN OBTAIN THEM

A Half Hour in Advance of the Morning Mail, by Subscribing

At Southern's News Depot, Next Door to the Post Office, E. B. SOUTHER, Quincy, June 24.

WICKES' ECLECTIC OIL

Is intended for use in ordinary Kerosene Lamps wherever good light and perfect security from accident are required. It is prepared carefully at the

HUDSON RIVER OIL WORKS, AND CANNOT BE EQUALLED FOR Purity, Brilliancy and Economy

Furnished in cans, cases and prime bbls. by J. R. BARTLETT & CO.

28 INDIA STREET, BOSTON, Wholesale Agents for the New England States.

FOR SALE BY WHITNEY & NASH. Quincy, Feb. 3.

Fawcett, Hawkes & Co.'s IMPROVED RADIATING HOT AIR FURNACE.

Five Sizes for Brick. Five Sizes Portable.

For Warming CHURCHES, SCHOOL HOUSES, PUBLIC BUILDINGS, PRIVATE RESIDENCES, STORES, &c., &c., &c.

All who are interested in the Heating of Buildings are invited to call and examine our Furnaces. And to all who may desire, estimates will be given.

A large number of these FURNACES have been put in by us, in Quincy and vicinity, within the last three years, and have given unbounded satisfaction.

For extent of Radiating Surface. Ease of Management. Economy of Fuel and Durability, it is unequalled.

Every FURNACE warranted to give satisfaction. Special attention given to getting up FURNACES, RANGES, and the VENTILATION OF BUILDINGS, in any part of the country.

MANUFACTURERS OF DOUBLE OVEN COOKING RANGES, With or without Water Backs.

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE ORIENTAL AND American Stoves.

Constantly on hand a fine assortment of PARLOR and OVEN STOVES, among which are the Stewart, Magee, and other patterns, at prices from $6.00 to $75.00.

GAS LOGS: French Imitation of Wood Fire.

PORTABLE HOT AIR GRATES, For Hard and Soft Coal and Wood.

PARLOR AND CHAMBER GRATES, REGISTER VENTILATORS &c.

FAWCETT, HAWKES & CO. No 21 Bedford Street, BOSTON

ALFRED FAWCETT, EDWARD HAWKES, EDWARD M. NASH, Boston, Sept. 28.

TREES PLANTS FLOWERS

Dealers and purchasers of Fruit and Ornamental Trees and Plants will find their interest in examining our largely increased and unequalled stock, which is superior in quality, with many Novelties, selected in Europe, by personal inspection, last fall. Send for a Catalogue.

W. C. STRONG & CO., Brighton, Mass., and No. 4 Beacon St., Boston, March 16.

S. H. KIMBALL, MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF

LIVERY STABLE REMOVED.

THE Subscriber would respectfully inform his patrons that he has removed to

New Stable on Hancock Street, REAR OF MESSRS. TURRELL'S SHOP, where he is prepared to furnish Horses and Carriages at short notice.

He would also take this opportunity to thank the public for their liberal support, and hopes by furnishing good teams at reasonable prices to continue to receive their patronage.

JOHN HALL, Quincy, June 20.

Woolen Blankets. CHEAPER than ever, AT ABERCROMBIE'S, Quincy, Dec. 9.

GREAT BARGAINS

PAPER HANGINGS

Room Mouldings, FOR THE NEXT 60 DAYS,

DENNETT, BLISS & JONES, 383 Washington Street, BOSTON, MASS. 8w

HALEY, MORSE & CO. FURNITURE, 411 WASHINGTON ST.

NEW AND ELEGANT STYLES! Parlor, Library, Dining Room AND CHAMBER FURNITURE

Mantel and Pier Mirrors, Lace Curtains, Draperies, and Spring Beds and Bedding.

Having the largest stock and the FINEST ASSORTMENT OF

FIRST-CLASS FURNITURE, in this or any other city, we invite all to call and examine our stock and learn our prices before purchasing elsewhere.

Burr's Parlor Beds!! BURR'S LIBRARY BEDS, Prices from $50 to $150.

In various styles of finish. The most convenient and acceptable Parlor Bed in the market. We are the sole Agents for the New England States, for PATENT

Elastic Sponge PILLOWS, MATTRESSES, BOLSTERS, and Church Cushions.

We can refer to more than one hundred churches that are using the "Elastic Sponge Cushions." It is cheaper than hair, and will hold its elasticity double the length of time, and warranted proof against moths.

HALEY, MORSE & CO. 411 Washington Street, BOSTON. 5m

CHAMBER SETS. If you want a nice Chamber Set at a reasonable price, go to KEATING & SPEAR, Washington St., Quincy, Nov. 18.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of MARY SAVILL, deceased.

WHEREAS a certain instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, was presented to the Probate Court, for Probate, by JOHN B. SAVILL and EDWARD CAPEN, who pray that letters testamentary be issued to them in the execution thereof, they are hereby directed to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy, in said County, of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of MAY next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, against the same.

And all petitioners, are hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of CHARLES F. SMITH, deceased.

WHEREAS application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to THOMAS F. FAXON, of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk,

You are hereby directed to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy, in said County, of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of MAY next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said PETITIONER, is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of LOUISA S. FAXON, deceased.

WHEREAS application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to THOMAS F. FAXON, of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk,

You are hereby directed to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy, in said County, of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of MAY next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said PETITIONER, is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of CATHERINE P. KETTEL, deceased.

WHEREAS application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to THOMAS F. FAXON, of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk,

You are hereby directed to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy, in said County, of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of MAY next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said PETITIONER, is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of THOMAS F. FAXON, deceased.

WHEREAS application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to THOMAS F. FAXON, of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk,

20 per cent. SAVED.

PRICE CURRENT.

English Tapestries $1.10 to $1.25
India Brussels 60c. to 75c.
Dunelm Tapestries 35c. to 50c.
Extra Superfine $1.25 to 1.50
Superfines $1.00 to 1.25
Lagrains, Two Plys, 40, 50, 75 to $1.00
Twilled Venetians 30c. to 50c.
Wool Venetian Stairs 25c. to 50c.
Dunelm Dutch 35 to 50c.
Floor Oil Cloth, 20 to 35c.
Straw Matting, 20 to 35c.
Furniture, at correspondingly low Prices—
—for cash, or on easy weekly or monthly Payments.

B. P. CUNNINGHAM & CO. 296 Washington Street, BOSTON. Boston, March 9. Sept. 26-1y

ELEGANT FURNITURE

—AND— Upholstery Goods.

We make no pretension of having "the largest and best stock of Furniture in Boston" or "in the country," which we are selling at "twenty per cent less than manufacturers' prices," but would respectfully say that we have a good and well selected stock of Furniture and Upholstery Goods, as can be found at any establishment in Boston or elsewhere, and we guarantee our prices shall be as low as the lowest.

Special attention given to DRAPERY and CURTAINING, by Mr. Prichard, who has had large experience, and for 12 years was with Messrs. Lawson & Harrington, so long and favorably known to the citizens of Boston and vicinity.

All are invited to visit the warehouses and see for themselves the quality, MATERIAL, STYLE and FINISH of our work.

BUCKLEY, BANCROFT & BOYDEN 503 and 511 Washington St., Boston. July 13.

Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Comp'y.

INCORPORATED 1851. CASH FUND OVER $450,000

THIS COMPANY INSURES DWELLING HOUSES, BARNS, HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, CHURCHES AND STORES, WEARING APPAREL.

And the safer classes of property on very favorable terms, and is now paying a Dividend of 50 Per Cent.

I. W. MUNROE, Pres. CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.

Weymouth & Braintree MUTUAL Fire Insurance Co.,

OF WEYMOUTH, INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILDINGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.

Amount at Risk April 1, 1871, $2,262,973.00

Cash Assets, $29,332.69
Deposit Notes, $55,367.06—$114,599.75
N. L. WHITE, President.
ELIAS RICHARDS, Sec'y.
Wm. B. DUGGAN, Agent, Quincy. Quincy, Aug. 1.

JOHN HARDWICK, Real Estate and Insurance Agent, Granite Street, Quincy. May 4.

WILLIAM B. RYAN, Practical Plumber, Hancock Street, QUINCY.

Under the Post Office, KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead Pipe, Water-Closets, various kinds, Forcing and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers, Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated Cocks, &c., &c.

Pumps of all kinds Repaired. Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly attended to, and reasonable terms.

GREAT BARGAINS! D. B. STETSON'S.

Men's Rubber Boots $3.50
Boys' " " 2.50
Youths' " " 2.00
And all other Rubber goods at the lowest prices.

Quincy, Feb. 3.

BOOTS & SHOES Made and Repaired!

THE Undersigned would respectfully announce to the public that he has moved to the shop corner of

HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price, called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of CATHERINE P. KETTEL, deceased.

WHEREAS application has been made to said Court to grant a letter of administration on the estate of said deceased, to THOMAS F. FAXON, of Quincy, in the County of Norfolk,

You are hereby directed to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Quincy, in said County, of Norfolk, on the second Wednesday of MAY next, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, against granting the same.

And said PETITIONER, is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once a week, for three successive weeks, in the newspaper called the Quincy Patriot, printed at Quincy, the last publication to be two days, at least, before said Court.

Witness, GEORGE WHITE, Register, Judge of said Court, this TENTH day of APRIL, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two. J. H. COBB, Register.

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Norfolk ss. Probate Court.

To the Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, and all other Persons interested in the estate of THOMAS F. FAXON, deceased.

RICHARD HALLS, Merchant Tailor!

CORNER OF HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.

WOULD inform the citizens of Quincy, and vicinity, that he has a large and CHOICE ASSORTMENT of goods adapted to the season which he will make to measure in the

MOST APPROVED STYLES, and warranted satisfactory.

Goods sold by the yard, and GARMENTS cut and trimmed. All Goods warranted. Quincy, June 19.

JOHN A. HOLDEN, Merchant Tailor & Dealer CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DUESKINS AND VESTINGS.

Hancock, cor. of School St., Quincy. HAS on hand and is constantly receiving from the best sources, New and Desirable Goods adapted to his trade. All who wish first class Custom Made Garments, for a fair price, are respectfully invited to call.

N. B. It would be well to remember, that Cheapness and Dearness are relative attributes; they have a relation to the quality of the article we buy, and that, which does not answer well the purpose for which it was intended, is DEAR at any price.

Quincy, March 30

GENTLEMEN I STILL Live and am ready at all times to show you as good a line of Clothing and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, as can be found in town, and at as

LOW PRICES. "If you don't believe me call in and see me" and satisfy yourselves.

A large assortment of NECK TIES, IN BLACK AND FANCY SILKS, Suitable for all ages.

The newest and best goods in the market.

Paper Collars, all prices. Just received 10,000 of those Quincy Granite, Linen Faced, Paper Lined Collars, round and square corners. They are made expressly for me and need no recommendation; as many who have already used them will testify in their favor.

White Shirts, Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts, Gingham Shirts, Hosiery Shirts, and Shirts at all prices.

A full line of Undershirts and Drawers for Fall and Winter, very low.

Overalls and Jumpers in Blue and Brown Denims, White Duck, Kersey, &c.

Handkerchiefs, Handkerchiefs, Bosoms, Cuffs, Socks in good variety.

Good Heavy Pants, suitable for Fall and Winter,

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

POLICE REPORT. The following is the report of the Police of this town, for the month of April. People provided with meals and lodgings, 17. Arrested on criminal warrants 10. Whites 2; Colored 1. Males 8; Females 2. The causes for arrest were, common drunkard 1; drunk 5; assault and battery 3; disorderly 1.

MAY DAY. The festival at the Town Hall on Monday was entered into with a zest by a large number of the juveniles. Looking in upon them in the height of their hilarity, we could not help inwardly exclaiming, "O, would we were a boy again!"

THIS EVENING. All our citizens, both ladies and gentlemen—are invited to the Town Hall, this evening, to listen to some able remarks from Gen. J. L. Swift and Samuel C. Knights, Esq., upon that interesting and all-important subject—Temperance. These gentlemen are popular speakers, and will entertain very pleasantly all who may listen to them.

PROGRESS. Rev. H. W. Beecher, (it will be seen by an article on the first page of to-day's paper) strongly advocates the opening of reading rooms on Sundays. At the Unitarian Church on Sunday evening, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Wells, in an interesting discourse, heartily endorsed Mr. Beecher's views. The world moves.

ORGANIZED. At a meeting of the Engineers held at the Selectmen's Room on Wednesday evening, for the purpose of organizing, John W. Hall was re-elected Chief, and George B. Pray, Clerk.

WOLLASTON HEIGHTS. The Sabbath school concert at the Chapel at this place, on Sunday evening last, was highly appreciated by a very large audience. The Chapel was filled to overflowing and a growing interest in Sabbath school work is clearly perceptible. The subject was, "a sense of personal responsibility to God, the foundation of true honesty."

Excellent remarks were made by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Abbott, and others. The recitations by the children were highly commended.

THE OPERA IN QUINCY. The beauty and fashion of Quincy filled the Town Hall on Wednesday evening, to witness the grand fairy opera (subject founded on Midsummer Night's Dream), entitled, "THE FAIRY BRIDAL." The bridal ceremonies were interesting, as they could not fail to be, some of the best musical talent of the town taking part therein.

CONVENTION. The Republicans of the Second Congressional District held a Convention in this place on Wednesday last, for the purpose of choosing delegates to represent the District at the National Convention at Philadelphia. Seth Turner of Randolph, and C. C. Bixby of North Bridgewater, were declared elected, and Col. Fearing and J. S. Anthony, Esq., of Taunton were chosen as alternates.

Hon. F. A. Hobart, of Braintree, offered the following resolution, which was adopted with much enthusiasm:

Resolved, That this Convention, representing the Republicans of the Second Congressional District of Massachusetts, cordially approves and heartily endorses the action of the State Convention in recommending that the delegates from this State to the Philadelphia National Convention vote as a unit for Grant and Wilson.

COMMITTED TO JAIL. George Thayer was brought to this town from East Cambridge, by Deputy Sheriff, on Wednesday last. He was tried before Justice Beals, of Cohasset, for the larceny of a horse and wagon from Mr. John Hall, about two years ago. In default of bonds he was committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury, at the September term of the Criminal Session.

AUCTION. Don't forget the sale at the residence of the late Jos. N. Brown, on Tuesday next. For particulars see advertisement.

WEST QUINCY. Rev. Samuel Kelly will preach in the Sabbath School room, to-morrow morning at half past 10 o'clock.

Braintree.

REAL ESTATE. The School House lot with the old building at South Braintree was sold on Tuesday last, to Mr. F. G. Crosby for $1000. The lot on Taylor street near the Town House, was sold the same day for some $800. These lots will be used immediately for building purposes. Quite a number of houses are in progress and masons and carpenters are having a busy time.

FESTIVAL. The Middle Street Union held a festival at the Town House, Wednesday; evening it was very fully attended. The proceeds are to be added to their fund as they contemplate building a public hall at the Four Corners.

RESIGNATION. Rev. Mr. Allen, of the South Congregational Church has been compelled on account of ill health to tender his resignation as pastor. Braintree will feel the loss as well as the Church. n.

ASSAULT. Stephen Morse, Jr. of this town was fined at the Municipal Court in Boston, one day recently $5.00 and costs, for an assault upon Sidney Fisher, Esq.,

Streets at Wollaston Heights.

"Hope deferred maketh the heart sick," is beginning to be realized by the pioneer residents here, in reference to public streets. Some of us will soon have to compensate but vague promises. It is time that the "backing and filling" of public functionaries, who have the laying out and acceptance of certain avenues, repeatedly petitioned for, should cease. We hope the town, at the May meeting will give some positive expression which will help our County Commissioners to decide the question of laying out or rejecting Newport Avenue and also aid the Selectmen in determining what to do in reference to other avenues. While taxed for lighting the village above, and paving its gutters, we ask for a pittance bestowed on Wollaston Heights, or at least a reduction of taxes, that will allow the citizens here to care for these private streets, in a manner creditable to our growing village. Building here is more brisk than at any previous period. Some twenty houses are now in process of erection.

For the Patriot.
A RAID.

State Constable Eldridge of Neponset, with a large delegation of brothers and sisters of Mutual Division, visited Granite Division, on Thursday evening of last week. After the initiation of about twenty candidates, the Division opened under the head of the good of the Order. Able speeches were made by Grand Scribe, Brothers Butterfield and Eldridge and others of Mutual Division. Father Kelley made some able remarks; warmed up he said by a good bowl of clam chowder. May he long live to be with us. Others of Granite Division urged upon us to stand firm on the Rock of Temperance. After singing, &c., the Division closed at about 10 o'clock.

This Division starts well and may do a good work in this town.
Yours &c., in the good work of reform.
H. C.

For the Patriot.
Teachers.

In answer to another Tax Payer, I think he makes a very feeble attempt to withdraw the public attention, from the small salary of the female teacher and convert it to himself, he cries bawle, that is evident he is wounded in some tender part. He gives the public to understand that he is a teacher of the Grammar school, and as such, I shall treat him.—He thinks because he has taken the responsibility of a wife, and has got lots of babies to support, he must have three quarters of the appropriation. That is selfish. He pretends to know all the expenses of the female, and there are only two,—board and clothes. He does not take into consideration that she may have an aged mother, or a sick brother or sister she would like to help, but cannot with her present salary. Neither does he consider that some of them like himself may get married but the pay is so small it would take years to get a decent bridal outfit. I do not care what the Grammar teacher receives. All I ask is that the female may have half the amount paid to the male. And I hope if the Hon. Committee have any surplus on hand they will divide it equally among the female teachers. If not, let us at our next annual March meeting have a sufficient sum appropriated to bring the female teachers salary up to five hundred and fifty dollars, a year. I think that is about one-half the Principal, and ninety per cent. of the voters of the town will be in favor of it.

TAX PAYER.
Now in regard to his question's which are all together out of place, I would say that, I have not had any use for Pargoric and I won't tell the price, perhaps some one recently wounded can.

THE COAL TRADE OF BOSTON.—Boston requires one million of tons of coal per annum, or four thousand cargoes an average of twenty cargoes per day, from April to October. The fifty thousand families of Boston require nearly 500,000 tons annually, and the balance is taken by stores, steamers and factories, gas works, &c. The coal trade of Boston is increasing with great rapidity, and is about double in importance with what it was ten years ago.

THE LIQUOR LAW. A bill amending the liquor law was passed to be engrossed in the lower branch of the Legislature on Wednesday last week, and a motion to reconsider the vote was lost on the following day. The amendment relates to the recognition of persons convicted under section 59, chapter 415, which provides, that convicted persons shall give bonds from one thousand to two thousand dollars, that they will not sell again for one year. The bill mentioned above amends the law so that the lower limit shall be one hundred dollars, and add a requirement that the personal recognition shall be backed up by sufficient sureties.

PENSIONS. A bill has been prepared by the House Congressional Committee, by which the rates of pensions to disabled soldiers have been materially increased; the allowance to those totally disabled being advanced from twenty-five to forty dollars per month; to those incapacitated from labor, from twenty to thirty dollars; to those whose disability is equivalent to the loss of a hand or foot, from fifteen to twenty dollars; while an intermediate grade for disabilities not otherwise provided for has been added, to which thirteen dollars per month is allowed. A proposition has been made to publish a list of the pensioners biennially.

The "Domestic" is less liable to drop stitches than any other machine.

Will of the late Quincy Tufts.

Mr. Tufts who died in Weymouth a few weeks since was a native of that place. After certain devises and bequests in trust for the use of his relatives, and legacies of $1000 to each of his cousins named in the will, Mr. Tufts bequeathed $1000 to each of three persons named who were in his service at the date of the will. To Rev. Jos. Perkins, $200; to Rev. Dr. Gannett's Sunday school, $200; to Rev. Mr. Wells' Sunday school, Quincy, $100; to Rev. Mr. Dickerman's Sunday school, Braintree, and Rev. Mr. Emery's Sunday school, Weymouth, $100 each. After various other legacies, he bequeaths the rents and incomes of all his estate to his sister during her natural life. After her decease, he gives to the Association for Relief of Aged Indigent Females, the home for Aged men, the Asylum and Farm School for Indigent Boys, the Boston Female Asylum, Howard Benevolent Society, Sailors' Snug Harbor of Quincy Society for the Prevention of Pauperism, Massachusetts Medical School, Humane Society of Massachusetts, Boston Dispensary, the Benevolent Fraternity of Churches, Massachusetts Congregational Charitable Society, Society for the Relief of Aged and Destitute Clergymen, American Education Society, New England Hospital for Women and Children, Needlewoman's Friend Society, the sum of $2000 each, in trust, the income to be appropriated for the benefit of these societies. To the president and fellows of Harvard College $20,000 as a permanent fund, the income to be appropriated to the education of indigent scholars. To Amherst College $2000, for the like use. To Atkinson Academy, N. H., $2000 for the like use. To the town of Weymouth $10,000 in trust the income to be appropriated one-half for the delivery of lectures on useful knowledge free to the inhabitants of the town, one-quarter for a free library in the town, the other quarter for rent and expenses of library, reading room and lecture room; expressing the hope that the town will furnish room for the period of twenty years. Lectures and library to be at Weymouth Landing. To the town of Weymouth, $500, in trust for repair of tomb of late Cotton Tufts, if not wanted for that purpose, for the repair and improvement of the burial ground. To the town of Weymouth, $2000, in trust; income to lay sidewalks and set shade trees in the town. To the Massachusetts general hospital, $10,000; income to be appropriated for free beds in that institution for the sick, poor and wounded. He then devises the residue and remainder of his property, real and personal, to his relatives, and appoints executors, etc. The will is dated November 8, 1869.

Salary of Teachers.
DEAR PATRIOT:—Recent articles regarding salaries of Female Teachers have induced a discussion of the merits of the question, by those directly interested and by others, and we hear frequent remarks upon the points which the different writers have made. The article based upon expenses and the paragoric article in reply, do not seem to touch the right chord. Though the one may be a good answer to the other, the first is a very slim argument. A more recent writer than either of these does much better, and we hope that pen will again be wielded in favor of our poorly paid teachers. "They say" that there is money enough in present appropriation for a further increase of salaries, and "They say" assert that the Secretary of the School Board acknowledges this.

I will suggest fellow Tax-payers that we go up to the Town Hall next week and vote solidly. No, on the Beer question; that we do our best to make this a thoroughly temperance town, as they do it in Maine. Then our police force can be diminished for lack of business, and as the Lockup would not be needed, that additional appropriation might be saved and used, with other savings, that would follow such a course, to the further increase of Teachers' salaries.

Vote for the sale, and we must for the Lockup, vote against it and we may lock up the Lockup.
F. LEWIS.

ONE WEEK LONGER. Mr. Otis Rogers who has been canvassing the town, for Dr. Hall's Guide Book to Health, has commenced delivering the work to subscribers. We are pleased to learn that he has done quite well. The work is an excellent one and should be in every family. He will close his labors in this place next week, and all who are desirous of securing a copy by leaving their orders at the Hancock House, will receive prompt attention.

THOSE BOOKS. E. W. Underwood has at last given to the Chairman of Selectmen the Books having the records of the burials, cemetery lots, etc., in the Wollaston Cemetery, which has created so much talk and stir in our midst.—What a pity he had not taken this wise step some weeks since, as it would have been much more to his credit.

PEACE JUBILEE. The price of season tickets admitting to the Jubilee is fifty dollars each and are transferable. A design for a badge to be worn by members of the Jubilee chorus has been prepared. It will be made of white metal, silver plated, bearing on one side a monogram of P. S. Gilmore, the projector and conductor, and the nations to be represented engraved on the Greek cross. The reverse will be inscribed with the name of distinguished composers, and the words: "World's Peace Jubilee, Boston, Mass., 1872."

It is fifty years since the first election under a city charter was held in Boston.

Summary of News.

Sixty thousand acres of land in Florida were recently purchased for one and a half cents an acre.

A new house is to be built in Charlton Mass., an event, it is said, which has not happened before for twenty years.

A youth of ninety-one recently led to the altar a charming bride of one hundred and six. It is reported that they were married without the consent of their parents.

Over 2000 Catholics at Lawrence about equally divided as to sexes, have lately signed the total abstinence pledge.

A twenty-acre chicken farm has been started in Wyandotte, Kansas.

A man in Middlefield, Conn., recently dug out of one hole and killed 90 black snakes, measuring from three and a half to six and a half feet in length.

Every body has taken his or her "peck of dirt" the past week.

It is said that North Weymouth has been troubled by burglars of late.

A Dutchman, complaining of bad neighbors, says his pigs and his hens come home with their ears split, and that the last time two of the hens came home missing.

A woman in Manchester, England, has been arrested for chloroforming women, and while they were in an insensible condition, cutting off and stealing their hair.

The first car load of butter from San Francisco reached Boston recently.—It comprised 100 boxes and 210 packages; in all, 19,100 pounds.

A goose in Maine has produced an egg a foot in circumference, and the proprietor proposes to retire that goose on half-pay.

Mrs. James Fisk, Jr., has applied to the sculptor, Larkin G. Mead, for designs for a $25,000 monument to be placed over the grave of her husband at Brattleboro, Vt.

Snow is still four feet deep in some places on the mountains in Vermont.

It is stated that present appearances indicate that anthracite coal will be cheaper next summer than for several years previous.

Furnished houses in Newport are said to command higher prices this year than ever before.

Farmers in Conn., say that the prospects of a fruit crop next summer are very bad. The raspberry and blackberry crop is about destroyed by the continued cold of March, while the strawberry crop will be very slim.

Grand rush at Cunningham's mammoth Emporium. It is said they are daily cutting no less than 5000 yards of carpets, straw matting, and oil cloths, besides their immense furniture trade.—This in connection with their wholesale business, is one of the largest, if not the largest, done in the city. M. 43w.

MEETING OF THE NORFOLK ASSOCIATION. At the quarterly meeting of this ministerial association, held April 30th, Mr. Geo. H. Martin instructor in Normal school at Bridgewater, was licensed to preach. The venerable Dr. Richard S. Storrs, of Braintree, has long been moderator of the association, and though unable to attend the sessions, is annually re-elected to this position, as a mark of regard and affection of his younger brethren in the ministry.

SALES. Daniel W. Baxter bought of Francis Williams and Alvin Rogers, an estate on Phipps street, for $4300. Daniel Baxter, Esq., bought of Daniel W. Baxter, the above estate for $4300. George W. Bass of Milton, sold H. W. Littlefield, A. N. Burton and William H. Long, ten acres, on the Squantum and Old Plymouth roads, for $10,000.

Samuel Littlefield, Jr., sold to George C. Russell and Charles B. Fessenden, eleven acres, on Willard street, near Railway Village, for $10,219.89. William L. Foster, sold to William M. Hunt, about one acre of land with buildings, on the west side of the Brush Hill road, also, nineteen acres on the opposite side of the road, for $13,500.

Resolutions. Head Quarters, Post No. 88, Paul Revere Encampment, G. A. R. Quincy, April 30th 1872. At a meeting of the Post, the following Resolutions were passed on the death of Comrade James Lyett.

Whereas it is the pleasure of Almighty God in his infinite wisdom to remove from our midst, after months of severe suffering, our friend and Comrade, James Lyett, be it therefore by the Post:—Resolved, That the feelings of sorrow with which we record the decease of our friend, is tempered to us by the pleasant memories which associate themselves with the recollection of our Comrade's life and sojourn with us as a man upright, as a Comrade, fraternal, as a soldier, loyal and true.

Resolved, That to the relatives of our departed Comrade, we tender our hearty sympathy in their affliction pointing them to Him, whose ways are wise, and who though often inscrutable, yet doeth all things well.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the records of the Post.—A copy forwarded to the brother and friends of our departed Comrade, and published in our local paper.

Miss Nellie Grant, the President's daughter, was presented to Queen Victoria on Friday of last week. She is the guest of Minister Schenck and has been called upon by members of the Ministry and diplomatic corps.

For the better accommodation of our customers, we have taken in connection with our former extensive warerooms the lower store, 629 Washington St., which gives an entrance to our carpet and furniture Emporium from the first floor. We feel assured that this improvement will be appreciated by our patrons. We shall still continue to sell a little lower than the lowest for cash or on liberal terms.

MARY J. W. MORTON, Guardian. Quincy, April 25, 1872. [May 4—4w]

B. P. CUNNINGHAM & Co. A. 27 3w.

JURORS. Messrs. Charles H. Edwards, Isaiah G. Whiton, Liba Litchfield, have been drawn to serve as Grand Jurors, and James S. Baxter, Lewis Bass, Jr., Ditson, Henry A. Gay, William W. G. Cony to serve as Petit Jurors, U. S. Circuit Court, May Term.

BY JOSEPH W. LOMBARD, AUCT. Office, No. 3 Hancock Street, QUINCY, MASS.

FURNITURE! AT AUCTION!!

Will be sold at Public Auction, ON TUESDAY, May 7th, 1872, At 2 o'clock, P. M., At the residence of the late JOS. N. BROWN, on Summer Street QUINCY.

THE following article of FURNITURE, consisting of Sofa, Looking Glass, Bed and Bedding, Crochery and Glass Ware, Watches, Clocks, Carpets, Bureaus, Stairs, Common and Parlor Tables, Woolen Carpets, &c. Some of the Furniture is quite ancient and is worthy the attention of those seeking such articles. Per order of the Executors, Quincy, May 4.

Electro Silicon, Miller's Silver White, French Rouge, Covell's Polishing Powder, For Cleaning and Polishing SILVER and PLATED ARTICLES, without SCRATCHING. For sale by JOHN O. HOLDEN, 87 Hancock Street, Quincy, May 4.

SEED POTATOES. THE Subscriber has a FEW BUSHELS of the PEELESS POTATOES, which he will sell to those who desire. They are of his own raising, and very superior in quality. Also a few bushels of "KING OF THE EARLY" Apply to J. Q. BENT, Quincy, May 4.

NOTICE. THE Partnership heretofore existing under the name of RIPLEY & COLE, of West Quincy is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All accounts of the late firm will be collected and settled by GEORGE W. RIPLEY, GEORGE W. RIPLEY, WILLIAM H. COLE. Quincy, April 27, 1872.

The business heretofore known under the name of RIPLEY & COLE, will be continued at the Old Stand by the undersigned, and he would be happy to meet his old acquaintances, and, in fact, the public at large, believing that he can furnish GROCERIES at such prices as will defy competition. Respectfully, GEORGE W. RIPLEY, Quincy, April 27.

NEWCOMB & CO., IMPORTERS OF FRENCH BOOTS. JUST received, an invoice of GAN'S DOUBLE and SINGLE SOLED BOOTS. Leg, Congress and Button. Also, the FRENCH We also manufacture all the LATEST STYLES of BOOTS and SHOES to Order, from the best French and American stock.

At the Lowest Cash Prices. GENTS RIDING LEGS made to order. Call and examine our new SEAMLESS BOOTS and SHOES, which for ease and durability, are superior to any made in the United States. The Ladies are informed that their Department is under the supervision of ROBERT KEAT, whose years of experience have gained for him such merited success.

NEWCOMB & CO., No. 43 Bromfield Street, Boston. 4w

REPORT OF THE condition of the NATIONAL GRANITE BANK at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business on the 10th day of April, 1872.

RESOURCES.
Loans and Discounts,	$206,885.57
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation,	150,000.00
Due from Redeeming and Reserve Agents,	12,881.96
Banking House,	6,200.00
Cash Items, (including Stamps),	441.82
Bill of other National Banks,	4,108.00
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation,	112.00
Fractional Currency (including Nickels),	427.66
Legal Tender Notes,	15,000.00
	$396,106.51

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock paid in,	150,000.00
Surplus Fund,	22,000.00
Discount,	665.51
Profit and Loss,	2,536.45
Net Bank circulation outstanding,	122,624.00
Dividends unpaid,	4,065.10
Individual Deposits,	16,175.55
	$396,106.51

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss. I, R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier of the National Granite Bank of Quincy, do solemnly swear, that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

R. F. CLAFIN, Cashier. Sworn to and subscribed before me, this Second day of May, 1872.

CHARLES MARSH, Justice of the Peace. Correct.—At test, JESSE BUNTON, CHARLES MARSH, Directors. ALEXIS TORREY.

REPORT OF THE condition of the NATIONAL MOUNT WOLLASTON BANK at Quincy, in the State of Massachusetts, at the close of business, April 19th, 1872.

RESOURCES.
Loans and Discounts,	$232,643.01
U. S. Bonds to secure Circulation,	120,000.00
Due from Redeeming and Reserve Agents,	14,484.41
Current Expenses,	37.29
Cash Items, (including stamps,	186.56
Bill of other National Banks,	1,982.00
Fractional Currency, (including Nickels),	437.72
Legal Tender Notes,	14,580.00
	$453,867.41

LIABILITIES.

Capital Stock paid in,	$150,000.00
Surplus Fund,	65,000.00
Discount,	965.24
Profit and Loss,	2,748.67
Net Bank circulation outstanding,	122,624.00
Dividends unpaid,	2,867.90
Individual Deposits,	79,756.75
	$453,867.41

State of Massachusetts, County of Norfolk, ss. I, Horace B. Spear, Cashier of "The National Mount Wollaston Bank of Quincy," do solemnly swear that the above statement is true, to the best of my knowledge and belief.

HORACE B. SPEAR, Cashier. Subscribed and sworn to, before me, this Third day of May, 1872.

J. Q. ADAMS, Justice of the Peace. Correct.—Attest JOHN Q. ADAMS, E. B. FLETCHER, JOSEPH W. ROBERTSON, Directors.

Guardian's Sale. NORFOLK, ss. The undersigned, Guardian of ARTHUR A. MORTON and SARAH J. MORTON, minors, will, by order of the Probate Court for said County, sell at Public Sale, upon the premises, at three o'clock in the afternoon of WEDNESDAY, the twenty-second day of May, 1872:

1. The Right, Title and Interest of the said minors in the following described parcels of Land lying in Quincy, and described as follows:—One undivided third part of Five acres of upland at Hough's Neck, so called, bounded Northerly on the road, Easterly on and set off to the widow of the late Samuel Spear, Southerly on and set off to the heirs of said Samuel Spear, and Westerly on and set off to the heirs of Henry Littlefield.

Also—One undivided third part of Six acres of Salt Marsh, more or less, bounded Northerly upon estate of said widow, said heirs and said Henry Littlefield, Easterly on and set off to the heirs of said Samuel Spear, Southerly on and set off to the heirs of said Samuel Spear, and Westerly on and set off to the heirs of Henry Littlefield.

LECTURE! Gen. JOHN L. SWIFT, OF BOSTON, Will Lecture under the auspices of the Massachusetts Total Abstinence Society, AT THE TOWN HALL, QUINCY, This (Saturday) Eve., May 4, At 7 1/2 o'clock.

SAMUEL C. KNIGHTS, Esq., of Cambridge, will also address the meeting. Let there be a full attendance to hear these most eloquent advocates of the Temperance Cause. Quincy, May 4.

CLOCKS, IN GREAT VARIETY, $2.00 to $40.00, At JOHN O. HOLDEN'S, 87 Hancock Street, Quincy, May 4.

Jersey Cow for Sale. A FULL BLOOD JERSEY COW (pedigree in the Herd Book), calves immediately.—A valuable Cow for family use. Price $110. J. P. QUINCY, Wollaston, May 4.

NORFOLK Mutual Fire Insurance Company, DEDHAM. INCORPORATED A. D. 1825. INSURES BUILDINGS AND FURNITURE only, not exceeding $4000 Dollars on any one risk. It pays 50 per cent. return premium on Expired Policies.

A Plications to the subscriber, who continues as Agent for the Company, will receive prompt attention. HORACE B. SPEAR, Quincy, May 4.

Ladies' Gold Watches!! Of American and Foreign Manufacture, $35.00 TO $100.00, WITH EXTRA WIND CASES, And warranted equal to any to be obtained for the price.

Gent's Gold Watches, Fine American movements and heavy Gold Cases, made to my especial order and warranted in every particular, $75.00 to $150.00.

Gent's Silver Watches, $15.00, $19.00, $26.00, $30.00, $35.00, $40.00, $55.00, $70.00.

JOHN O. HOLDEN'S, No. 87 Hancock street, QUINCY. At JOHN WILLIAMS, QUINCY, HAVING purchased the right, under Scrimsby's Patent, for Quincy and Braintree, to use the

Improved Composition for Pavements, COMMONLY CALLED CONCRETE. Is now prepared to put down SIDE-WALKS, GUTTERS, CROSSINGS, DRIVEWAYS, BARY CELLARS, &c., at short notice. ORDERS WILL RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION. Order Box at Quincy Railroad Depot. Quincy, April 27.

PHOTOGRAPHS! CAN BE HAD AT Warren's Photograph Rooms, Over the Post Office, QUINCY, Mass., FOR ANOTHER WEEK, At $2.50 per DOZEN!!

Remember, that this is but half the usual price. Our Large Pictures in Black Walnut Frames, at $2.50, are giving general satisfaction. Call and have one. Quincy, April 27.

PAINTS, OIL, VARNISH. HAVING been appointed Agents for Quincy and vicinity by the well known and long established firm of

C. E. FOLSON & CO., of Boston, to sell their PAINTS, OILS AND VARNISH, the public can be assured that they can be furnished with the above articles at the

100

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
— Established in 1837 —
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
No. 64 Hancock Street, Quincy.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.
GEO. W. PRESCOTT, Ass't Editor.

TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$3.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
Job Printing Promptly Executed
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.
MAILS SENT FROM / MAILS CLOSE FOR
Boston, 11.30 A.M. Boston, 11.40 A.M.
Quincy, 1.40 P.M. Quincy, 2.50 P.M.
Cape Cod, 4.40 Quincy Point, 9.15
Quincy Point, 9.30 A.M. Quincy Point, 5.40 P.M.
JOHN B. BASS, P. M.
Quincy, July 23.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
4 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY,
(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)
H. I. BOWDITCH, M. D. D. W. CHEEVER, M. D.
D. H. STORR, M. D.
Dr. Gordon, may be found at his Office,
No. 4 Temple St. day and night.
Quincy, July 22.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 14.

H. FARNAM SMITH,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Business done promptly, at reasonable rates of charge.
Quincy, June 11.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
OFFICES:
Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,
And at Weymouth Landing.
E. F. E. THAYER,
AUCTIONEER
And Real Estate Broker,
Bainbridge, and 91 Washington St., Boston.
Office Hours 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.
Particular attention given to selling and purchasing Farms, Houses, &c.
No charge unless sales are effected.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Architects, Engineers
AND SURVEYORS,
Office, No. 32 Joy's Building,
81 Washington Street, Boston.
Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,
levelling, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully prepared.
H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BRECK.
April 15.

Horticultural Store.
Choice Fruit, Flowers and Plants
RUSTIC & WIRE WORK.
Fancy and Common Flower Pots,
Pans, &c., &c., &c.
DELICACIES IN VARIETY.
Wedding & Funeral Flowers
arranged and preserved.
No. 100 Tremont Street, Boston.
ISAIAH WHITE,
Agent for Savings Star Spring Water.

B. F. MESERVEY,
WATCHMAKER,
2 CITY HALL AVENUE,
BOSTON.
Watches and Jewelry repaired.
April 29.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH,
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.
Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 27.

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber being about to change his business, requests all persons having debts against him to present the same, and those indebted to make immediate payment to him at his late residence, No. 39 Merchants Row, Quincy, Jan. 20.

WILLIAM CARRITY'S
(Formerly Farnald and Shea's)
Quincy & Boston Express
THE Subscriber having purchased the good will of the Route recently managed by Messrs. Spear &
Barnard, and having secured the exclusive right between Quincy and Boston, and hopes by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.
N. B.—Furniture Moved and Parties
accommodated at short notice.
Leaves Quincy at 9 o'clock, A. M., and Boston at 2 1/2
P. M.
Quincy—Orders may be left at Whitney & Nash's, John
A. Wood's, W. A. Barnard's, and at the Stable,
Barnard's Washington Street, 43 South Market St.;
2 Faneuil Hall Square.
Quincy, Sept. 7.

JOHN RING,
WILL faithfully attend to the delivery of
any packages intrusted to his care.
Leave Quincy at 8 1/2; Boston at 2.
Orders left at his residence on Summer
Street, or at E. C. Spear's Store, in Quincy; or at Faneuil Hall Square, in Boston, will receive prompt and careful attention.
Quincy, May 15.

KEATING & SPEAR,
Next door to Watson's Shoe Store,
Quincy, Nov. 18.

The Quincy Patriot.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVI. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, MAY 11, 1872. NUMBER 19.

Selectmen's Meetings.
THE Selectmen will meet at their Office, in the Town House every SATURDAY, from 5 to 5 o'clock, P. M., until further notice.
Persons having business with the Town will please present it on those days.
JOS. W. ROBERTSON, } Selectmen
JOHN Q. A. FIELD, }
WILLIAM A. HODGES, } Quincy, March 9.

State Aid.
THE Selectmen will meet at their Office in the Town House, on the last MONDAY, of each Month, from 2 to 5 P. M., for the purpose of paying State Aid, to those Volunteers or their families, who are entitled to it under the provisions of the law of 1867.
JOS. W. ROBERTSON, } Selectmen
JOHN Q. A. FIELD, } Quincy,
WILLIAM A. HODGES, } Quincy, March 9.

Importers, Growers, and Dealers
IN SEEDS.
THE subscribers would call the attention of Farmers, Gardeners and Dealers to their large and very carefully selected Stock of Seeds, all of the very best quality, and such as can be depended on as being pure and true to name. It embraces an unusually large variety of Garden, Grass, Field and Flower Seeds.
Catalogues furnished free to applicants.
SCHLEGEL, EVERETT & CO.,
No. 10 SOUTH MARKET STREET,
Boston, April 27.

$200 REWARD.
THE Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Company will pay Two Hundred Dollars Reward, for the detection and conviction of the incendiary, or incendiaries, who burnt the House of Robert Cushman, in this town, which was partially insured in this Company.
Per order of Directors.
CHARLES A. HOWLAND, Secretary.
Quincy, May 15.

New Franklin
MARKET!
BEACH STREET,
Between Lincoln and South Streets.
THIS new and commodious market, which has just been opened, will be found very convenient for those persons residing in Quincy and vicinity, who visit the city by the railroad, as it is near the depot. The best of Meats, Vegetables, Fish, OYSTERS, POULTRY, BUTTER, etc., can always be obtained at the Most Reasonable Prices.
Parties coming in on the train can have their orders at the market, and have their goods sent to the Depot in charge of the Baggage Master.
Boston, Dec. 29.

Prints! Prints!
3000 Yards, at 10 Cents per yard.
Quincy, Sept. 16. At ABERCROMBIE'S.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.
Three Times each Way Daily BETWEEN Boston and Quincy
And all Intermediate Stations.
BOSTON OFFICE—41 Brattle Street, ORDER BOOKS—at Dillingham's 36 Merchants
Row, and at PORTER'S Old Store,
Corner Water and Kilby.
Particular attention given to orders by Freight.
Consists with all routes leading out of Boston.
A. P. SAMPSON, Proprietor.
Quincy, Nov. 4.

Quincy and Boston Express.
R. L. LEE, SUCCESSOR TO
N. B. FURNALD & SON
Office in Boston, 46 North Market Street.
Orders in Quincy, left at the stores of Daniel Baxter, Southern's periodical, Mr. Wilson's provision, or at Gurney & Mason's, North Quincy will receive prompt attention.
Quincy, Jan. 21.

WILLIAM CARRITY'S
(Formerly Farnald and Shea's)
Quincy & Boston Express
THE Subscriber having purchased the good will of the Route recently managed by Messrs. Spear &
Barnard, and having secured the exclusive right
between Quincy and Boston, and hopes by strict attention to business to merit a share of public patronage.
N. B.—Furniture Moved and Parties
accommodated at short notice.
Leaves Quincy at 9 o'clock, A. M., and Boston at 2 1/2
P. M.
Quincy—Orders may be left at Whitney & Nash's, John
A. Wood's, W. A. Barnard's, and at the Stable,
Barnard's Washington Street, 43 South Market St.;
2 Faneuil Hall Square.
Quincy, Sept. 7.

JOHN RING,
WILL faithfully attend to the delivery of
any packages intrusted to his care.
Leave Quincy at 8 1/2; Boston at 2.
Orders left at his residence on Summer
Street, or at E. C. Spear's Store, in Quincy; or at Faneuil Hall Square, in Boston, will receive prompt
and careful attention.
Quincy, May 15.

KEATING & SPEAR,
Next door to Watson's Shoe Store,
Quincy, Nov. 18.

Another New Departure.
GREAT ATTRACTIONS!
— AT THE —
BOSTON STORE
Formerly McLELLAN & CO.
For the Spring of 1872.

The Ladies and Citizens generally of QUINCY and vicinity are invited to examine our Stock before purchasing. We shall always exhibit a good line of Goods and at prices as LOW as at any store in the City, saving to our customers the expense and trouble of going "in town" for many of their wants.

All our Goods shown with pleasure, and none urged to buy.
A large assortment of APRONS, ALPACAS, BUTTONS, BRAIDS, BINDINGS, BUSTLES, Button-Hole Twist,
COLLARS,
CUFFS, CORSETS,
CORSET CLASPS, CAMBRICS,
COTTONS,
COMBS.

DRESS GOODS, DOMESTIC GOODS,
EDGINGS, ELASTICS,
Eureka Silk and Twist, FRINGES, FRILLINGS,
FLANNELS,
FRENCH CAMBRIC, GLOVES, GIMPS, GINGHAMS, GRENADINE,
HANDKERCHIEFS,
HOOP SKIRTS,
HOSTERY, HAMBURGERS,
Imperial Embroideries,
JAPANESE POPLINS, JEWELRY, JEANS,
Kid Gloves, Knitting Cotton, LINENS, LACES, LOOPS, MOSQUITO NETTING, MUSLINS, NETS, NEEDLES, NECK TIES, OIL SILK,
Prints,
Pocket Books,
Pencils, Pins, QUILLINGS, QUILTS, RIBBONS,
RUFFLINGS, RATS, Stationery,
Shawls,
Scarfs,
Switches,
Soaps,
Skirts, TRIMMINGS, THREAD, TAPES, UNDERWEAR,
UNDERSLEEVES,
UMBRELLAS,
VELVET RIBBONS, VEIL BERAGE, Wollens, Worstedes, Welting Cord.

POETRY.
For the Patriot.
Defend the Right.
TUNE — "Auld Lang Syne."
Come all ye staunch Republicans,
You men of honor bright,
You faithful, true Americans,
Who dare defend the right;
Be ready your old hearts to meet,
To give the Freeman's sign,
And with brave hearts to fight it out
On Grant and Freedom's line.
A voice from every patriot's grave
Cries from the crimson'd soil,
Let not the land we did to save Become the traitor's spoil.
Uncounted thousands yet unborn
Will live to bless the day
You spurned the proffer'd bribe with scorn,
Your country to betray.
The Freeman's flag that o'er us waves
Reminds us what to do;
When rogues conspire to make us slaves,
We give the keaves their due.
Then rally boys, your faces to rout,<
A band of brothers join,
Resolv'd to fight the battle out
On Grant and Freedom's line.
Weymouth. F. M. ADLINGTON.

Receipts, Wit & Humor.
SPONGE DROP CAKES. Make a sponge cake, heat a dripping-pan hot enough to cook a griddle cake, butter muffin rings, and set them in the pan and when hot drop in a tablespoonful of the cake in each ring; set in the oven for a few moments. Have ready an icing and put on while they are hot.

TO REMOVE THE TASTE OF WOOD.
A new keg, churn, bucket, or other wooden vessel, will generally communicate a disagreeable taste to anything that is put into it. To prevent this inconvenience, scald the vessel well with boiling water,
letting the water remain in until cold;
then dissolve some pearlash or soda in lukewarm water, adding a little lime to it. Wash the inside of the vessel well with this solution. Afterwards scald it with hot water, and rinse with cold water before you use it. The reason for this is the ready combination of resinous matter with alkalies to form compounds soluble in alcohol.

He who thinks to deceive God deceives himself.
The worst rum-holes are men's mouths.
A fashionable but ignorant lady of St. Louis wanted a costly camel's hair shawl, but her husband got her a cheap imitation article. On examining it, she found the name of the manufacturer on one corner, and wanted to know what that was. "That?" said the husband;
"oh, that's the name of the camel of whose hair the shawl was made!" The wife takes great pride in her shawl, and has no doubt of its genuineness.

An aristocratic lady, after anxious inquiry as to what would remove paint from her window-glass, was told that "elbow grease" was the best thing known, whereupon she naively exclaimed: "Oh!
I'm so glad that I have found out! I wonder if they keep it at the apothec-ary's."

The richer a man makes his food,
the poorer he makes his appetite.
There are thirty thousand idols in the Chinese religion.
A stout old lady in New York got out of a crowded omnibus in front of the Astor House, the other day, she exclaimed,
"Well this is a relief, anyhow." To which the driver, eyeing her ample proportions, replied, "So the 'oldest thinkmum'."

"Yes, my boy," went on the stock broker, tapping the table emphatically
with his finger ends; "she does like you!
And I'm not the only person who has noticed it."
"But, uncle, she is so plain!"
"What of that?" All women can't be Venuses, and the prettiest of 'em have a grinning skull and cross-bones under their pink and white skins and fair exteriors. Beauty is not skin-deep.

Henry thought of pretty Lillie, with a thrill of tender recollection. Miss Easter-brook, with all her golden charms, could never hope to rival her!

Yet, as the weeks went by, his thoughts
and ideas insensibly changed.
The yellow lustre of the gold-worshiping atmosphere in which he lived seemed to wrap him round the surface glitter of society; ideas gradually uprooted the old dogmas and axioms of his youthful faith.
And one evening, carried away by the withering and enchantment of the hour,
he proposed to Sarah Esterbrook and was accepted!

Congratulations poured in upon him
next day.
"You're the luckiest dog going, Dal-
mayne," cried one.
"I only wish I were in your shoes,"
echoed a second; and Henry, dazzled by the brilliancy of his prospects, believed that he was really a most fortunate man.
For, according to popular rumor, he was going to marry one of the richest girls in London! And Uncle Peckham took to himself all the credit of the whole affair.
"This is better than plodding on one's whole life-long behind a counting-house desk!" cried Ralph, joyously rubbing together his lean and wrinkled palms. "A young man of enterprise and resolution can accomplish anything he sets about now-days, especially if, like you, Dalmayne,
he happens to be tolerably decent looking."
A man does not always degenerate in-
to a villain all at once; and when Henry Dalmayne sat down to write to Lillie,
his frame of mind was not far from enviable. But he got the letter written some-
how. He wrote that no answer would be expected, and no answer came.

London Correspondence.
LONDON, April 17, 1872.
What a great difference there is between the winter weather of Boston and London! Since I have been here the thermometer has averaged about 50 deg-Fahrenheit, and there were many days in February and March so warm and pleasant that an overcoat was hardly needed.
With the exception of three or four days about a month ago, there has been no frost worth speaking of since Christmas time, and only one fall of snow. I was talking with one of "the oldest inhabitants" last evening, and he gave me the above facts, also saying that he could hardly remember a milder winter than the one just passed. I am writing this letter with windows and doors open; the trees in the squares and parks are leaving out rapidly; some varieties having their summer costume fully displayed, the grass is well up and very green, and last Sunday afternoon there were thousands of people from three months old upwards, enjoying the beauties of Regent's Park.
But I will not excite your feelings by describing them at present, and trust that the good people of Quincy will in a short time behold the natural beauty of their own fields and woods, and realize to a great extent the genial climate of England. In this letter I will simply give you a few notes of a couple of visits to St. Paul's Cathedral, quite the lion of the metropolis, in its way, as you may very well know. My first visit was on a Sunday morning, soon after my arrival here. I thought I might as well make a good beginning in this matter of church-going, and at the same time to get a pretty fair idea of the Church of England service, which is certainly giving in full length in this tolerably large and yet unfinished cathedral. I caught sight of its grim and lofty dome more than once on my way, and coming to the front of the edifice, I looked at it pretty thoroughly, longer than I was aware of perhaps, and I should have added three or four centuries to its age, had I not known the bad effects of London smoke and fog on all its external architecture.
I found the steps, as well as the flagging in the front area, well worn away by the millions of feet that have trod them during the past hundred and fifty years, and also noticed the heavy stone wall with high iron fence atop, nearly a half mile in length, surrounding the whole building. Hundreds of people were flocking to the services this morning, visitors from foreign lands as well as regular attendants of London, on their first visit to the Cathedral, for there are plenty of persons who have never seen its interior, although born and brought up within view of its steeples. While I was yet in the portico, the hour of service, half-past ten, was sounded from the clock chime, and I then entered and took a seat under the dome with the rest of the audience, about fifteen hundred in number. In every church that I have been to, the old style of cushioned pew has been the rule, but in St.
Paul's it is neither pew nor cushioned settee, but merely rush bottomed chairs, dingy and rickety, and very low besides,
as I quickly found after beginning to sit down. Most of their present strength is from being bound together in tens and twenties, thus helping to bear each other's burdens. After an hour of preliminary chanting and intoning of prayers and psalms, the Rev. Preliminary Irons stepped up solidly into the pulpit, and began to look up his text. At this point many of the audience withdrew, much to my surprise, but I soon saw through their movements and thoroughly forgave their seeming rudeness. I have noticed the same custom in other churches that I have attended, and in two or three instances the idea has struck me rather pleasantly than otherwise, for I have quietly joined the party myself.

Probably those who leave at the end of the musical portion of the service are mostly strangers, who do not care to take the large doses of religious medicine that are offered in many of the Churches here.
But if I digress in this way, I shall not get on with the sermon at St. Paul's, I was to tell you of. After rolling off of a ponderous text of three verses and a half,
the worthy Preliminary struck out boldly from shore, and putting on all sail, was very soon far out in a sea of metaphysical abstraction, and those of the audience who could not follow or appreciate his argument, soon ceased trying to do so, while others, who were quite sure they were following him perfectly, dropped off into their usual Sunday nap, in spite of the uncomfortable chairs. Whether this fact was apparent to the clergyman or not, may never be positively known to me, but from his gradual increase of powerful delivery during the last half hour of his sermon, I judged that he desired to be heard by all present if possible, and probably the nodders came to the same conclusion, for they gradually recovered a few of their senses, and stared vacantly at him, as is usually the case. The majority of the audience, however, tried their best to keep pace with the preacher, who, after a few more ferocious outbursts and an appeal to his hearers to apply the arguments of the sermon to their daily life, now directed his course into shallower water, and by a judicious repetition of the text, succeeded in landing us just where he started from an hour and a half before. This barren result is nothing unusual in England; for whenever I have been to church and remained, I have found the same dry style of argument upon well worn texts, the manner of presenting it varying with the ability of the preacher, and for this reason, as I said before, when two or three are gathered together to leave after the music has ceased, there am I in the midst of them.

At the end of the service in the cathedral, I expected of course to go through the church-yard and up Temple Bar, as I had done two hours and a half before, but fancy the idea that nothing out of doors was visible! A superb English fog (patented) had settled thickly down, and caused me almost as much trouble in following my nose as I had in following the clergyman; however, I succeeded by strategy in getting out of the yard, and groping my way down Ludgate Hill I turned around mechanically to have one more look at the dome, now quite as invisible to me as my own church in Quincy;
but I would not be thus disappointed, and taking off my new silk hat, I had the satisfaction of beholding the entire front of the edifice calmly mirrored in its shining surface; the only drawback to my enjoyment thereof was in being jostled by the passers-by, the thickness of the fog preventing my seeing them.

To those of my readers who are so absurdly stupid as to doubt these last statements, I will only say that they require careful reading several times over before their inherent truth can be perceived, and even then you may come to the conclusion that the more you believe them the less you think they are true.

I find that I must postpone for the present the account of my second visit to St. Paul's, for I have already exceeded my usual limit, and perhaps taxed your patience quite sufficiently; but you can possibly see that I have not yet got over the effect of my first sermon in London, and in order to do so thoroughly, I will cease any further allusion to it.

J. B. S.
[From the Randolph Register.]
Ancient Records of Braintree.
Just two hundred years ago the inhabitants of the town, being assembled in town meeting passed the following vote:
"It was agreed by the inhabitants of the Town of Braintree, upon a public meeting, that upon the first day of March and the last day of October, annually, there should be upon those days a general town meeting of the whole inhabitants to consult and agree upon all things that may concern the good of the town and for the choice of all their town officers."

April 25, 1691. The freeholders of the town being called together to choose a representative for the town, for the year 1694, they then chose Caleb Hubbard to be their representative to serve at the great and General Court this year. They then chose four Tithingmen for this present year, that was Nathaniel Wales and John French, Samuel Savill and Samuel Payne. To look after the horses which go in the common, they chose Gregory Belcher and Dependence French.

Aug. 2, 1697. The inhabitants of the town of Braintree, orderly convened, voted to Mr. Nathaniel Wales six pounds for serving the town as representative anno 1696.

John Adams Esq., 2d President of the United States was one of the Selectmen of Braintree in 1766 and 1767 and resigned in 1768.

March 4th, 1695. It was voted at a town meeting, that we agree to go to contribution every Sabbath, and if Mr.
Fiske see cause to take up with what is so given he shall have it all, but if not we engage that if the contribution fall short of eighty pounds money, we will make it up at the year's end, and if it be over and above it shall go to the use of the town, and that every man shall give an account to the Deacons what they gave in.

Oct. 22d, 1697. Voted that a new school house should be built in the road between Clement Cox's house and Gregory Belcher's, hard by the white oak tree. The dimensions of the house to be twenty foot long, the width sixteen foot, and seven foot between joints.

Nov. 28, 1710. Then voted that Mr.
Adams, the present school master, be empowered to demand a load of wood of each boy that comes to school this winter.

A young lady in the western part of the State collected six hundred old postage stamps and notified Gov. Washburn of the fact, having been informed that by so doing she would receive a hundred dollars.

The quickest way for a man to forget all common miseries is to wear tight boots.

Which Was the Heiress.
A fair, slender girl, with the golden hair blown away from the blue-veined forehead, and a soft violet light shining in her eyes, as she stood there, a living picture framed in by creeping vines and swinging spray of elements—that was the last glimpse that Henry Dalmayne caught of Lillie Raymond on the summer evening when he went away to seek his fortune.

He had found it already, in a certain sense—in so far as man may find treasure-trove in the rich abundance of a woman's love; for Lillie loved him, and Lillie heart was a gold mine itself.

She turned and went back into the house with the glistening dew of tears upon her cheek and a mournful quiver on her lip.
"How silly I am!" she murmured to herself. "It will be for a year or two at the farthest, and he has much more to endure and battle with than I."
And Lillie pined at the fate assigned to her in the great play-bill of the world.
It was hard to realize the truth of the blind poet's words, that "they also serve who only stand and wait."

If she could have worked to earn money and help him; if she might also have been privileged to bear a weapon in the strife. Alas! it is so hard to sit still and count the seconds which must elapse ere the crisis of our fate dawns upon the leaden horizon of life.

So Henry Dalmayne went to London, and Lillie stayed behind to bear the separation as best she might.
"Engaged, eh?" growled old Mr.
Peckham, Henry's maternal uncle, whose skin had turned yellow with the reflection of much gold, and whose heart was harder than the marble of which his mansion was built. "Nephew, you're a fool! Engaged—at two and twenty!"
"But, Uncle Ralph, she is the sweetest girl you ever saw!"

"Sweetest girl! sweetest fiddlesticks!"
roared out the irate old gentleman.—
"There there, don't talk sentiment to me.
I've no patience with it."
Henry was silent. The glitter of the free-ceiling—the flash of silver and the exquisite aroma of the rare red wine, and the velvet flush of hot-house peaches became distasteful to him, all at once.
Uncle Peckham had promised to make his fortune for him—but Henry was not at all sure that he wanted his fortune on those terms. One glance, one smile from Lillie—were they not worth all these hollow pageantries?

"Here," said Uncle Ralph, tossing a card across the table. "I've got you an invitation to Lady Bruce's party to-night.
You'll meet some people there that are worth the knowing!"
Henry Dalmayne hesitated; it was the evening he had set aside each week for writing to Lillie. She would miss her letter—but, after all, it would be one day's delay. He could write as well upon the next night!

So Henry Dalmayne went to Lady Bruce's under the wing of his uncle, the wealthy stock broker.
"Well!" quoth Uncle Peckham, when the festivities were over, and they were once more sitting behind the fire that shone and sparkled like deep-hued rubies beneath the carved arabesques of the marble mantel in the rich man's dining room; "how do you like Sarah Esterbrook?"

"Very well sir!"
"Very well!" sarcastically mimicked
Mr. Peckham. "Do you know that her father is worth a quarter of a million?"
"Is he, sir?"
"Is he, sir!" Henry! roared the old gentleman; "I believe you're a fool—Why there are a score of the wealthiest young men in town who would give half they possess—ay, the whole of it, if it need be—for the smiles and glances Miss Esterbrook vouchsafed to you this very night!"

"She was very polite, sir," said Henry with rather of a puzzled look; "but —"
"Polite! And pray what would you not have, Mr. Dalmayne? Do you want a woman to tell you out and out, in so many words, that she likes you, before you can take a hint?"

Henry colored like a girl. It was impossible to be quite insensible to the charms of this flattery, the more especially as Uncle Peckham was not ordinarily one who buttered his phrase, "as the expression goes."

"Yes, my boy," went on the stock
broker, tapping the table emphatically
with his finger ends; "she does like you!
And I'm not the only person who has noticed it."
"But, uncle, she is so plain!"
"What of that?" All women can't be Venuses, and the prettiest of 'em have
a grinning skull and cross-bones under their pink and white skins and fair exteriors. Beauty is not skin-deep.

Henry thought of pretty Lillie, with a thrill of tender recollection. Miss Easter-brook, with all her golden charms, could never hope to rival her!

Yet, as the weeks went by, his thoughts
and ideas insensibly changed.
The yellow lustre of the gold-worship-
ing atmosphere in which he lived seemed
to wrap him round the surface glitter of
society; ideas gradually uprooted the old
dogmas and axioms of his youthful faith.
And one evening, carried away by the
withering and enchantment of the hour,
he proposed to Sarah Esterbrook and was accepted!

Congratulations poured in upon him
next day.
"You're the luckiest dog going, Dal-
mayne," cried one.
"I only wish I were in your shoes,"
echoed a second; and Henry, dazzled by
the brilliancy of his prospects, believed
that he was really a most fortunate man.
For, according to popular rumor, he was going to marry one of the richest
girls in London! And Uncle Peckham took to himself all the credit of the whole affair.

"This is better than plodding on one's whole life-long behind a counting-house
desk!" cried Ralph, joyously rubbing together his lean and wrinkled palms. "A young man of enterprise and resolution can accomplish anything he sets about now-
days, especially if, like you, Dalmayne,
he happens to be tolerably decent looking."

A man does not always degenerate in-
to a villain all at once; and when Henry Dalmayne sat down to write to Lillie,
his frame of mind was not far from enviable. But he got the letter written some-
how. He wrote that no answer would be expected, and no answer came.

Three months after, just as the preparations for the much-talked of Easter-brook-Dalmayne wedding were culminating, he chanced to meet John Hawley in the street—John's mother lived at a small place adjoining the Raymond's farm. Dalmayne stopped, with real pleasure on his face.

"John, is it you? Stop a minute and tell me the news!"
"There ain't much news," quoth John, rather sulkily. In common with most of the neighbors, he was inclined to think that Henry Dalmayne had behaved very ill. "Except that Lily Raymond is well, and prettier than ever!"
"Ah!" Henry tried to speak carelessly, but without signal success.

"And Squire Ingoldby's son is getting pretty attentive in that quarter," went on John; "and old Robert Raymond died out in India last winter, and left Lillie a clean thousand pounds!"

"Did he? I am glad of that!"
So Lillie was no heiress, after all—Would it not have been better—but Dalmayne resolutely checked the bad formed count on his mind. He had put his back to the plough—it was too late to look back now. Yet he wondered if Arthur would value as he had done, the priceless treasure of Lillie love.

He told himself that he was glad things happened as they had; but he knew, spite of it all, that he would have felt better if Lillie had pined after him, just a little! All women are alike, and all men—shaw! there was no use in troubling his brains further about the matter.

Uncle Peckham met him on the threshold with a troubled look.
"

The Quincy Patriot.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVI.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, MAY 18, 1872.

NUMBER 20.

CONDITIONS.

No Subscription nor Advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrearages, unless at the option of the Publisher. Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary price, and will be charged until ordered out. The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business.

Advertising Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized Agents to receive Advertisements for the Patriot.
BOSTON—S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., S. B. NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK—S. M. PETTINGILL & CO., GEO. P. BOWELL & CO., and FRANK & CO.
PHILADELPHIA—COE, WETHERILL & CO.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,

—Established in 1837—

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
No. 64 Hancock Street, Quincy.

M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.
GEO. W. PRESCOTT, Ass't Editor.

TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.

$3.00, if not paid before the close of the year.

Job Printing Promptly Executed

On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.

MAILS DUE FROM MAILS CLOSE FOR
Boston, at 8:20 A. M. Boston at 9:40 A. M.
4:40 P. M. Cape Cod, 9:20 P. M.
Cape Cod, 4:40 " Quincy Point, 9:15 "
Quincy Point, 9:20 A. M. 5:40 P. M.
JOHN B. BASS, P. M.
Quincy, July 29.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.

Homeopathic Physician.

Residence near the new Adams Academy

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Aug. 25.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,

4 Temple Street, Quincy,

(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)

REFERENCES.

H. I. Bowditch, M. D. D. W. Cheever, M. D.

D. H. Storer, M. D.

Dr. Gordon may be found at his Office,

No. 4 Temple St. day and night.

Quincy, July 22.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Entrances to Office,

No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.

No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.

Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Jan. 12.

H. FARNAM SMITH,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.

Business done promptly, at reasonable rates of charge.

Quincy, June 11.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law,

OFFICES:

Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,

And at Weymouth Landing.

E. F. E. THAYER,

Auctioneer

And Real Estate Broker,

Braintree, & 105 Washington St., Boston.

Office Hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Particular attention given to selling and purchasing

Real Estate, Houses, &c.

No charge unless sales are effected.

REFER TO

Hon. O. Ames, George W. Simmons, Esq.,

George Homer, Esq.

April 15.

WHITMAN & BRECK,

Architects, Engineers

AND SURVEYORS,

Office, No. 32 Joy's Building,

81 Washington Street, Boston.

Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,

laying out private grounds, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully prepared.

H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BRECK,

April 15.

Horticultural Store.

Choice Fruit, Flowers and Plants

RUSTIC & WIRE WORK,

Fancy and Common Flower Pots,

PRESERVES, ETC.

DELICACIES IN VARIETY.

Wedding & Funeral Flowers

arranged and preserved.

No. 100 Tremont Street, Boston.

ISAIAH WHITE,

Agent for Saratoga Star Spring Water.

B. F. MESERVEY,

WATCHMAKER,

2 CITY HALL AVENUE,

BOSTON.

Watches and Jewelry repaired.

April 28.

G. S. COFFIN,

LOCKSMITH,

REMOVED TO

No. 39 Merchants Row,

opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.

August 27.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,

Practical Plumber,

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Under the Post Office.

KEEP constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead

Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing

and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,

Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated

Cocks, &c., &c.

Pumps of all kinds repaired.

Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly attended to.

Quincy, June 10.

EXTENSION TABLES.

WE have on hand and for Sale the Best Extenable Extension Tables in the Market. Don't let these tables pass you by without seeing them. We are giving perfect satisfaction.

Also a new lot of No. 1 Cracker and Glass

Ware at low Prices.

Lamps of all description, Brackets, Chimneys

Wicks,

DOWNEY'S KEROSENE OIL,

Field, &c.

Some of the Best Hacks and Oil Straw for filling Bids you ever saw.

KEATING & SPEAR,

Next door to Sisson's Shoe Store.

Quincy, Nov. 15.

ELEGANT

FURNITURE

—AND—

Upholstery Goods.

We make no pretension of having "the largest and best stock of Furniture in Boston," or "in the country," which we are selling at "twenty per cent less than manufacturers' prices," but would respectfully say that we have as good and well selected a stock of Furniture and Upholstery Goods.

as can be found at any establishment in Boston or elsewhere, and we guarantee our prices shall be as low as the lowest.

Special attention given to DRAPERY and

CURTAIN WORK, by Mr. Prichard, who has had large experience, and for 12 years was with Messrs. Lawson & Harrington, so long and favorably known to the citizens of Boston and vicinity.

All are invited to visit our warehouses and see for themselves the QUANTITY, QUALITY, STYLE and FINISH of our work.

BUCKLEY, BANCROFT & BOYDEN,

503 and 511 Washington St., Boston.

July 13.

20 per cent. SAVED.

PRICE CURRENT.

English Tapestries $1.10 to $1.25

India Brussels 60c. to 75c.

Dunelm Tapestries 35c. to 50c.

Extra Superfine $1.25 to 1.50

Superfines $1.00 to 1.25

Ingrains, Two Plys, 40, 50, 75 to $1.00

Twilled Venetians 30c. to 50c.

Wool Venetian Stairs 30c.

Dunelm Dutch 25c. to 50c.

Floor Oil Cloth, 35 to 50c.

Straw Matting, 20 to 35c.

Furniture, at correspondingly low Prices

—for cash, or on easy weekly or monthly Payments.

B. P. CUNNINGHAM & CO.

296 Washington Street,

BOSTON.

Boston, March 5. Sept. 26-1y

Quincy Mutual

Fire Insurance Comp'y.

INCORPORATED 1851.

CASH FUND OVER . . . $450,000

THIS COMPANY INSURES

DWELLING HOUSES, EARNINGS,

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,

CHURCHES AND STORES,

WEARING APPAREL,

And the safer classes of property on very favorable terms, and to know paying a

Dividend of 50 Per Cent.

L. W. MUNROE, Pres.

CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.

Weymouth & Braintree

MUTUAL

Fire Insurance Co.,

OF WEYMOUTH.

INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILD-

INGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS,

and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable Company.

Amount at Risk April 1, 1872,

$2,736,432.00

Cash Assets, $32,042.11

Debit Notes, $103,693.87—$125,735.98

ELLIS RICHARDS, Sec'y.

Wm. B. DUGGAN, Agent, Quincy.

Weymouth, Aug. 1.

JOHN HARDWICK,

Real Estate and Insurance Agent,

Granite Street, Quincy.

May 4.

GREAT

BARGAINS!

AT

D. B. STETSON'S.

Men's Rubber Boots $8.50

Boys' " " 2.50

Youths' " " 2.00

And all other Rubber goods at the lowest prices.

Quincy, Feb. 3.

BOOTS & SHOES

Made and Repaired!

THE undersigned would respectfully announce

to the public that he has moved to the shop

corner of

HANCOCK and GRANITE STS.

where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots

and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.

Quincy, May 8.

SAT'L. NIGHTINGALE.

BOOTS & SHOES,

MADE AND REPAIRED.

THE Subscriber would inform his friends and the public, that he has enlarged his

shop and is now better prepared than ever to do his work at short notice, and reasonable terms.

PEREZ JOYCE,

Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.

Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED

BOOTS & SHOES,

For sale at low prices,

By E. CLAPP.

Quincy, Mar. 3

NEW DRESS GOODS

At E. CLAPP'S.

VISIT

GUY & BROTHERS

NEW

CROCKERY STORE,

No. 33 Bedford Street,

BOSTON,

FOR . . .

RICH CHINA,

COMMON GOODS,

FANCY GOODS

—AND—

A GREAT VARIETY

—OF—

HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS!

—ALL AT—

Reasonable Prices.

Boston, May 4.

AT THE OLD STAND

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK,

Quincy, April 20.

TEAS. TEAS.

At 60 Cents a Pound.

WE will guarantee to sell as good TEA as is sold all over the City at 75 cents to $1.00 a pound—Call and try them at

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS,

550 and 552 Washington Street,

BOSTON.

Goods delivered in QUINCY free of charge.

Boston, April 27.

TEAS. TEAS.

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS,

show you the best assortment of the finest new crop of TEAS imported, retailing at prices from 40 cents to $1.00 a pound, and every pound warranted to give satisfaction or it may be returned and the money refunded, by

C. D. COBB & BROTHERS,

550 and 552 Washington Street,

IVES!

Store recently occupied
I shall continue the business, and am prepared to sell

RANGES,

ANGES, &c.,

they can be Bought
FOR QUINCY.

Best Stoves is

INQUIROR,

in Every Respect,

heavy Castings,

ished with improvements in Stoves,

Assortment of

MADE TIN WARE,

ly on hand.

Set and Repaired.

ron, Rugs & Paper Stock.

at short notice.

CHARLES F. PIERCE,

JAMES W. PIERCE,

17.

STETSON.

WARRANT

TS & SHOES.

poor or deceptive in new ones in return.

3.

CASH

RUNNING

ESTIC

DOMESTIC

N, 147 Tremont St., Boston.

3m

TARRH.

ational Catarrh Rem-

ed Medicinal Agent

ineteenth Century!

ago the undersigned became provisional CATARRH REMEDY

been cured by it after many other med in vain. The physician who been curing people of Catarrh for long a regular physician, he would not over 300 cases of Catarrh in ville, and had brought his remedy

he had no fear of failing in a single partner believed what would cure and begun with the circle of life was magical. Cases of

VE YEARS' STANDING

and with one foot over the grave

the health of youth. The running best of choking and almost stranging in back and sides, kidney trou-coughs, all left.

on Captain Joseph George of Manis backed by ex-Gov. Smyth and reliable. He had suffered twenty as any man that ever lived. He

ED IN TEN DAYS.

of New Boston, N. H., a well known

ly respected citizen, had weakness with acute pains in side, and had that he could not sleep night,

arth and Cough in two weeks.

rs. of Manchester, a very intelligent man, had Catarrh in its worst form

, suffering more than any woman

ing for so long a time with chokness, pain in the head, back, side

ly, and finally took her bed in de-

last summer, and remained there se bottles of Constitutional Catarrh her difficulties, and restored her short of youth.

Thousands of similar cases cured medicine. It is harmless. It cures constitution. Hence its name. It now every disease in the system - pleat Consumption, all weakness of the Mucous Membranes, Rheumatism

in the system afflicted by Catarrh.

ers has found its way into reg-drugs stores in New England, and recommending it to another with cheerfulness send circulars free

WEEKS & POTTER, and RICE

JOHN F. HENRY, New York, CAN

END & REID, Chicago, General

$1.00 Per Bottle.

ATTLEFIELD & HAYES,

Manchester, N. H., Proprietors.

3m

THE QUINCY

Established

PUBLISHED EVERY

No. 64 Han-

M. ELIZABETH

GEO. W. PIERCE

TERMS, - $2

$3.00, if not paid

Job Printing

On the Mo-

And Greatly

POST

MAILS DUE FROM

Boston, at 8 20 A

" 4 40 P

" 5 45

Cape Cod, 4 40

" 5 40

Quincy, at 8 20 A

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.

SUPPLEMENT.

QUINCY, SATURDAY, MAY 18th, 1872.

Newspapers.

For the first 30 years after the British Colonies began to be settled there were no newspapers printed in any one of them.

The first was the Massachusetts Gazette, originally the Boston Weekly News Letter, which was published in 1704. There were only 7 published in 1750. In 1765 there were 26 on the continent, and 5 in the West India islands: The Massachusetts Gazette began 1704; New England Courant, 1721; Pennsylvania Gazette 1728; South Carolina Gazette, 1734; Boston Evening Post, 1735; Maryland Gazette, 1745; New York Mercury, 1751; Boston Gazette, 1744; Connecticut Gazette, 1725; Post Boy, 1727; Portsmouth Mercury, 1765.

BORROWING PAPERS. One of our Western exchanges, whose subscription list has suffered from the evil it deprecates, says: Reader, if you have borrowed the paper you are reading, don't do it again. Subscribe. It isn't safe to borrow papers. We once knew a poor man who borrowed a paper, innocently and inadvertently, from a thitherto wholesome neighbor, Fatal act! That terrible contagion, the small pox, was conveyed insidiously in the fibres of the sheet. Of that extensive and interesting family, a dotting father, a fond wife, seven intellectual and heroic sons, thirteen lovely daughters, and two popular mothers-in-law, and three beautiful aunts—not one remained to tell the tale.

The greatest revival since that of the Washingtonians thirty years ago, is now in progress among the Catholics of the United States. The Bishops and priests are the leaders. This is a good report, and we trust the good work will go on.

The national debt of France is $5,500,000,000, that of England $3,964,000,000, of the United States $2,350,090,000, of Austria $1,555,000,000, of Russia $1,500,000,000, of Italy $1,425,000,000, of Spain $1,185,000,000, of Germany $850,000,000, and of Turkey $520,000,000.

CANKER WORMS. There is every indication of a great crop of these destructive pests this season. In the evening the male moths can be seen in quantities around the gas lights, and the females can be found on the trees. Those who have applied printers' ink freely have destroyed large quantities.—Traveller.

The San Francisco Call publishes a list of the "wealthy men" of that city. Fifty-one are millionaires, with fortunes running from $1,000,000 to $10,000,000; ten are worth $700,000, and sixty-one have $500,000 and upward.

A CAT ADOPTS A BROOD OF CHICK-ENS.

A few weeks since a hen belonging to Dr. Whiting, hatched out a brood of chickens, and, contrary to the rule generally adopted by hens under like circumstances, biddy forsook her brood, and would have nothing to do with them. A favorite cat, also belonging to the Doctor, taking in the situation of affairs, kindly stepped in and became the protector of the chickens, and has since watched over and guarded them with jealous care. If puss sees them in danger, she exhibits the greatest alarm and never consents to partake of food unless the chickens are with her to enjoy the feast. So attached has she become to her adopted children that she will not permit any of the hen tribe to show them any attention, and at night is very careful to have them under her protecting care. Strange as this may seem, it is an absolute fact, as any one can learn by calling at the Doctor's residence on Hyde Park avenue, and see for themselves.—Hyde Park Gazette.

A VEGETARIAN. Danielsonville, Ct., was recently visited by a clergyman who had never tasted animal food during his whole life, although he has often made the attempt.

It has been computed that over $1500 has been paid during the past thirty years for printing the single word "laugh-ter" in the Congressional Globe. No laughing matter for taxpayers.

CALL AND SEE OUR NEW STORE AND NEW GOODS.

We take pleasure in announcing the OPENING of our New and Spacious Warehouse 43 & 45 Washington Street, BOSTON.

which has been built expressly for the better accommodation of our patrons, and furnished with all modern conveniences, including a PASSENGER ELEVATOR.

We are now ready to show a COMPLETE STOCK OF FOREIGN & DOMESTIC CARPETS,

In all their variety and of the Very Latest Patterns, including many SPECIAL PRIVATE DESIGNS, not to be found elsewhere.

A FULL ASSORTMENT OF OIL CLOTHS, Light, Heavy and Medium, all widths.

CANTON STRAW MATTINGS, of all styles and qualities, and everything comprising the stock of a FIRST-CLASS CARPET STORE.

Which we mean it shall be in every particular.—We shall offer this IMMENSE STOCK

AT THE Very Lowest Prices. NEW MARBLE BUILDING, 43 & 45 Washington St.

Goldthwait, Snow & Knight. Boston, April 13.

Two shoemakers out in company were asked their profession. Says one of them, "I practice the healing art." "And I," says the other, "labor for the good of men's soles."

"Sally," said a fellow to a girl who had red hair, "keep away from me, or you'll set me on fire." "No danger of that," replied the girl, "your too green to burn."

PAPER HANGINGS.

WE Have this day received a large and carefully selected stock of

HOUSE PAPERS & BORDERS,

Of the Latest Designs, which we would most respectfully offer for inspection to our Customers and the public. Confidently believing that as we have spared no pains in our choice, and as we make the Paper Trade A SPECIALITY, we shall offer a stock far surpassing all our previous efforts, and for extensiveness

Cannot be Equalled! in this vicinity at prices we know to be low. New patterns as low as 7 cents a Roll.

All our last years Papers we are now closing out at very low prices.

Having recently refitted our store whereby our customers will find themselves better accommodated in their selections, we would respectfully call your attention to this beautiful stock.

Grateful for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, we seek to merit its continuance.

READY-MADE CLOTHING. ALSO: A large stock of HATS and CAPS, for Men, Boys and Children.

TRUNKS, VALISES, UMBRELLAS, &c.

Call and see me and I will do you good. GEORGE SAVILLE, 90 Hancock St. Opposite the Post Office.

Quincy, March 16.

Franklin Coal.

To the Inhabitants of Quincy.

THE undersigned is the sole Wholesale Agent of the Genuine Franklin Coal of Lyken's Valley.

OWEN ADAMS of your town, is the only trader to whom it has been supplied. All other parties advertising Franklin Coal are borrowing its reputation with which to palm off an inferior article

Boston, Oct. 8.

Wm. B. FOWLE.

Hartshorn's Liniment.

FOR Rheumatism, Sprains, &c. Hartshorn's Liniment. No. 18, which has proved very successful. Also Bishop Soule's Liniment.

For sale by Mrs. E. HAYDEN. Quincy, Feb. 17.

20,000,000 Feet of Choice

LANDS, AT CLARENDON HILLS, On the Boston & Providence Railroad—within six miles of Boston Common.

In Lots from 5000 to 50,000 Feet.

Comprising many of the very choicest sites for first class places of residence to be found near Boston. These Lands will only be sold for an Immediate and Good Class of Settlement.

For the purpose of such Settlement, these beautiful lands will be sold much below the ruling prices of equally desirable lands so near the city. It is the purpose of the Combined Companies to concentrate their experience and power to make CLARENDON HILLS THE GEM of the many delightful places for suburban residence near the New England Metropolis.

For information apply at the office of the Real Estate and Building Company and Metropolitan Land Company, Bank Building, 387 Washington Street, Boston.

A. P. BLAKE, General Agent. Boston, May 4.

FOR A SUPERIOR CLASS OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS;

For CORNETS, ALTOS, BASES, and all used in BANDS.

For VIOLINS, VIOLONCELLOS, and all used in ORCHESTRAS.

For GUITARS, FLUTES, ACCORDIONS. For PIANOS and MELODEONS.

For STRINGS for Violins and Guitars, and all things needed in the use and repair of Musical Instruments.

For Band Music, Sheet Music and Music Books—call at, or send to the Store of JOHN C. HAINES & CO., 33 Court St. (opposite Court House), Boston. May 4.

UNITED PIANO MAKERS PIANOS.

The undersigned having secured the agency of this justly celebrated Piano, (recently in charge of Mr. F. Zachmann,) for the New England States, begs to inform the public that they have taken elegant and pleasant rooms in the STUDIO BUILDING, Room 20, No. 110 Tremont Street, Boston, where they will offer a full stock of all styles of this Piano for cash, or on easy terms of payment. Piano Stools and Covers in various styles. Pianos repaired, tuned and let.

THOMAS MAIN & SON. March 30.—3m

Window Shades, TRIMMINGS, AND CURTAIN FIXTURES,

OF ALL KINDS, MADE AND PUT UP AT SHORT NOTICE.

We have the CHEAPEST CURTAIN FIXTURE IN THE MARKET!

Price $1.00 a dozen, or 10 cts. each.

WINDOW SCREENS AND Mosquito Canopies,

Manufactured at the Lowest Prices!!

W. W. PRATT & CO. 57 Bromfield St., Boston.

Genuine Lykens Valley

THE Undersigned having now on hand, the above Pure Franklin Red Ash Coal is prepared to furnish all orders at immediate notice at the lowest cash prices.

OWEN ADAMS. Post Office Box, No. 31. Quincy, July 6.

WILLIAM

Practica

Hancock Street,

Under

KEEP Constantly

Pipe, Water-Clo-

and Suction Pump

Wash-Bowls various

Cocks, &c., &c.

Pumps of a

Orders from the

attended to.

Quincy, June 10.

EXTENSIVE

WE have on hand

Thanksgiving and telling them every give perfect satisfac-

Also a new lot of

Ware at low prices.

Lamps of all de-

Wicks.

DOWNER'S

Field, &c.

N. E. Some of the

for filling Beds you

KEAT

Next door to Ste

Quincy, Nov. 18.

STOVES!

HAVING taken the Store recently occupied by E. S. Fellows, I shall continue the business carried on by him, and am prepared to sell

STOVES, RANGES,

FURNACES, &c.,

Cheap as they can be Bought IN BOSTON OR QUINCY.

Among the Best Stoves is

THE CONQUEROR,

A First Class Stove in Every Respect, of very Heavy Castings, and Furnished with

All the Latest Improvements in Stoves.

A Good Assortment of

CUSTOM MADE TIN WARE,

Constantly on hand.

Furnaces and Ranges Set and Repaired.

Jobbing done Promptly.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

E. E. FELLOWS.

THE Q

— Eat

PUBLISHED E

No. 64 E

M. ELIZAB

GEO. W. P

TERMS,—

$3.00, if not pa

Job Print

On the M

And Great

POS

MAILS DUN

Boston, at 2

" 4-4

" 3-4

Cape Cod, 5

Quincy Point, 2

" " 5

Quincy, July 2

JOS. UN

Homeop

Residence near

HANCOCK

Aug. 25.

J. A.

Physicia

4 TEMPE

(Opposite

H. T. Bowditch,

D.

DR. GORDON,

No. 4. Tem

Quincy, July 22

R. AUGU

Attorney and

Ente

No. 56 Washing

No 10 Stat

Office Hours,

Jan. 18.

H. FA

Attorney and

Office, No. 5

Business d

rates of charge.

Quincy, June 11

EVERET

Attorney and

Room 48, No. 5

And at V

E. F.

AUCT

And Rea

Braintree, & 10

Office Ho

Particular atten

chasing Farms, Ho

No charge unless

Hon. O. Ames,

April 15.

WHITM

Architect

AND

Office, No. 32 J

81 Wa

Particular attent laying out private provement of Real drawings of public ly prepared.

H. T. WHITMAN

April 15.

Hort

Choice Fruit

RUSTIC

Fancy and

DELICAC

Wedding &

arr

No. 100

ISATA

Agent for San

B. F.

WATO

2 CITY

H

Watches

April 29.

G. S.

LOC

No. 39

opposite

Signs of all kind pairing and Jobbi

August 27.

WILLI

Practi

Hancock Street

Under

KEEP Const

Pipe, Water

and Suction Pu

Wash-Bowls vari

Cocks, &c., &c.

Pumps of Orders from

attended to.

Quincy, June 18

EXTEN

WE have on tension Tal

Thanksgiving

selling them over give perfect satis

Also a new lo

Ward at low pr

Lamps of all d

Wicks, DOWNE

Fluid, &c.

N. B. Some of

for filling Beds y

KEAT

Next door to S

Quincy, Nov. 1

DORCHESTER. A correspondent of the Brookline Transcript writes: "There are in Dorchester, two twin brothers, whose resemblance of each other is so strong that strangers can hardly tell them apart. They kept a grocery and a provision store, and were one day bringing in bags of meal from a wagon, which was out of sight from inside the store. Nathan had his coat on, but Eli was in his shirt-sleeves. A stranger in the shop watched them coming in and going out one after the other, but only one was visible at a time, and at last he exclaimed to Eli, 'Well, you're the smartest man I ever saw; but why do you keep putting on and taking off your coat?' These brothers and several other men were in the habit of getting up very early and going to swim in the 'Reservoir Pond,' and once Eli going, as was his wont, to Nathan's house, to call him, by tapping on the pane, saw his own face reflected from the glass, and taking it for his brother, called out, 'come on; they're all waiting for you.'"

The toothpick factory in Canton, Maine, furnishes more work than all other business in the town. Over 100 cords of poplar have been hauled for its use this season, and converted into toothpicks. Each of the machines used will, it is said, make 3000 toothpicks a minute.

A family in Woodstock, Vt., kept account of articles made from a barrel of flour, and the following was the result: 34 loaves of bread; 17 six-quart pans of doughnuts; 17 messes of biscuit; 94 pies; 7 loaves of cake; 1 1-2 dozen of tart crusts; 3 messes of griddle cakes; 1 berry short cake; 3 dozen of ginger snaps; 1 mess pancakes.

By a statute of the Commonwealth it is crime to sell kerosene oil which will ignite at a temperature of less than 110 degrees, and any persons selling such oil to any one suffering damage to his person or property, is liable for damages.

One billion, three hundred and thirty-two million, two hundred and forty-six thousand cigars were taxed and smoked in this country last year; to say nothing of the billion smoked but not taxed.

Quite a romantic wedding came off in the first circle of a Franklin county, N. H., village last week, when the bridegroom, a widower of nearly seventy, married a lady whom he and his former wife brought up from infancy, who had lived in his family as a daughter for forty years!

According to the census of 1870 six girls were married in Massachusetts at the age of fourteen, thirty-three at fifteen, and one hundred and eighty-one at sixteen. The youngest couple were a boy of seventeen and a girl of sixteen.

The census of France will be taken this month. At the last census, the number of people in France was about the same as in the United States. The new French paper money is to be printed in blue. A literary convention has been arranged between France and the United States.

The human heart is six inches in length, four inches in diameter, and beats seventy times per minute, 100,800 times per day and 36,817,200 per year.

NEW HALL. The New Town Hall in Brookline is to be one of the most elegant structures of the kind in New England and will probably be finished by September. Its entire cost it is thought, will amount to more than $150,000. The timbers which support the roof are the largest pieces of truss-work in New England, if not in the country.

HARD ON THE BABIES. One of the most brilliant attempts ever made in smuggling was recently frustrated on the Canadian border. The detective noticed an unusual number of women with babies on the train, and becoming a little suspicious examined one of the youngsters. Its clothes were according to regulation, but its body was of tin and filled with the best French brandy. There were no less than forty of the same family on the train.

The Grand Army of the Republic in Massachusetts was never in such a flourishing condition as now. 145 Posts, and not one of them in arrears for reports or dues.

Massachusetts has one hundred and eighty-two woolen mills, with fourteen hundred and eighteen sets of cards.

PAINTS, OIL, AND VARNISH.

HAVING been appointed Agents for Quincy and vicinity by the well known and long established firm of

C. E. FOLSOM & CO., of Boston, to sell their PAINTS, OILS AND VARNISH, the public can be assured that they can be furnished with the above articles at the Lowest Market Prices.

By calling on J. W. LOMBARD, or C. T. MANSFIELD.

No. 75 Hancock Street, Quincy,

Over C. C. JOHNSON'S.

ALSO—A good supply of STRAW to fill Beds.

Quincy, April 27.

NEW Franklin Market,

Beach Street, between Lincoln

AND SOUTH STREETS.

A. CHASE & CO.,

FISH STALLS, No. 16 and 18.

KEEPS constantly on hand all kinds of Fresh Fish, Smoked Salmon, Mackerel, and the best of

Oysters at $1.20 per gallon.

Or 30 cents per quart. Parties out of town can have their orders filled, and goods sent to Depot to care of Baggage Master.

Boston, Dec. 30.

NEW MARKET.

THE Subscriber having taken the store recently occupied by

McLellan, on Temple Street,

is prepared to furnish to his old friends and the citizens generally, with

PROVISIONS

of the best quality.

Vegetables, of all kinds.

Also, FRUITS, NUTS, &c.

Also, Fresh and Salt Fish, Oysters, &c.

Thankful for favors received the Subscriber hopes to merit a continuance of the same.

G. F. WILSON.

Quincy, Oct. 30.

SOUTH MARKET.

THE Subscribers would respectfully announce to the Public that a large and fresh stock of

Fruit, Provision, &c.,

can be constantly found at their store

On Elm street, rear of Episcopal Church,

at very reasonable prices.

G. TOTMAN & SON.

Quincy, Sept. 18.

Brooklyn has long been known as the city of churches. It seems to deserve also the name of the city of boarding-houses. It is reported that more than two-fifths of its population are boarders and more than one-fourth of its fifty-eight thousand houses are boarding-houses.

THE QUESTION ANSWERED. The question, "Where do all the pins go to?" which has been a long-mooted one, bids fair to find a solution. There is a woman in the city of Biddeford who has been married twenty-eight years, and during that time has not purchased a single pin.

Fawcett, Hawkes & Co.'s IMPROVED RADIATING HOT AIR FURNACE.

For Warming

CHURCHES,

SCHOOL HOUSES,

PUBLIC BUILDINGS,

PRIVATE RESIDENCES,

STORES, &c., &c., &c.

All who are interested in the Heating of Buildings, are invited to call and examine our Furnaces.

And to all who may desire, estimates will be given.

A large number of these FURNACES have been put in by us, in Quincy and vicinity, within the last three years, and have given unbounded satisfaction.

For extent of Radiating Surface. Ease of Management. Economy of Fuel and Durability, it is unequalled.

Every FURNACE warranted to give satisfaction.

Special attention given to putting up FURNACES, RANGES, and the VENTILATION of BUILDINGS, in any part of the country.

MANUFACTURERS OF

DOUBLE OVEN

COOKING RANGES,

With or without Water Backs.

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE

ORIENTAL

AND

American Stoves.

Constantly on hand a fine assortment of PARLOR and OFFICE STOVES, among which are the Stewart, Mace, and other patterns, at prices from $6.00 to $75.00.

GAS LOGS:

French Imitation of Wood Fire.

PORTABLE

HOT AIR GRATES,

For Hard and Soft Coal and Wood.

PARLOR AND CHAMBER GRATES,

REGISTERS,

VENTILATORS &c.

FAWCETT, HAWKES & CO.

No 21 Bedford Street,

ALFRED FAWCETT, } BOSTON.

EDWARD M. NASH, }

Sept. 23.

6m

THERE IS NO NEED

OF going to BOSTON to buy your HATS, when by calling at

No. 90 Hancock Street,

you can find all the LEADING STYLES, and can save money as well as time by buying of

GEO. SAVILLE, 90 Hancock St.,

Opposite Post Office.

Quincy, April 27.

GENTLEMEN

I STILL Live and am ready at all times to show you as good a line of Clothing

—AND—

Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,

As can be found in town,

and at as

LOW PRICES.

"If you don't believe me call in and see me" and satisfy yourselves.

A large assortment of

NECK TIES,

IN BLACK AND FANCY SILKS,

Suitable for all ages,

The newest and best goods in the market.

Paper Collars, all prices.

Just received 10,000 of those Quincy Granite, Linen Faced, Paper Lined Collars, round and square corners. They are made expressly for me and need no recommendation; as many who have already used them will testify in their favor.

White Shirts, Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts, Gingham Shirts, Hickory Shirts, and Shirts at all prices.

A full line of Undershirts and Drawers for Fall and Winter, very low.

Overalls and Jumpers in Blue and Brown Denims, White Duck, Kersey, &c.

Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Bosoms, Cuffs, Socks in good variety.

Good Heavy Pants, suitable for Fall and Winter, from $2.50 upwards. Coats and Vests at various prices. Hats and Caps, a fine variety, new and seasonable styles.

CUSTOM CLOTHING!

I am now prepared to take the measure of any who may favor me with a call and to warrant satisfaction in all cases.

I have a good Stock of Cloths, Tricots, Doeskins, Cassimeres, and Fancy Pants goods to sell from, and would invite all in want of a good garment at a moderate price, to give me a call.

GOODS BY THE YARD.

GARMENTS Cut and Trimmed.

C. A. SPEAR,

86 Hancock Street. Next Door to

QUINCY SAVINGS BANK.

Quincy, Sept. 2.

JOHN A. HOLDEN,

Merchant Tailor & Dealer

—in—

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS

AND VESTINGS,

Hancock, cor. of School St., Quincy.

HAS on hand and is constantly receiving from the best sources, New and Durable Goods adapted to his trade. All who wish first class Custom Made Garments, for a fair price, are respectfully invited to call.

N. B. It would be well to remember, that Cheapness and Dearness are relative attributes; they have a relation to the QUALITY of the article we buy, and that, which does not answer well the purpose for which it was intended, is DEAR at any price.

Quincy, March 30

RICHARD HAILS,

Merchant Tailor!

CORNER OF

HANCOCK AND

Old Colony
and
NEWPORT RAILWAY.

REPORT CORNER OF SOUTH AND KNEELAND STREETS, BOSTON.

Leave after Monday, April 1st, 1873,
Trains leave Quincy for Boston,

1. 6.51, 7.34, 7.48 8.00, 8.25, 8.41, 8.58, 9.25,
10.50, 10.57 A. M. 1.04, 1.40, 3.45, 4.58, 5.03.
5.58, 5.46, 6.22, 8.40, 9.40c. P. M.

Return 7.00, 7.45, 8.00, 8.20, 8.29, 11.00
12.00, M. 1.45, 2.30, 2.40, 3.25, 4.05,
4.45, 5.00, 5.40; 6.00, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30, 10.00,
11.55c. P. M.

Quincy for Boston, 6.17, 7.15, 7.59, 8.04, 8.47, 8.59, 11.02, A. M. 1.47, 4.19, 5.08, 5.28,
5.46, 9.46c. P. M. Return 7.00, 8.10, 2.40,
3.10, A. M. 12.15, 1.45, 2.40, 4.05, 5.00, 5.40,
11.45, 6.40, 7.30, 10.00c. P. M.

Boston Heights for Boston, 6.14, 6.54, 7.49,
8.45, 9.55, 11.00, A. M. 1.44, 2.40, 3.05, 3.25,
P. M. Return 7.00, 7.45, 8.40, 9.40,
1.10, 1.12, M. 1.45, 2.40, 3.25, 4.05, 4.45,
4.40, 6.15, 6.40, 7.30, 10.00c. P. M.

Quincy Adams for Boston, 6.07, 6.48, 7.45, 7.53,
7.57, 9.32, 10.55, A. M. 1.37, 2.39, 3.58, 4.27,
4.57, 9.31c. P. M. Return 7.00, 9.0, 12.00, 1.15, 1.45, 2.40, 3.40, 4.40, 6.40, 7.30,
10.00, 11.55c. P. M.

Quincy for Boston, 6.00, 7.00, 9.20, A. M.
12.15, 2.40, 5.00, 6.15, P. M.

Saturdays at 10.00, 11.00, P. M.
Thursdays and Saturdays excepted.

SUNDAY TRAINS.

	A. M.	P. M.
Quincy Adams, at	9.35	1.48
Washington Heights, at	9.37	1.52
Wollaston Heights, at	9.49	1.55
Atlantic, at	9.48	1.58
Quincy Adams for Boston & 30 A. M.	12.45 & 5 P. M.

J. R. KENDRICK, Superintendent.

FISHERMEN! wines and Netting,

MANUFACTURED BY
WM. E. HOOPER & SONS,
(Reduced for Price-List.) Baltimore, Md.
May 17.

FOR SALE.
A NEW SEWING MACHINE nearly as good as new.
Apply to JOSEPH W. LOMBARD.
Quincy, March 30.

For Sale.
A 5-hack Ice Stone Wagon.
A New Beach Wagon.
Apply to H. B. ELLIS.
Quincy, March 2.

Express Wagon for Sale.
Two-Horse Wain Wagon, custom made, has been run only a few weeks and in fine condition.
Acquire of E. H. DOBLE, West Quincy, or E. E. HALL, East Stoughton.
March 25.

FOR SALE.
N South Walnut Street, within ten minutes walk of Churches, Schools, and Depot, a valuable Dwelling House, Shop, and 1 of an acre and Apply on the premises to HUGH MUNDT, Oct. 28.

PIANOS!
The Undersigned having secured the agency for
"Haines Brothers' Pianos,"
OF NEW YORK.
Prepared to sell a good piano at a price within reach of all.
Every piano is warranted for five years.
All Pianos taken in exchange. Address
J. J. BECK,
Wollaston Heights,
or 33 Sumner Street,
Boston, April 13.

C. H. PRATT,
MANUFACTURER OF
Refrigerators
ASH BENCHES, BOROM BOARDS, ICE BOXES, LAP BOARDS, CUTTING BOARDS, MOSQUITO FRAMES, ICE BOXES, SCREEN DOORS,
STOVE SETS, OUTSIDE DOORS.
Also, Boxes of all Sizes, made to order.
C. H. PRATT,
EDWARDS HILL,
Quincy, March 25.

FIRE KINDLINGS.
THE UNDERSIGNED will buy a package that will fill a thirty-six fire. Sold by W. ADERCOMBIE,
Quincy, March 2.

LADIES,
Frame Your Pictures!
The Subscriber has REMOVED from No. 25 BROMFIELD STREET, Boston, to No. 20, same Street, and has a much larger and more varied stock of
CHROMOS,
Engravings, &c.
Special attention given to FRAMING PICTURES IN Walnut, Gilt, and Parapetarts.
GILT FRAMES RE-GILT.
The walls always covered with
FRAMED PICTURES,
AT LOW PRICES.
Frame your Pictures with Beautiful Colored Tones, Green, Purple, Imitation Rose-wood, Pine, Lemon, Imitation Blackwalnut, Orange, Scarlet and Crimson.—At wholesale also.
Don't forget — No. 20 — Pass through No. 20 Bromfield Street.
COME AND SEE.
J. JAY GOULD,
Boston, March 20, 1872.

LOOK!!!
BUSINESS SUITS.
$16, $17, $18, $19, $20, $22, $23, $25, 26, $27, $29, 30.
"TRICOT" SUITS,
$25, $26, $27, $28, $29, $30, $32, $33, $35, $36, $37, $38.
DIAGONAL SUITS!
$25, $26, $27, $28, $29, $30, $32, $33, $35, $36, $37, $38, $40.
the largest Stock in Boston from
which to select a Suit.
WILMOTS,
21, 123 & 125
Washington Street,
BOSTON.
March, 28.

NUMBER 22.

This, too, has been in possession of the Pierce family since its erection, nearly two hundred and thirty years ago. The solid old structure retains its former frame and interior finish, just as originally constructed. Mr. Pierce, who is a hale old veteran of eighty-seven, takes justifiable pride in his ancient edifice and its rare collection of interesting antiquities. Among other relics, he has several pieces of bread, baked in 1630! There are several other houses in Ward No. 1 situated upon Adams street, not a gro-

ETSON.
ARRANT & SHOES.

ORSE &
TURE TON ST.

GANT STYLES!
Dining Room
MBER
TURE

ES FURNITURE,
Ryds and Bedding. and the finest WEST

lor Beds!!
RARY BEDS,
at $125.
The most convenient in the market.
for the New England PATENT

Sponge ESSES, and OLSTERS, and Cushions. more than one hundred of the "Elastic Sponge" for ten years, and will hold shape of time, and wa-

SALE!
The Subscriber takes this opportunity to inform the citizens of Quincy and vicinity, that he will supply those who desire a good article of Stock or any of the following articles, at given to supplying private customers.
G. F. WILSON.

SALE!
To the good citizens of Quincy and vicinity:
I have just received a large and cheap stock of and Amber Alex. advantage of his former customerservice will be paid in proportion to the amount of stock delivered but what are pure, and warranted not to disap-point the purchaser.
J. H. SOUTHER, Agent.

THE BEST STORES IN QUINCY.
ON QUINCY.

MADE TIN WARE,
only on hand.
ages Set and Repaired.
patronage is solicited.
E. FELLOWS.

J. W. PIERCE,
affably inform the citizens of Quincy that they will keep all the hand the LOVED PATTERNS
rior and Office
OVES.

FRIEND;
COKE STOVE, which is not d finished by any stove manand PERFECT. is liable to break by fire, and and to the requirements of the of Stove in the Market,
they can be Bought
in BOSTON.
Pieces Guaranteed.

s and Ranges
ND REPAIRED.
ment of Custom Made WARE,
AND Britannia Tea Pots,
PANNED WARE.

Charles F. Pierce,
James W. Pierce.
ph. 17.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
—Established in 1837—
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.
No. 61 Hancock Street, Quincy.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.
GEO. W. PIERCE, Asst. Editor.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
Job Printing Promptly Executed
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.
MAILS DUE FROM MAIL CLOSURE FOR
Boston, at 8.30 A. M. Boston at 8.45 A. M.
Cape Cod, at 9.45 A. M. Cape Cod, at 9.50 A. M.
Quincy Point, at 1.30 P. M. Quincy Point, at 1.40 P. M.
Quincy, July 29.
JOHN B. BASS, P. M.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.
J. A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
4 Temple Street, Quincy,
(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)
REFERENCES.
H. I. Bowditch, M. D., D. W. Cheever, M. D.
D. H. Storer, M. D.
Dr. Gordon may be found at his Office,
No. 4 Temple St. day and night.
Quincy, July 29.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 15.

H. FARNAM SMITH,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Business done promptly, at reasonable
rates of charge.
Quincy, June 11.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
OFFICES:
Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,
and at Weymouth Landing.

E. F. E. THAYER,
AUCTIONEER
And Real Estate Broker,
Bainbridge, & 105 Washington St., Boston.
Office Hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Particular attention given to selling and purchasing Farms, Houses, &c.
No charge unless sales are effected.
Agents to
Hon. O. Ames, George W. Simmons, Esq.,
April 15. George Homer, Esq.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Architects, Engineers
AND SURVEYORS,
Office, No. 32 Joy's Building,
81 Washington Street, Boston.
Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,
laying out private grounds, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully prepared.
H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BRECK.
April 15.

Horticultural Store.
Choice Fruit, Flowers and Plants
RUSTIC & WIRE WORK,
Fancy and Common Flower Pots,
PRESERVES, ETC.
DELICACIES IN VARIETY.
Wedding & Funeral Flowers
arranged and preserved.
No. 100 Tremont Street, Boston.
ISAIAH WHITE,
Agent for Saratoga Star Spring Water.

B. F. MESERVEY,
WATCHMAKER,
2 CITY HALL AVENUE,
BOSTON.
Watches and Jewelry repaired.
April 29.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH,
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.
Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 27.

W. A. STEARNS,
MASON,
At the Golden Estate, on South Street,
QUINCY POINT.
All kinds masonry work promptly attended to and neatly executed.
White Washing made a specialty.
Quincy, April 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!
The Subscriber has taken the Store recently occupied by Frederick Hancock, on FRANK-
LIN STREET, and intends to keep
A NICE ASSORTMENT OF
Woolen & Fancy Goods,
CONFECTIONERY, &c.
A share of public patronage is solicited.
EDWARD HARDWICK.
Quincy, April 20.

NAILS.
JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which will be sold at the lowest cash prices.
W. ABERCROMBIE.
Quincy, May 6.

The Quincy Patriot.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.
VOLUME XXXVI. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1872. NUMBER 23.

VISIT
GUY & BROTHERS
NEW CROCKERY STORE,
No. 33 Bedford Street,
BOSTON,
FOR RICH CHINA,
COMMON GOODS,
FANCY GOODS

PARASOLS,
Sun Umbrellas, &c.,
For Ladies' and Misses',
Which we offer at
EXTREMELY LOW PRICES!!!
We would invite the citizens of Quincy and vicinity and those in want, to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

BOSTON STORE!
BOSTON STORE!!
BOSTON STORE!!!
SINCE THE Cincinnati Convention!
We have received a large lot of

PARASOLS,
Sun Umbrellas, &c.,
For Ladies' and Misses',
Which we offer at
EXTREMELY LOW PRICES!!!
We would invite the citizens of Quincy and vicinity and those in want, to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do
their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

Poetry.
So Goes the World.
Our varied days pass on and on,
Our hopes fade unfulfilled away,
And things which seem the life of life
Are taken from us day by day;
And yet through all the busy streets,
The crowd of pleasure-seekers throng,
The puppets play, the showman calls,
And gossips chat the whole day long,
And so the world goes on.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

Miscellany.
The Wrong Picture.
"A pretty face—a pretty face indeed!"
I turned the little photograph upside down, held it off at arm's length to get a perspective view, and scrutinized it with my eye-glasses.
Henry Wallis looked pleased; a man naturally likes to have his face duly admired and appreciated.
"So this is the Bessie Armitage I have heard so much of; really, Wallis, she does credit to your taste. A blonde I suppose?"
"Fair as a lily leaf, with blue eyes and the sunniest golden hair?"
"Ah! well I must say I prefer the brunette style so far as my individual taste goes, but then, fancies differ you know."
It was all very well for Henry Wallis to go into ecstasies about the pallid fair-haired Bessie Armitage; he had never seen the glance of Cecilia Vernon's magnificent dark eyes. What did he know about the true type of feminine beauty?
"As you say fancies differ," Wallis returned lightly. "But I wish you would select a handsome frame for it when you go to town next—blue velvet with a gold trim on the margin, or some such tasteful arrangement."
"I'll see to it," I said, depositing the picture in its envelope, and returning it to my inside breast pocket.
"You'll be very careful of it."
"Careful? Of course I shall."
I smiled a little at Wallis' solicitude and we parted.
After all Henry Wallis was better off than I was, for he was securely engaged to the dimpled, yellow-tressed little object of his affections; while I was yet, as it were, in outer darkness, uncertain whether my peerless Cecilia returned my ardent devotion, or whether she secretly inclined toward that unprincipled fellow Fitzhugh Trefoil. A score of times I had resolved to settle the question; a score of times I had gone to the Vernons with the very formula of declaration on my lips, and as often had the words died away unvoiced and unspoken.
If fate had only gifted me with one thousandth part of Fitzhugh Trefoil's obsessed audacity. I don't think anything short of the Deluge could check that fellow's cool self-possession; an earthquake wouldn't and I don't think that the millennium could!

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

CONDITIONS.
No Subscription nor Advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrearages, unless at the option of the Publisher.
Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary prices, and will be charged until ordered out.
The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited
to their own immediate business.
Advertising Agents.
The following gentlemen are authorized Agents
to receive Advertisements for the Patriot.
BOSTON—S. M. FITTINGILL & Co., S. R.
WILKS, HOMER DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK—S. M. FITTINGILL & Co.,
Geo. P. ROWELL & Co., and FRASER & Co.
PHILADELPHIA—Cox, WETHERILL & Co.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

BOOTS & SHOES
Made and Repaired!
THE Undersigned would respectfully announce
to the public that he has moved to the shop
corner of
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
where he is prepared to Make and Repair Boots
and Shoes, in a neat manner, at a reasonable price.
SATH'L. NIGHTINGALE.
Quincy, May 8.

BOOTS & SHOES,
MADE AND REPAIRED.
THE Subscriber would inform his friends and
the public, that he has enlarged his
shop and is now better prepared than ever to do their work at short notice, and reasonable terms.
PEREZ JOYCE.
Quincy Avenue, near Liberty Street.
Quincy, Sept. 25, 1869.

WARRANTED
BOOTS & SHOES,
For sale at low prices,
By E. CLAPP.
Quincy, Mar 2

NEW DRESS GOODS
At E. CLAPP'S.

DRY GOODS,
FANCY GOODS,
SMALL WARES,
TRIMMINGS,
HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES and QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS,
LACE COLLARS.
JOB LOT OF
Linen and Lace Collars,
AND CUFFS,
SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions.
THE CELEBRATED
LUPIN KID GLOVES,
IN ONE and TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS.
A CHOICE LINE OF
RIBBONS PLAIN
AND GRO. GRAIN.
NEW LINE OF
LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES.
Ladies' and Misses' Aprons,
UNDERSLEEVES.

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.
WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office.
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

LADIES AND GENT'S
DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
SEALS—
35 From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

A Large Stock of
Boots, Shoes, Slippers,
Buskins, Ankle Ties,
&c., FOR
Ladies, Misses, and Children.
Selling cheap by
GEORGE SAVILE,
90 Hancock Street,
Quincy, March 16.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
—Established in 1837—
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.
No. 64 Hancock Street, Quincy.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.
GEO. W. PIERCE, Asst. Editor.
TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.
Job Printing Promptly Executed
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.
MAILS DUE FROM BOSTON AT 9 A.M. & 3 P.M.
MAILS DUE FROM QUINCY AT 9 A.M. & 3 P.M.
Cape Cod, 4.00 Cape Cod, 8.00 A.M.
Quincy Point, 2.00 Quincy Point, 5.40 P.M.
JOHN B. BASS, P. M.
Quincy, July 29.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
4 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.
(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrance to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.
Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.
Jan. 12.

H. FARNAM SMITH,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Business done promptly, at reasonable rates of charge.
Quincy, June 11.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
OFFICES:
Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,
And at Weymouth Landing.
E. F. E. THAYER,
AUCTIONEER
And Real Estate Broker,
Brimfield, 105 Washington St., Boston.
Office Hours 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.
Particular attention given to selling and purchasing Real Estate, Houses, &c.
No charge unless sale is effected.
H. O. Ames, George W. Simmons, Esq.,
George Homer, Esq.,
April 15.

WHITMAN & BECK,
Architects, Engineers
AND SURVEYORS,
Office, No. 32 Jay's Building,
81 Washington Street, Boston.
Particular attention paid to Land Surveying, laying out private grounds, and the general improvement of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully executed.
E. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BECK.
April 15.

Horticultural Store.
Choice Fruit, Flowers and Plants
BUSTIC & WIRE WORK,
Fancy and Common Flower Pots,
FRUITBARS, ETC.
DELICACIES IN VARIETY.
Wedding & Funeral Flowers
arranged and delivered.
No. 100 Tremont Street, Boston.
ISAIAH WHITE,
Agent for Saratoga Star Spring Water.
B. F. MESERVEY,
WATCHMAKER,
2 CITY HALL AVENUE,
BOSTON.
Watches and Jewelry repaired.
April 28.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH,
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.
Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.
August 27.

W. A. STEARNS,
MASON,
At the Olden Head, on South Street,
QUINCY POINT.
All kinds mason work promptly attended to
and neatly executed.
White Washing made a specialty.
Quincy, April 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!
THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently
occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-
LIN STREET, and intends to keep
A NICE ASSORTMENT OF
Woolen & Fancy Goods,
CONFECTIONERY, &c.
A share of public patronage is solicited.
EDWARD HARDWICK.
Quincy, April 20.

CHARLES F. PIERCE,
JAMES W. PIERCE.
NAILS.
JUST RECEIVED 250 Casks of Nails which will be sold at the lowest cash prices.
W. ABERCROMBIE.
Quincy, May 6.

The Quincy Patriot.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVI. QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1872. NUMBER 24.

CONDITIONS.
No Subscription nor Advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrears, unless at the option of the Publisher. Advertisements correctly and conspicuously inserted at the customary prices, and will be charged until ordered out.
The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to their own immediate business.
Advertising Agents.
The following gentlemen are authorized Agents to receive Advertisements for the Patriot.
BOSTON.—S. M. PATTINGILL & Co., S. R. NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK.—S. M. PATTINGILL & Co., Geo. F. HOWELL & Co., and FRANKS & Co.
PHILADELPHIA.—Geo. W. WITHERILL & Co.

REMOVAL.
THE Subscriber respectfully informs his patrons that he has removed to the new house, recently erected by C. G. Johnson, nearly opposite the National Granite Bank, Quincy, June 1.
Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Comp'y.
INCORPORATED 1851.
CASH FUND OVER $450,000.
THIS COMPANY INSURES DWELLING HOUSES, BARNS, HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, CHURCHES AND STORES, WEARING APPAREL, And the safer classes of property on very favorable terms, and is now paying a Dividend of 50 Per Cent.
L. W. MURKOE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Secy.

Weymouth & Braintree Fire Insurance Co.,
OF WEYMOUTH.
INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILDINGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS, and their contents, at as low rates as any other reliable company.
Amount at Risk April 1, 1872, $2,736,422.00
Cash Assets, $36,542.31
Deposit Notes, $100,000.00—$159,740.50
Wm. B. DUGGAN, Secy. Quincy.
Weymouth, Aug. 1.

JOHN HARDWICK,
Real Estate and Insurance Agent.
Granite Street, Quincy.
May 4.

LADIES AND GENT'S DINING ROOMS,
O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.
FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT.
From 6 A. M. to 8 P. M., OF THE BEST MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place BOSTON.

WILLIAM B. RYAN,
Practical Plumber,
Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office,
Keeps constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead Pipe, Water-Closets, various kinds, Forcing and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers, Wash-Bowls, various patterns, Brass and Flat Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

VISIT GUY & BROTHERS
NEW CROCKERY STORE,
No. 33 Bedford Street, BOSTON.

RICH CHINA, COMMON GOODS, FANCY GOODS
—AND—
A GREAT VARIETY
—OF—
HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS!
Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.

BOSTON STORE! BOSTON STORE!! BOSTON STORE!!!
SINCE THE Cincinnati Convention! We have received a large lot of PARASOLS, Sun Umbrellas, &c.,
For Ladies' and Misses', Which we offer at
EXTREMELY LOW PRICES!!!
We would invite the citizens of Quincy and vicinity and those in want, to examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere.
FANS! FANS!! FANS!!!
A large and well selected stock of
DRY GOODS, FANCY GOODS, SMALL WARES, TRIMMINGS, HOSIERY and GLOVES,
ALL STYLES AND QUALITIES.
SPRING SHAWLS, LACE COLLARS, JOB LOT OF Linen and Lace Collars, AND CUFFS, SELLING VERY CHEAP!
Hamburg Edgings and Insertions, THE CELEBRATED LUPIN KID GLOVES, IN ONE AND TWO BUTTONS.
FINE BLACK KIDS,
A CHOICE LINE OF RIBBONS PLAIN AND GRO. GRAIN. NEW LINE OF LADIES' & MISSES' NECK-TIES, Ladies' and Misses' Aprons, UNDERSLEEVES, BATES' QUILTS, VERY CHEAP!! Sample Lot Nets --- Cheap! BLEACHED AND UNBLEACHED COTTONS, BY THE YARD OR PIECE. We also invite attention to our Line of
WHITE GOODS
PIQUES, CAMBRIC MUSLINS, NAINSOOKS, NAPKINS, TOWELS and TOWELING.
Summer Balmoral Skirts!!!
WHITE SKIRTS, SKIRTING BY THE YARD, GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS.
AS FINE A LINE AS CAN BE FOUND IN THE CITY!
—CONSISTING OF—
HOSIERY, WHITE, FANCY & UNBLEACHED, LINEN AND PAPER COLLARS AND CUFFS, HANDKERCHIEFS!
White, Fancy, Turkey Red and Silk Men's and Boys' Suspenders, Neckties and Bows, SPRING AND SUMMER Undershirts and Drawers, Flannel Shirts, Fine White Shirts, Boating Flannel Shirts, FANCY SHIRTS, Boys' Fancy Shirts, GENUINE CHEVIOT SHIRTS, Fancy Shirts a Specialty.
BOSTON STORE, BOSTON GOODS, BOSTON PRICES.
Quincy, May 18.

Poetry.
The Popular Creed.
Dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes! An empty pocket's the worst of crimes! If a man's down give him a thrust— Trample the beggar into the dust! Presumptuous poverty's quite appalling— Knock him over! Kick him for falling! If a man's up, lift him higher! If your soul's for sale and he's the buyer— Dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes! An empty pocket's the worst of crimes!
I know a poor but worthy youth, Whose hopes are built on maiden truth, But a maiden will break her vows with ease, For a woe-comer, whose claims are these: A hollow heart and an empty head, A face well tinged with brandy red, A soul well trained in villainy's school— And each, sweet each—he knows the rule: Dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes! An empty pocket's the worst of crimes!
I know a bold and honest man, Who strives to live on the Christian's plan, But poor he is and poor will be, A scorned and hated wreath he wears, At home he meets a starving wife, Abroad he leads a leper's life! They struggle against a fearful odds Who will not bow to the people's gods! Dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes! An empty pocket's the worst of crimes!
So get ye wealth, no matter how! "No question's asked" of the rich I trow! Stool by night and steal by day, (Doing it all in a legal way.) Join the church and never forsake her, Learn to cant and insult your maker, Be hypocrite, liar, knave and fool, But don't be poor, remember the rule: Dimes and dollars, dollars and dimes! An empty pocket's the worst of crimes!

Receipts, Wit & Humor.
FRIED LOBSTER. To the meat of one small lobster chopped fine, add one well beaten egg, a piece of butter the size of an egg, a little pepper and vinegar to moisten, fry about five minutes and serve.
To TAKE OUT STAINS FROM MATRESSES. Make a paste of soap and starch, and spread over the spots; when dry, scrape it off with a knife, washing with a damp sponge as it falls off; if not clean put on another paste. This application, if repeated frequently until all discolorations are gone, will purify any bedding.
GOOD RULES FOR YOUNG MEN. Whatever I have tried to do in life," said Charles Dickens, "I have tried with all my heart to do well. What I have devoted myself to, I have devoted myself to completely. Never to put one hand to anything on which I would throw my whole self, and never to affect depreciation of my work, whatever it was. I find these to have been golden rules."

Everybody is warmed and enlightened by it. It exhilarates a whole household. Its cultivation should be general. The world would be better for it, and individuals vastly happier.
A boarding-house keeper in Springfield is in the habit, when her boarders neglect to pay up promptly, of placing an extra fork by their plates, as a silent intimation to fork "over."
All the most elegant silk costumes imported this season are trimmed with elegant embroidery in floss, and wide lace.
He is the richest man who is contented with what he has.
"Mr. Speaker," said a member of the Jamaica Legislature, discussing a bill for the regulation of the timber trade, "I know these timber merchants to be most egregious rascals—I was in the timber line myself twelve years.
A cross old bachelor says that the reason why women do not cut themselves in two by tight lacing, is that they lace around the heart, and that is so hard that they cannot affect it.
Never quit your hopes. Hope is often better than enjoyment. Hope is often the cause as well as the effect of youth. It is certainly a very pleasant and healthy passion. A hopeless person is deserted by himself, and he who forsakes himself is soon forsaken by friends and fortune.
God is continually giving me help without my asking for it. He fills it full. If yours is greater, rejoice in that, and bring it faithfully to the same urn. He who fills the vessel with beauty and the sun with light, will not fail to inspire you and me. Were your little cup to become as large as the Pacific Sea, he would fill it.
The worst misfortune is to be unable to bear misfortunes.
Endeavor to take your work quietly. Anxiety and overaction are always the cause of sickness and restlessness. We must use our judgment to control our excitement, or our bodily strength will break down. We must remember that our battle is to be won by a strength not our own. It is a battle that does not depend upon the swift nor the strong.
Which is the oldest woman's club? The broom-stick.

Miscellany.
Tender and True.
"Strong and manly and true as steel." It was the remark of a gentleman standing near me. I did not hear the reply made by his companion who was a lady; but, from something in the manner of the gentleman, I concluded that her ideal of the person referred to was not in full accord with his.
At the lower end of the room a beautiful young woman stood leaning on the arm of her husband, into whose face scarcely any one could look without admiring its manly beauty and signs of intellectual strength. It was moreover, a true face; and yet as my eyes lingered upon it, and then turned to the sweet, loving countenance of the bride, a shadow crept over my spirits.
"Strong and manly and true as steel." Yes, you saw all that in the finely cast face; in the full lips; in the large wide eyes and nostrils; in the ample forehead. "Strong and manly and true as steel." Even so. And yet looking still into the tender, almost dreamy face of the bride, I could not feel, quite at ease touching her future.
Grant Baldwin I knew well. We were old friends. His bride I had not seen until this evening. There was something more than beauty in her face, something that held your gaze like a spell. Her eyes were of a deep hazel, large and soft; her countenance very fair, almost to paleness; her form slight and her stature low. I noticed that, as she stood by her husband, she leaned toward him in a kind of shrinking, dependent way, and every now and then glanced up into his face with a wistful sort of look that I did not clearly understand.
I met them not long afterward in their own home, and was more than ever charmed with Mrs. Baldwin. She was pure and manly and true as steel—meet compliment of each other, one would think; and yet, as on the first evening, I felt the lack of some element to give a complete harmony to their lives. It troubled me, I knew my friend well—knew him to be a man of high honor and strength of character; cold and unemotional, we say; rather more inclined to hide what he felt than to give it free expression. It happened that I did not come very near them again for several months, and then I noticed with pain that an invisible barrier had grown between them, and that neither had yet found in married life the sweet satisfaction anticipated. During the evening I spent with them, I saw the tears spring to the eyes of Mrs. Baldwin more than once; and I noticed in them a hungry kind of look as they rested now and then on her husband's face. I was puzzled. What could it mean?
A few days afterwards, meeting Mr. Baldwin, I asked after his wife.
"Well," he answered.
But in the tone of his voice on my ear read—"Not well."
"How does she like her new home?" I inquired. He had brought her from a neighboring city.
My friend sighed involuntarily—"Not too well, I'm afraid," he answered. "She still feels strange."
"The tenderer the flower," I remarked, "the more difficult to transplant."
"Yes," in an absent tone.
"I should say," I added, "that your wife has a highly sensitive organization."
"Undoubtedly that is true," answered my friend. "But are not persons so organized very difficult to understand?"
"Sometimes."
"Always," I should say," he returned. I did not know what reply it was best to make, and so kept silent. After a little while he said, with some feeling, "I would give all the world to make her happy."
"Happy!" My surprise at his remark expressed itself in my voice.
"Yes, happy," he said with emphasis. "My wife is not happy and it troubles me beyond measure."
"Do you make no guess at the cause of her unhappiness?" I asked.
"I am all at sea. Sometimes I think she doesn't really love me. No! no!" he added quickly, "not that! I am sure of her love."
"Is she sure of your love?" said I.
The question seemed to hurt him.
"Have I not chosen her from among women to be my wife?" he answered with something of indignation in his voice.
"Am I the man to say I love, and not mean it? Did I not promise before God to love and cherish her till death? Sure of my love! If I have one element of character more strongly developed than another it is the element of truth. When I told her that I loved her, I told her an abiding truth. She is as dear to me as the apple of my eye. The very thought of a doubt on her part hurts me like an accusation of wrong."
A light came into my mind, bringing a revelation of the real ground of trouble, and I said:—"Have you been as tender to your young wife, always as true?" His eyes flashed; but the fire went out of them instantly.

"Mere truth in character is observed and proved," said I. "True as steel is all well enough. But steel is hard and cold by contact."
Baldwin looked at me strangely.
"Tender and true, my dear friend. Tender and true! Love will have nothing less," I ventured to add.
"Good morning!" he said in a voice that I scarcely recognized, and turning from me he walked away.
Had I offended him? We did not meet again for several weeks. I was going homeward one evening, when I heard quick feet behind me. A hand was laid on my shoulder, and a familiar voice spoke my name. It was my friend Baldwin.
"Come here with me," he said.
I tried to excuse myself, but he would take no denial; so I accompanied him home. His manner as we walked was frank and cheery.
"How is Mrs. Baldwin?" I naturally inquired.
"Oh, very well!" he answered, without change of tone.
"Getting more reconciled to her new home?"
"Yes."
"I'm glad to hear it. Few of us can bear an entire change in our surroundings, without a shadow falling on the spirits." He did not reply to this remark, but changed the subject.
Mrs. Baldwin met her husband almost at the door. She had been watching for him at the parlor window. I noticed that he kissed her very tenderly, and put an arm about her waist, in spite of my pleasure. Her face was all alive with pleasure and its whole expression so different from what it was when I last met her, that I could but wonder at the change. Her manner toward me, her husband's friend, was very cordial, and quite in contrast with what it had been at a previous meeting. Then she was depressed, absent, and ill at ease, and when she looked at her husband, her face, instead of lighting up, grew strangely shadowed.
I understood it all. The true and loyal husband had supplemented fidelity with tenderness. I saw this in every word, tone, and action. The half proud courtliness of manner—the dignified repression of feeling—which had so hurt and chilled his loving little wife, and held her away from him, were all gone, fused by the tenderness, he permitted to go forth in speech and act. Tender and true! Yes, he was all that now; and his young wife felt herself to be the happiest woman in the world.

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

I asked, for you know I am deeply interested in you."
"You will not be mad with me, Eli?"
"No, sweet one. I shall be only too happy," I said, wiping my tears from my eyes.
"Well, my dear—my long-cherished friend, I love—"
"Who, dear Sallie—who do you love?"
"Well, Eli, I love Charlie Brown, to whom I am engaged; and then the scalding tears fell thick and fast on my shirt-bosom.
"Well, Sallie, what have you got to say to me?" I asked hesitatingly as I loosened her hands from my neck.
"Why, my dear Eli, Charlie and father thought that I had better see you, and propose—"
"Oh, darling one, I am thine!" I said, with great emotion. "Take me! Never mind father. Take me as I am—Take—"
"But, Eli, let me explain. They wanted me to see you, and thank you for your many kindnesses, and propose that you don't come here any more!"

The Cincinnati Candidates.
HORACE GREELEY.
Horace Greeley, nominated at Cincinnati for the Presidency, was born on the 3d of February, 1811, in Amherst, N. H. Greeley's youth seemed to have been passed amidst considerable though not unusual hardships. At ten years of age his parents removed to Vermont. After assisting his father in the farming operations for three or four years he was apprenticed to a printer in East Putney in that State. After working in Erie, Pa., for a few months as a journeyman printer, he went to New York City and entered upon journalism as a profession. As a whig he entered into politics and published a number of campaign papers, all of which failed. In 1836 he married Miss Cheney of North Carolina.
In 1841 the New York Tribune was started by Horace Greeley and it is with that paper, now in existence, with which his name is considerably known. In 1848 Greeley was elected to the House of Representatives to fill an unexpired term. In 1850 he published "Hints Towards Reformers," partly lectures and partly essays. In 1851 he visited Europe, and was chosen chairman of one of the juries at the World's Fair. In 1844 he strongly supported Clay for the Presidency; in 1852 Scott and in 1856 Fremont. In 1860 he supported Lincoln, and published his notable letter dissolving the firm of Seward, Weed and Greeley. In 1867 Greeley became part bail for Jefferson Davis, of Mississippi, arraigned before the United States Circuit Court for levying war against the United States. Greeley opposed Johnson's administration throughout. He supported on the impeachment project, and sustained Secretary Stanton in his refusal to resign his portfolio at the request of the President. In 1868 Greeley and the Tribune supported General Grant for the Presidency. He is a protectionist. Greeley is in his 62d year, and has been prominent in the politics of the country for more than thirty years.

East River Bridge.
The work on both sides of the river on the East River bridge, New York, is progressing very favorably. The stone tower on the Brooklyn side is now carried up nearly 100 feet over high-water mark. There are yet 20 feet to build to bring it up to the roadway, which will be 118 feet above high water. Each tier or layer of stone is two feet thick and it takes about two and a half to three days to lay a tier. Then it requires another day to raise the derricks for the next tier, making the rate of progress about four days to each tier of stone. From the roadway to the cables the height will be 154 feet, and above the cable 10 or 15 feet more of ornamental stone-work, making the total height of the tower 285 feet. The work above the roadway, being a double archway, will progress much faster than the solid masonry below. The caisson on the New York side will be completed to above high water by the first of July.

Habit.
Few have sufficient respect for habit; the ease with which it may be formed, the difficulty with which it can be broken, the magical power with which it smooths the rough path of duty, and enables us to look with indifference upon the allurements of the world. It is a kind of shield with which the fingers of a boy may first weave threads light as gossamer. By its aid the greatest things are accomplished. The cultivation of proper habits should be impressed on the young.

Wasn't Fond of Sweet Things.
During the late rebellion, a man out West, in a small gathering of friends, was urging upon their minds the importance of enlisting:
"Go, my brave friends," said he; "fight for your country—do for it as he necessary; for it is sweet to die for our native land."
"But," said one, "it is sweet to die for one's country, why don't you go?"
This was a poser, and for a moment disconcerted him, but rallying, he replied that he was not fond of sweet things.

"My friend, I will give you a part of my fruit." So he held out his hand, and received six of the apples. The owner had kept one for himself.
Do you think the poor man was grateful for his kindness? No, indeed. He wanted the seven pippins all for himself; and at last he made up his mind that he would watch his opportunity, and go back and steal the other apple.
"Did he do that?" said Willie, very indignantly. "He ought to be ashamed of himself."
"How many days are there in a week, Willie?" said his friend.
"Seven," said Willie, blushing deeply; for he now began to understand the parable, and he felt an uneasy sensation at his heart—conscience began to whisper to him. "And ought not a boy to be ashamed of himself who is unwilling, on the seventh day, to lay aside his amusements?"

A Terrible Country.
The Valley of Death, a spot almost as terrible as the prophet's valley of dry bones, lies just north of the old Mormon road to California, a region 30 miles long by 30 broad, and surrounded, except at two points, by inaccessible mountains. It is totally devoid of water and vegetation, and the shadow of birds or wild beast never darkens its white glaring sands. The Kansas Pacific Railroad engineers discovered it, and also some papers which show the fate of the "Kut Montgometry train," which came south from Salt Lake in 1850, guided by a Mormon. When near Death's Valley some came to the conclusion that the Mormons knew nothing about the country, so they appointed one of their number a leader, and broke off from the party. The leader turned due west; so with the people and wagons and stock he travelled three days, and then descended into the broad valley, whose treacherous mirage promised water. They reached the centre, but only the white sand, bounded by scorching peaks, met their gaze. Around the valley they wandered and one by one the men died, and the panting flocks stretched themselves in death under the hot sun. Then the children, crying for water, died at their mothers' breast, and with swollen tongues and burning vias the mothers followed. Wagon after wagon was abandoned, and strong men tottered, and raved and died. After a week's wandering, a dozen survivors found some water in the hollow of a rock in the mountain. It lasted but a short time, when all perished but two, who escaped out of the valley and followed the trail of their former companions. Eighty-seven families, with hundreds of animals perished here, and now, after 22 years, the wagons stand still complete, the iron works and fires are bright, and the shrivelled skeletons lie side by side. —Springfield Republican.

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

Leap-Year Felicities.
Eli Perkins has undergone matrimonial proposals at the hands of one of his lady friends, and he had this to say about it:—"First, I called on my liquid-eyed brunette friend, Miss Sallie Morris, of Madison avenue. Now I've spent a good deal of money on Miss Sallie for operas, bouquets, Delmonico lunches, etc. I've been trying for two years to win her affections."
Last night, full of love, and hope, I rang old Morris's door-bell. In a moment Miss Sallie was by myself on a retired sofa. After speaking of the coming opera, I felt her velvet hands touch mine.
"Do you know, Mr. Perkins," she said, looking me straight in the face "that to day is our proposing day?"
"Well, I suppose so," I remarked, looking modestly down at her mosaic bracelet.
"Well, you know, Eli, my dear Eli! that I have been out with you a good deal."
"Yes," I replied, beginning to feel embarrassed.
"You know my dear," she said, taking both of my hands, "that it is costing me a good deal for dresses and gloves, and—"
"And costing me a good deal for carriages, bouquets, and Delmonico lunches," I interrupted, with increased embarrassment.
"And while I have enjoyed myself all winter going with you, Eli—"
"In expensive carriages to the Academy and Delmonico's," I suggested.
"Yes, while I have been happy to go there with you—I feel—I feel—Oh, my dear Eli, I don't know how to say what I want to!" and then the beautiful child hid her face on my bosom.
"Do not fear my answer, beautiful one," I said soothingly. "What is it that weighs so upon your sorrowful heart?"
"Oh! Eli, it is love," she said, sobbing wildly, and twisting her jeweled fingers in my auburn hair.
"Heaven be praised," I sighed, as I felt the beating of her heart against my vest, "For whom is this love, darling?"

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1872.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news are solicited from friends and patrons. Anonymous communications are not published.

FLORAL FESTIVAL. The Annual Floral Festival of the Sunday School of the First Church, on Sabbath afternoon, drew together a large audience, and was an occasion of unusual interest and satisfaction. A beautiful supply of beautiful flowers gave pleasure to the eye; and the services throughout were of a character to enlist the best feelings of our nature. Rev. E. E. Hale's address to the Sabbath School, was in his happiest vein, and the choral performances by the class were truly excellent. The report by the Secretary, read on the occasion, shows that the School was never in a more flourishing condition than at the present time. The CHORAL SERVICES in the evening were of a high order. Scarcely have our citizens had an opportunity to listen to better music. The choir, augmented for the occasion, was in good tune, and attracted the undivided interest of a very large audience. The able and highly creditable manner in which the organist performed his part on this occasion was very pleasing. The sermon, though short, was clear, pointed and forcible, fully delivered, and we think was better understood and appreciated by both old and young, than any half-hour sermon ever listened to.

CHRIST CHURCH. The services at this Church, on Thursday evening, were of a highly interesting nature, and very fully attended. The principal feature of the services consisted in administering the rites of confirmation to eleven individuals, by the Rev. Mr. Mantion Eastburn, D. D., assisted by Rev. Mr. Warland, of East Boston, and the Rector of the Church.

PTYSIS. Some forty members of the Old Colony Lodge of Knights of Pythias, of Abington, visited the St. Paul's Lodge, in this place, on Wednesday evening last. After an hour spent agreeably at their Hall, the St. Paul's Lodge invited their visiting brothers to the Hancock House, where a fine collation, served in Mr. Allen's usual good style, was found awaiting them. After indulging in the good things bountifully spread before them, several hours were pleasantly passed in singing and speaking.

ACCIDENT. As Mr. Loring Hayden, of West Quincy was driving through School street with his wife on Tuesday evening, his horse became frightened and ran while he was driving through a drove of cattle. The carriage was badly broken and Mrs. Hayden received serious injuries.

THE SEASON. The weather for several weeks has been excellent for all growing crops. The grass is coming forward finely. The prospects of a large crop of fruit have diminished somewhat. The apple trees have been badly injured by the caterpillars, although they look on the whole much better than last year. Cherries are beginning to show a crimson cheek, and a few strawberries are found on the vines that are of the natural flavor.

ENTERTAINMENT. A very fine musical entertainment was given at the Town Hall, on Tuesday evening, by Miss Pierce and her pupils, assisted by others. The songs, duets, and solos were excellent and showed that her pupils had not wasted their time, or the instructions of the teacher been in vain. The performances on the piano were unusually good and worthy of a more extended notice. The accompaniment on the flute by Mr. Edward Turner was excellent.

SILVER WEDDING. A very pleasant and social surprise party, took place in South Boston, on the 6th inst., at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Abbott, former residents of this place, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of their union. A large gathering of their relatives and friends from this town were present, and no doubt a still larger number would have been, but for the unsettled state of the weather. Many very handsome and valuable presents were bestowed as tokens of the event, which took the happy couple so much by surprise that they were unable to make very lengthy speeches, but will no doubt be better prepared on the fiftieth anniversary. May the golden era find them still sailing together in smooth water, and may we be there to help in the celebration.

THE YACHT CLUB. The second annual regatta of the Dorchester Yacht Club is to come off at Commercial Point at half-past three o'clock this afternoon. The first, second and third class of centerboards, keel schooners and first and second class keel sloops will sail over a course of nine and one-half miles down the bay. Fourth class centerboards will sail over a course of 5-1-2 miles. The prizes in each class will be a solid silver cup. There will be three races to decide the championship. A yacht winning two out of the three will be entitled to the ownership of the cup for her class, Messrs. W. T. Adams, William A. Gilbert and E. L. Willard will act as judges. The regatta of this club have always passed off very successfully, and the arrangements which have been perfected for this one will render it equal to any of its predecessors.

YOUNG AMERICA. The July number is a very interesting one. "Mice at Play," and "Just my Luck" are quite entertaining. $1.00 per year.

East Norfolk District Court.

SATURDAY.

Michael O'Keefe of Randolph, was arraigned before Judge Bumpus for committing assault and battery on his wife. He was found guilty, and sent to the House of Correction for six months.

MONDAY.

The first case on the docket was that of William Salisbury, of Weymouth, who was arrested by state constable Garey for drunkenness. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $3.00 and costs, amounting to $12.25.

James O'Brien of Quincy, arrested for drunkenness by constable Frederick H. French. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs. For non-payment he was committed to the House of Correction, at Dedham, for thirty days.

John C. Rogers of Holbrook for drink. ing more whiskey than he could conveniently carry, was arrested by constable Hodge and pleaded guilty to the charge of being drunk. He was fined $5 and costs amounting to $12.25.

Charles Pierce of Quincy, was arrested by constable F. H. French for being drunk where he had been prowling for some days without any visible means of support excepting a pocketful of clams. He was committed to the House of Correction for six months.

TUESDAY.

The first case on trial this morning was that of William Patterson of Braintree, who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Warren for being drunk. He pleaded guilty to the charge and fined $3 and costs, amounting to $9.55.

This was the first case before this Court from the steady town of Braintree.

John Knight of Quincy, was arrested by Constable F. H. French for being drunk. He pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs. For non-payment he was sent to the House of Correction for thirty days.

Catherine Rowell of Quincy, for assault and battery on her husband, Benjamin Rowell. This was evidently a case of domestic infelicity, caused no doubt by the green eyed monster and the fiery demon combined. Quite a little snicker ran through the quiet court room when the Judge accidentally asked Mr. Rowell, if he was wife of the defendant. The same parties had been before Justice Adams on a former row, and put under bonds to keep the peace. The case was continued.

Dennis Leary of Quincy was arrested by State constable Garey for being drunk. He pleaded guilty and was fined $3 and costs, which amounted to $9.55.

WEDNESDAY.

The business at the Court this morning was quite light only one case was tried. Mrs. Honora Hickey of Holbrook, was brought before the tribunal of justice for illegally vending intoxicating liquors. Her case owing to one of the witnesses, Syria Crocker, imbibing too freely from the bottle to keep his courage up, was continued to Friday morning.

The Selectmen of Holbrook were present and notified Mrs. Hickey and others, who sell intoxicating liquors in that place that they must stop selling the same at once, or means will be immediately taken to prosecute to the extent of the law. This is certainly the right step to stop this death dealing traffic.

Syria Crocker one of the witnesses in the above case was arrested by constable Frederick H. French for being drunk and placed in the lockup.

THURSDAY.

Syria Crocker, of Holbrook was brought this morning before the court, and on paying the costs $5.50 was allowed to depart if he would appear in a sober condition on Friday morning, as a witness in the Hickey liquor case.

Jeremiah Ford of Quincy, was up for liquor selling; but owing to the short and defective memories of the witnesses it was impossible to make out a case, and he was discharged.

FRIDAY.

Honora Hickey, of Holbrook whose case was continued from Wednesday, for illegal selling intoxicating liquors was convicted on two sales. She was fined $20 and sentenced to imprisonment for 30 days. She appealed and gave bonds, in the sum of $300 for appearance at Dedham at the September term.

George Peterson and Edward Tirrell minors, of Weymouth, were before the Court charged with killing a colt belonging to Mr. James Tirrell. But as the defendants were not prepared for trial the case was continued.

CROWDED. The Hancock House in this place is crowded with boarders. No time since this house was erected, to our remembrance, has its landlord had so goodly a number to feed. Many visitors of late have been turned away for want of room.

Thayer's Block at Wollaston Heights is also full, and quite a large addition is being made to the building for the better accommodation of its guests.

AN ITEM OF INTEREST. We are pleased to learn that a contract has been entered into, with Mr. Luke Rideout, to build a granite fence around the Adams Academy, for the sum of three thousand dollars—the work to be commenced immediately. Mr. Rideout's well known capability in his line of business, is a sure guarantee that the work will be scientifically, speedily, and satisfactorily completed.

WEST QUINCY. Rev. Mr. Kelley will preach at Robinson's Hall to-morrow, morning and evening, at the usual hour.

The Coliseum.

This mammoth structure which will be opened for the Grand Jubilee on Monday, is nearly completed. A gleaming from those who have had an opportunity to view its interior arrangements and conveniences, with some of its decorations is quite interesting, and we give a few notes which our readers may deem worthy of interest. A glance at the interior of the building would strike the beholder with the idea that a whole forest had been used for its construction. But through this great wilderness of timber may be noted the beauty and symmetry of all its arrangements, and to one standing at the chorus end of the building and looking down the long vista of pillars branching off into the intricate network of the roof, some faint idea may be gained of the impressiveness of the scene which is to greet the eye of the spectator, on Monday.

There are sixteen flights of stairs, in the building. The stairs, both to the chorus and audience galleries, will lead from the promenade, and the waiting and other rooms will open into it. The orchestra floor, is semi-oval in form and is in the front centre of the stage, and will be separated from the portion of the stage occupied by the chorus, by being one step lower. The promenade around the auditorium, under the side and chorus galleries is twenty-five feet wide.

A large room in the southeast corner is fifty feet wide by eighty-four feet long designed as a waiting-room for the gentlemen of the chorus. Next comes an entrance twenty-five feet wide, with stairs to the gallery, twelve feet in width. Adjoining this on the west is the gentlemen's lavatory, fifty feet square. Next is a large rehearsal room for the chorus, fifty feet wide by ninety-five feet long. The next section is the main south entrance, twenty-five feet in width. After passing the partition there is another flight of stairs leading to the gallery above, and a lobby forty feet wide. The Press Room, which is fifty feet wide by one hundred and eighteen feet long, comes next; adjoining which is another entrance twenty-five feet wide. Then comes another gallery lobby twenty-five feet in width, a lavatory, and a room fifty feet square in the southwest corner. Fifty thousand seats have been put in their places. In the introduction of gas to the building four miles of piping was required. To illuminate this structure about four thousand burners are necessary. Every one of the tall columns will have two brackets attached, with twelve burners each.

One hundred water closets, seventy-five wash bowls and about eighty drinking hydrants will be distributed about the building. Over eight tons of lead pipe and twelve hundred feet of iron pipe is required to complete this portion of the job, exclusive of the brass work.

A large clock is placed upon each end of the Coliseum, each clock has two large dials, ten feet in diameter, one outside and one inside. Time-pieces are placed in the several reception and press rooms, which will be connected with the tower clock and regulated by electricity.

The interior of the building presents a magnificent spectacle. The walls and ceiling are beautifully tinted an ethereal blue. The ends are elaborately decorated. An allegorical painting in semi-circular form with side ornamentation is placed over the organ and orchestra at the chorus end, while similar designs with variation in detail are placed on the western end. Over the centre aisle horizontal poles with turned ends in gilt are suspended, trimmed with green, from the extremities of which depend festoons, terminating at the top of the column. Over the galleries, in front of the columns, depend painted draperies eleven feet deep and ornamental draperies twelve feet deep will cover the dividing columns. At intervals between the posts are medallion portraits of the musical composers of all nations.

The large central window at the west end will not be obstructed by any decoration. On each side of it are colossal paintings, respectively representing the gem of Peace and America. The former is represented by a male figure, from whose open palm, held aloft, is escaping the white dove of peace while in his left he holds the laurel branch. The companion figure, typical of America, holds in her right hand an olive wreath and in her left the Roman fasces. At the feet of both these figures, with outer emblems, is the American eagle with outstretched wings.

The exterior decorations are more elaborate than was anticipated when the sudden emergency that necessitated a change of design occurred. It is to be simply surmounted by banners and flags—the centre tower bearing an oriflamme banner of white bunting, fifty feet long, with the word "International Musical Festival" lettered in red its entire length, the four corner towers bearing American oriflammes twenty-one feet long, and the other towers and turrets the flags of various nations. The entrances will be more elaborately trimmed on the exterior as well as inside.

Over the three principal entrances, a lyre surmounted by an eagle of twelve feet spread will be hung, the bird painted in oil on wood, tipped in gold, a green wreath depending from the lyre supported by gilded rosettes. On each side of the doors a standard seventy-five feet high, and surmounted by a dove bearing the olive branch, will be placed, and depending therefrom a white oriflamme banner twenty feet long and four and a half feet wide, will contain in red characters the word "Peace." Midway of the standards, the Union shield, in oil on wood, flanked by American flags, will be hung. Over the side entrances, will be a simple lyre in a laurel wreath, with suspended draperies.

The Electoral Vote.

The following table exhibits the electoral vote of the United States in the contest of 1872, with a statement of the popular majority in the same States in 1868. It should be kept for reference:

State.	Electoral Vote, 1872.	Pop. maj. 1868.	Dem. maj. 1868.
Alabama,	9	4,280	—
Arkansas,	7	2,374	—
California,	6	514	—
Connecticut,	7	2,084	—
Delaware,	3	—	—
Florida,	11	3,357	—
Georgia,	11	45,088	—
Illinois,	21	41,150	—
Indiana,	14	9,727	—
Iowa,	11	48,450	—
Kansas,	12	17,000	—
Kentucky,	12	25,000	—
Louisiana,	7	49,982	—
Maine,	7	21,481	—
Maryland,	8	—	—
Massachusetts,	13	17,769	—
Michigan,	11	15,470	—
Minnesota,	5	—	—
Mississippi,	7	—	—
Missouri,	15	23,888	—
Nebraska,	3	4,299	—
Nevada,	3	1,292	—
New Hampshire,	4	6,267	—
New Jersey,	9	2,380	—
New York,	34	10,000	—
North Carolina,	10	12,156	—
Ohio,	23	31,428	—
Oregon,	3	28,208	—
Rhode Island,	4	6,445	—
South Carolina,	7	17,064	—
Texas,	10	30,446	—
Vermont,	3	—	—
Virginia,	11	22,122	—
West Virginia,	5	8,719	—
Wisconsin,	10	24,447	—
Total,	367	—	—

The total vote for President in 1868 was 5,623,861, of which Seymour had 2,648,830, and Grant 2,985,031, a majority for Grant of 336,201.

*ORTHODOX. The Sunday School Concert, at the Orthodox Church, will occur to-morrow evening. The exercises to consist in part of recitations by the children, but principally of responsive singing by the congregation of old, familiar tunes. The public are invited to attend and join in the singing.

The afternoon service at this Church will be discontinued for the summer, and an evening preaching service substituted in its place. Seats free to all.

THE SOUTHERN CROPS. The wheat harvest in Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee is now underway, and a good crop is reported. The Virginia wheat crop is looking well. The yield in these States will be larger than last year.

The Barnstable Patriot states that the camp-meeting arranged for by the Christian denomination near Hyannis is to commence August 1, and continue one week. It will not be conducted on a sectarian basis.

It had been proposed to have a grand Mass Sunday school gathering, of all the different societies in Boston, and vicinity sometime during the Jubilee. But it is now found to be impossible, as the building is to be occupied for rehearsals. Efforts will probably be made to secure the building for such a purpose later in the season.

We ask attention to the advertisement of D. B. Steadman & Co., importers of Crockery Ware. Those wishing to supply themselves with China, Crockery or Glass Ware, will find a superior assortment at their Store, at moderate prices.

Summary of News.

The quantity of oats in the several elevators in Boston for the week ending June 10th, was 239,756 bushels, against 98,178 the previous week. "Oats are plenty and dull at 54, and 55 cents per bushel."

A specimen claimed by an old Californian to be genuine gold quartz, has been discovered on Mt. Neponset, Hyde Park.

The members of the French band receive five dollars per day in gold and their expenses.

A Gloverville, N. Y., firm employs four hundred hands and uses two million deer-skin annually in the manufacture of gloves. The annual sales of all the manufacturing amount to $4,000,000.

A man in Windham County, Connecticut, is said to be working up a sawing thirty feet long into a life for Gilmore's Jubilee. It will be blown by nitroglycerine.

Congress has decided to give the grave of every soldier in the national cemeteries a head-stone, with the name of the soldier and his State upon it.

The suit of Henry A. Tilden against Gen. Butler to recover $60,000 for alleged illegal seizure of the plaintiff's steamer Nassau, at New Orleans, during the war, began in New York Tuesday.

The barbers of Lawrence now refuse to cut hair on Sunday and charge double for shaving on that day.

A New Hampshire man of seventy-two years lately married a widow of thirty-five with a ready made family of thirteen. A band serenade was given the happy fifteen.

A quiet butter market at St. Albans, Vt., on Tuesday—price from 23 to 27 cents.

A Lawrence gentleman picked up a check filled out for a million of dollars, and bearing the signature of one of the wealthiest men in the country, in Boston one day this week.

Of seventeen Vice Presidents but four have been re-elected—John Adams, George Clinton, D. D. Tomkins and John C. Calhoun.

Mr. Boutwell is talked of to fill Mr. Wilson's chair in the Senate, when he takes the Vice President's seat. Mr. Boutwell can fill it about as well as any other man.

It is an established fact, that Consumption can be cured; but it is far better to prevent the cruel disease from fastening itself on the system, by the timely use of a remedy like Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry. This standard preparation will speedily cure a cough or cold, and even Consumption often yields to its great power.

WANTED. A SMART AMERICAN BOY, one attending A. School preferred. Apply at the BOSTON STORE. Quincy, June 15.

Spring Bed.

To the Publisher of the Patriot.

Having been requested to express through your columns my judgment of the Michigan Spring Bed, I am free to add my testimony to its decided merits. I was persuaded, somewhat against my inclinations, to substitute it, for a few days only—this is the taking way the agent has used for the Tucker Spring Bed which I had used for several years but which though otherwise acceptable was perpetually breaking.

The contrast was so great, that strange as it may appear, I could not sleep the first night for very luxury. But since that first night I have experienced no trouble—only in getting up in the morning. I would seriously advise lazy people therefore to beware of it. But in the interests of good sleep and good dreams and good health and good feelings towards all mankind, and the inventor of the Michigan Spring Bed in particular, I recommend it to all others who know what a good bed is.

J. E. HALL.

FOUND. IN this Town, on Monday, the 10th inst., a LAP DOG, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges—by applying to C. F. ARNOLD, Broker. Quincy, June 15.

For Sale -- Cheap! A GOOD FAMILY COW. Apply to WM. G. FRIECOTT. Quincy, June 1.

ICE CREAM. THE subscriber would again make his best bow to his friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, and would inform them that he may be found at the OLD STAND, 107 Temple Street, on MONDAY next, June 18.

PHILIP CARVER. Houses, Store, Stables, &c. TO LET. COTTAGE HOUSE, 7 Rooms, at TEMPLE STREET, 2 Rooms, at Quincy Street.

BASEMENT ROOM, well lighted under the Post Office, suitable for a fruit and Meat Market. Small STABLE in the centre of the town. STABLE & SHEDS, on Faxon Avenue, suitable for the Express or Jobbing Business. Also, Real Estate in all parts of the town, for Sale low upon favorable terms of payment. Quincy, June 8. By HENRY H. FAXON. 1m-2

THE Michigan Spring Bed. WE have used the MICHIGAN SPRING BED, for which Thompson & Hinchcock are Proprietors for this Country, and after giving said Bed a fair trial, we cheerfully recommend it, as in our opinion, superior to any in market.

Joe. Benton, Jos. Underwood, Thaddeus H. Newcomb, Samuel T. Allen, Jos. W. Lombard, G. W. Miles, J. E. Hall, J. H. Morrison, James Newcomb.

The undersigned having purchased the Right for this County to put up and sell the Michigan Spring Bed, of Messrs. Thompson & Hinchcock, is now prepared to furnish all who may give him a call.

I have already taken off numerous kinds of Springs Beds, and put mine in their place, to the entire satisfaction of those making the change. My Ware-Rooms are at No. 75 Hancock Street, where all are invited to come and examine the Michigan Spring Bed, which I claim to be superior to any in the country in point of comfort, durability, price, and every other quality which goes to make up a good bed.

Beds put up on Trial—and no one is asked to purchase until after a fair trial. Over one thousand of these Beds are sold every week in this State. C. T. MANSFIELD. Quincy, June 8.

For Sale or to Let, IN QUINCY. The Splendid Residence on Granite Street, near Depot, School and Churches, formerly owned and occupied by the late C. A. Southworth, consisting of a Two Story House, Twelve Rooms, and a large Attic, with Water, Gas, Bath Room, and all the modern improvements. Two Acres of Land well stocked with Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, &c. A good location for a fashionable Boarding House, or a gentleman's private residence. Rent, $600 per year, or will be sold upon satisfactory terms. Apply to HENRY H. FAXON. Quincy, May 15.

Stylish Goods, LOW PRICES, 262 Washington Street, (CORNER OF AVON.) SETH T. DAME & CO., ARE OFFERING LADIES' READY MADE SUMMER SUITS AND POLONAISE, AND Lace Points and Lace Jackets AT VERY LOW PRICES. ALSO, Shawls in Great Variety Misses' Garments, &c.

Ladies will do well to examine this Stock as the Goods will be FREELY and CHEERFULLY shown whether you purchase or not. REMEMBER THE PLACE. SETH T. DAME & CO., 262 Washington Street, corner of Avon. BOSTON. Quincy, June 15.

CHOICE French China!! WHITE AND DECORATED Dinner Sets, Tea Sets, Toilet Sets, Comprising the most beautiful assortment ever imported in this country. Together with a large stock of

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, SILVER PLATED WARE, Ice Pitchers, Tea Services, &c. FRUIT JARS AT EXTREME LOW PRICES!! WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. D.B. STEADMAN & CO., 136 SUMMER STREET, 136 Opposite South Street, BOSTON. Quincy, June 15.

DO YOU KNOW THAT D. B. STETSON HAS JUST RECEIVED A NEW LOT OF Ladies' Button Boots! ALSO MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S CROQUET SLIPPERS

ANKLE TIES, IN GREAT VARIETY. DO NOT GO ELSEWHERE TO BUY YOUR BOOTS AND SHOES, when you can have them of D. B. STETSON AT LOWER PRICES than can be bought of others, and have them WARRANTED IN WORK!

WE HAVE SOME MORE OF THOSE French Kid Button Boots! At $4.75 per pair! American Kid Button Boots! At $3.75 per pair! OF THE BEST QUALITY! We have a Large Stock of Goods on hand to select from and will sell at LOW PRICES. D. B. STETSON. Quincy, May 8.

Quincy Savings Bank.

All money deposited on or before Tuesday, July 2, 1872, will then commence drawing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum. The next Semi-annual Dividend will be made on Tuesday, October 1, 1872. GEO. L. GILL, Treasurer. Quincy, June 15.

Partnership Notice. ABEL NUTTING withdraws from the firm doing business in Quincy, under the name of the Quincy Adams Bank, and will collect all debts due said Company, and will pay all debts due by the same. BENJAMIN WATSON. Quincy, June 15, 1872.

Partnership Notice. THE Business of the Quincy Adams Granite Company will be carried on from this date by BENJAMIN WATSON, who is authorized to collect all debts due said Company, and will pay all debts due by the same. BENJAMIN WATSON. Quincy, June 15, 1872.

FOUND. IN this Town, on Monday, the 10th inst., a LAP DOG, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges—by applying to C. F. ARNOLD, Broker. Quincy, June 15.

For Sale -- Cheap! A GOOD FAMILY COW. Apply to WM. G. FRIECOTT. Quincy, June 1.

ICE CREAM. THE subscriber would again make his best bow to his friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, and would inform them that he may be found at the OLD STAND, 107 Temple Street, on MONDAY next, June 18.

PHILIP CARVER. Houses, Store, Stables, &c. TO LET. COTTAGE HOUSE, 7 Rooms, at TEMPLE STREET, 2 Rooms, at Quincy Street.

BASEMENT ROOM, well lighted under the Post Office, suitable for a fruit and Meat Market. Small STABLE in the centre of the town. STABLE & SHEDS, on Faxon Avenue, suitable for the Express or Jobbing Business. Also, Real Estate in all parts of the town, for Sale low upon favorable terms of payment. Quincy, June 8. By HENRY H. FAXON. 1m-2

THE Michigan Spring Bed. WE have used the MICHIGAN SPRING BED, for which Thompson & Hinchcock are Proprietors for this Country, and after giving said Bed a fair trial, we cheerfully recommend it, as in our opinion, superior to any in market.

Joe. Benton, Jos. Underwood, Thaddeus H. Newcomb, Samuel T. Allen, Jos. W. Lombard, G. W. Miles, J. E. Hall, J. H. Morrison, James Newcomb.

The undersigned having purchased the Right for this County to put up and sell the Michigan Spring Bed, of Messrs. Thompson & Hinchcock, is now prepared to furnish all who may give him a call.

I have already taken off numerous kinds of Springs Beds, and put mine in their place, to the entire satisfaction of those making the change. My Ware-Rooms are at No. 75 Hancock Street, where all are invited to come and examine the Michigan Spring Bed, which I claim to be superior to any in the country in point of comfort, durability, price, and every other quality which goes to make up a good bed.

Beds put up on Trial—and no one is asked to purchase until after a fair trial. Over one thousand of these Beds are sold every week in this State. C. T. MANSFIELD. Quincy, June 8.

For Sale or to Let, IN QUINCY. The Splendid Residence on Granite Street, near Depot, School and Churches, formerly owned and occupied by the late C. A. Southworth, consisting of a Two Story House, Twelve Rooms, and a large Attic, with Water, Gas, Bath Room, and all the modern improvements. Two Acres of Land well stocked with Fruit Trees, Grape Vines, &c. A good location for a fashionable Boarding House, or a gentleman's private residence. Rent, $600 per year, or will be sold upon satisfactory terms. Apply to HENRY H. FAXON. Quincy, May 15.

Stylish Goods, LOW PRICES, 262 Washington Street, (CORNER OF AVON.) SETH T. DAME & CO., ARE OFFERING LADIES' READY MADE SUMMER SUITS AND POLONAISE, AND Lace Points and Lace Jackets AT VERY LOW PRICES. ALSO, Shawls in Great Variety Misses' Garments, &c.

Ladies will do well to examine this Stock as the Goods will be FREELY and CHEERFULLY shown whether you purchase or not. REMEMBER THE PLACE. SETH T. DAME & CO., 262 Washington Street, corner of Avon. BOSTON. Quincy, June 15.

CHOICE French China!! WHITE AND DECORATED Dinner Sets, Tea Sets, Toilet Sets, Comprising the most beautiful assortment ever imported in this country. Together with a large stock of

CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, SILVER PLATED WARE, Ice Pitchers, Tea Services, &c. FRUIT JARS AT EXTREME LOW PRICES!! WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. D.B. STEADMAN & CO., 136 SUMMER STREET, 136 Opposite South Street, BOSTON. Quincy, June 15.

DO YOU KNOW THAT D. B. STETSON HAS JUST RECEIVED A NEW LOT OF Ladies' Button Boots! ALSO MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S CROQUET SLIPPERS

ANKLE TIES, IN GREAT VARIETY. DO NOT GO ELSEWHERE TO BUY YOUR BOOTS AND SHOES, when you can have them of D. B. STETSON AT LOWER PRICES than can be bought of others, and have them WARRANTED IN WORK!

WE HAVE SOME MORE OF THOSE French Kid Button Boots! At $4.75 per pair! American Kid Button Boots! At $3.75 per pair! OF THE BEST QUALITY! We have a Large Stock of Goods on hand to select from and will sell at LOW PRICES. D. B. STETSON. Quincy, May 8.

BY J. W. LOMBARD, AUCTIONEER, Office 75 Hancock street, QUINCY.

FOR SALE. ESTATE on Sea Street next to Mrs. Charles Hall's—on liberal terms. Near Schools, Churches, and Depot. Enquire of J. W. LOMBARD.

FOR SALE. A BEAUTIFUL RESIDENCE, In the Centre of Quincy Village—if arrange suits can be made immediately. En

THE QUINCY PATRIOT.

—Established in 1837—

PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING.

No. 44 Hancock Street, Quincy.

M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.

GEO. W. PRESCOTT, Ass't Editor.

TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.

$3.00, if not paid before the close of the year.

Job Printing Promptly Executed

On the Most Reasonable Terms,

And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.

MAILS DUE FROM MAILS CLOSE FOR

Boston, at 8.30 A.M. Boston at 9.40 A.M.

at 10.30 P.M. Cape Cod, at 8.00 A.M.

Quincy Point, at 8.15 A.M.

Quincy Point, at 8.30 P.M.

JOHN B. BASS, P. M.

Quincy, July 29.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.

Homeopathic Physician.

Residence near the new Adams Academy

HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.

Aug. 25.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon,

4 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY.

(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)

REFERENCES.

D. H. Bowditch, M. D., D. W. Cheever, M. D.

D. H. Bowditch, M. D., D. W. Cheever, M. D.

Dr. Gordon may be found at his Office,

No. 4 Temple St. day and night.

Quincy, July 22.

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Entrances to Office,

No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.

No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.

Office Hours, from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Jan. 15.

H. FARNAM SMITH,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.

Business done promptly, at reasonable rates of charge. Quincy, June 11.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,

Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

OFFICES:

Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,

And at Weymouth Landing.

E. F. E. THAYER,

AUCTIONEER

And Real Estate Broker,

Brantree, 105 Washington St., Boston.

Office Hours 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.

Particular attention given to selling and disposing of real estate, and conducting sales of every kind.

No charge unless sales are effected.

REFER TO

Hon. A. Ames, George W. Simmons, Esq.,

George Homer, Esq.

April 15.

WHITMAN & BRECK,

Architects, Engineers

AND SURVEYORS,

Office, No. 32 Joy's Building,

81 Washington Street, Boston.

Particular attention paid to Land Surveying,

laying out private grounds, and the general management of Real Estate. Plans and working drawings of public and private buildings carefully

prepared.

H. T. WHITMAN, C. E. C. BRECK.

April 15.

Horticultural Store.

Choice Fruit, Flowers and Plants

RUSTIC & WIRE WORK,

Fancy and Common Flower Pots,

PREPARED, ETC.

DELICATES IN VARIETY.

Wedding & Funeral Flowers

arranged and preserved.

No. 100 Tremont Street, Boston.

ISAIAH WHITE,

Agent for Saratoga Star Spring Water.

B. F. MESERVEY,

WATCHMAKER,

2 CITY HALL AVENUE,

BOSTON.

Watches and Jewelry repaired.

April 29.

G. S. COFFIN,

LOCKSMITH,

REMOVED TO

No. 39 Merchants Row,

opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

Signs of all kinds put up. Locks picked. Repairing and Jobbing of all kinds.

August 27.

W. A. STEARNS,

MASON,

At the Golden Estate, on South Street,

QUINCY POINT.

All kinds mason work promptly attended to

and neatly executed.

White Washing made a specialty.

Quincy, April 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

W. ABERCROMBIE.

Quincy, May 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!

THE Subscriber has taken the Store recently

occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-

LIN STREET, and intends to keep

A NICE ASSORTMENT OF

Woolen & Fancy Goods,

CONFECTIONERY, &c.

A share of public patronage is solicited.

EDWARD HARDWICK.

Quincy, April 29.

NAILS.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which

will be sold at the lowest cash price.

The Quincy Patriot.

SATURDAY, JUNE 22, 1872.

"Born to no Master, of no Sect are We."

Short communications and items of news earnestly solicited from friends and patrons.

Anonymous communications are not published.

EXHIBITION. It will be seen by an advertisement in another column, that Russ H. Walker the popular and favorite teacher of dancing, whose schools in this town are always a class in dancing, in the Town Hall next Tuesday evening, where the fairy figures of the little ones will be seen threading the mazy dance, with a grace and elegance not to be found in those of larger growth.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS. At a caucus of the Democrats of this town, held last Saturday evening, Dr. Wm. S. Patten presiding and Seth Dewing, Jr., acting as Secretary, the following delegates to the Second District Convention to choose delegates to the Baltimore Convention were chosen: At large, Dr. W. S. Patten, Asa Wellington, George Cahill, G. A. Beard, G. H. Hobert, Charles H. Curtis, Seth Dewing, Jr., M. W. Gerry and Eleazer Frederick. The delegates were instructed by a unanimous vote of the meeting, to vote for Greeley men for delegates to the National Convention.

FLORAL EXERCISES. The Universalist Church in this place, was very prettily decorated on Sunday last, and the Floral exercises were quite interesting and pleasing. The sermon by the pastor was more especially adapted for the children, but was listened to by a large and attentive audience, who appeared to appreciate the many excellent ideas advanced by Rev. Mr. Whitney. After the address, quite a number of children were brought forward and baptized, and remarks in each instance were varied and suggestive of thought.

In the evening the Sabbath School had their monthly concert, and a very creditable and enjoyable one it was. It was the first they had given since Mr. Whitney has been with them for many months previous; still they showed their parents and friends that they had the power and means to entertain and please them.

EXAMINATIONS. Monday next is the commencement of the examinations of the Public Schools in this town. We think that the Committee will have to be quite moderate in their expectations as the children have been running round rather loose the past week.

DISGRACEFUL. We learn that some of our beautiful beaches are visited on Sundays by very disorderly and drunken parties who disturb the peace of those living in the vicinity, and also break the beautiful stillness of the Sabbath. Rum is surely making dreadful havoc among our young men, and it almost makes the hearts of parents stop beating to think of the consequences, if something is not done to stop this death dealing traffic. Pause and think young men, before it is too late. Do not forget the fate of young Appleton.

SMALL POX. Benjamin Rowell, of North Quincy, whose case of domestic infidelity was tried before the Court on Tuesday last week, was taken sick with the small pox soon after, and died on Thursday night of this week.

DISAPPEARED. Mr. Isaac H. Willey of this town, disappeared from Dover, N. H., the early part of last week, and his friends have been unable to find any trace of him since.

APPOINTMENT. J. R. Clifford of Stoughton, has been appointed State Constable and the district assigned him is Stoughton, Sharon, and Canton, in this County.

We learn that the State Commissioners have nominated Mr. N. B. Fernald, of this town, as a State Constable, and his name has been sent to the Governor for appointment.

NEW SCHOOL. Rev. J. D. Wells will open a school in a new house near his residence, in September, as will be seen by a notice in another column.

RUNAWAY. A horse attached to an open wagon, and driven by a one armed man became frightened from some cause, and ran at a furious rate down Hancock street, on Monday, but was fortunately stopped before doing much damage.

Jonathan French, Esq., sells on Saturday next, several acres of grass standing on land formerly owned by Capt. Isaac Dyer, in South Braintree.

GREELEY AND BROWN. The Maine Democratic State Convention, which met at Bangor on Thursday last, endorsed the Cincinnati platform, and came out emphatically for Greeley and Brown.

THE GRANITE BUSINESS. Appearances, within the vicinity of the Town Pump, daily indicate that our quarrymen are having a fine streak of trade at the present time, by the frequent arrival and departure of the heavily loaded stone wagons at this important and popular institution. On Friday forenoon, at one time, there were no less than ten double teams waiting their turn to be refreshed with the "drink that all are praising," before continuing their long and laborious journey to the city.

The St. Albans butter market was inactive on Tuesday, and prices ranged from 18 to 25 cents.

The Peace Jubilee.

The opening of the World's Peace Jubilee at Boston, the present week is an event long to be remembered by hundreds of thousands, not only on this Continent but from all parts of the world. We think we never saw Boston more crowded than on Monday morning—the sidewalks and streets were so full it was difficult to pass along. From a kind invitation presented by the City Government we visited Faneuil Hall about eleven o'clock and found some four hundred persons present. After listening to a short address by Mayor Gaston, welcoming the representatives of the Press to the city on this festive occasion, we were invited to partake of the bountiful supply of good things placed on the loaded tables around the hall. Seldom have we felt in better trim, still after doing our best, we thought that justice had not been done, from the large supply of strawberries, cream and other delicacies still remaining. We saw a large number of our brothers indulge in a social glass and smack their lips as though it was good, but cannot testify to it from our personal knowledge. We are pleased however to say we saw no editor whom we thought the worse of liquor throughout the week.

On leaving the hall, we wended our way through crowds to the Coliseum—an immense structure on the new made land, near the junction of the Boston and Providence and the Boston and Albany railroads. The building is 550 feet long and 350 wide; and by numerous windows is well lighted and most excellently ventilated—a grand thing these hot days.

A large room finely decorated, on the eastern side of the building for the accommodation of the Press, we found filled with tables, telegraph and post offices, books, maps, papers, pens, etc., to the great convenience of the reporters.

The Choral Societies and Orchestras were promptly on hand the first day and well filled the large space allotted to them; but the audience was very scattering, but increased in two folds each day, and on Thursday not less than forty thousand persons must have been present. The chorus throughout the week has done exceedingly well, and although double that of 1869, it surpassed it in many respects, and showed the result of hard and well directed training. The Quincy Club, composed as follows:—Soprano, 29 Alto 25, Tenor 21, and Bass 25, was very fully represented each day, and was worthy the space it occupied.

The week has certainly been an exciting as well as an arduous one to them. Long may it be remembered for its may pleasant incidents.

Among the collection of rare plants, flowers, fruits and vegetables on exhibition on Saturday last, at Horticultural Hall, Boston, was a huge Chinese cucumber, over three feet in length, called Looey Qua.

ALLEGED EVADING THE PAYMENT OF FARE. Mr. Sylvanus R. Wetherbee, watch maker at No. 2 City Hall avenue, Boston, was arraigned in the Municipal Court last week on a complaint charging him with evading the payment of fare on the Old Colony and Newport Railroad.

According to Mr. Wetherbee's statement he took the 6.40 P. M. train from Woblaston to Boston last week without purchasing a ticket. When the conductor, Mr. E. H. Mellus came round, Mr. W. tendered him the price of a ticket and the conductor took it. He soon after returned the money and informed Mr. Wetherbee that he must have the extra amount (ten cents) which he was instructed to collect from passengers not having tickets. This extra charge Mr. Wetherbee refused to pay, and hence the prosecution. On hearing the case Judge Chamberlain decided that it came within the provision of the law, and fined Mr. Wetherbee $5 and costs. He appealed and gave bonds in $100 to prosecute his appeal before the Superior Court.—Boston Traveller.

STRAWBERRIES. It is estimated that for the next three weeks there will be sent to market from the town of Dighton, not less than ten thousand boxes of strawberries daily.

CHRIST CHURCH. Sunday School to-morrow at 9.15 A. M. Services at 10.30 A. M. and 4.00 P. M.

Nellie Grant is the second child of a President of the United States which Queen Victoria has politely entertained. John Van Buren, son of Martin Van Buren, being the first. He made his visit to Europe three years ago, and had the honor of dancing with the youthful queen.

FROM GERMANY TO THE UNITED STATES. A pleasure excursion from Bremen to the United States is one of the principal topics of conversation in Berlin at present. The trip is all arranged, we believe; and a number of Fatherlands who have never sniffed the air of the salt sea, will have the deed of a passage across the Atlantic, to see the land of whose wondrous growth and increasing importance they have heard and read so much. They propose leaving about the middle of July. While thousands of Americans annually visit Europe, comparatively few Europeans come to this country; yet the attractions which they can find here cannot be excelled in the world.

RAILROAD GUIDE. Summer tourists on the Old Colony road to Plymouth, Newport, Cape Cod and the Vineyard, are furnished gratuitously with an eight page circular, giving interesting historical and geographical facts and a handsome map besides. Supt. Kendrick has issued twenty thousand copies for distribution, a new evidence of the liberal enterprise of the road.

District Court of East Norfolk.

The following cases were brought before the Court in this town for trial since our last issue. We shall endeavor every week to give our readers a report of the cases tried each day.

SATURDAY. Constable Fernald of this town arrested on Saturday last, in Ipswich, Mass. Little and brought her before this Court for trial, for stealing clothing from Mrs. Frances Eaton of this town, while living in the family. The goods were nearly found at Lynn. She was sentenced for two months to the House of Correction.

TUESDAY. Matthew Morrell of Weymouth, was arrested and tried for drunkenness. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $3 and costs, amounting to $9.95. Edward Connor of Quincy, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff French, for assaulting James McQuinn. He was let off by paying costs amounting to $6.65.

George Gibson of Quincy was arrested for breaking counters and tumblers on Sunday last belonging to James Anderson, proprietor of the Willard House, at West Quincy. He was found guilty and fined $5 and costs amounting to $16.25.

WEDNESDAY. James Sullivan, who resides on Liberty street, Quincy, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff French for keeping open shop on Sunday. He was fined $10 and costs amounting to $17.35.

Richard Stanton, also a resident of Liberty street, was arrested by Constable N. B. Fernald for keeping open shop on the Lord's day. Fined $10 and costs amounting to $17.35.

The judge informed the defendants as well as those who were in the Court that all who keep open stores, not those alone who sell liquors, but also, provisions or groceries, that they are liable to be arrested and fined. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Putnam J. Sweeting carriage painter of Weymouth, was arrested as a common drunkard. Sentenced to the House of Correction, for four months. A letter from the Selectmen of Weymouth was read in Court, stating that he had a wife and family in that place, and for the last two months had given them less than five dollars and the town had been obliged to aid them.

FRIDAY. Joseph Margrets and Edward Margrets of Hingham, and Edgar Burrell and Herbert Burrell of East Weymouth, were arrested by State Constable Carey, and brought before the court for trial this morning, for creating a disturbance in the cars on the evening of the 17th inst., near the depot in this town.

On testimony of Capt. Carey, Mr. Morrill and others, it appeared that the young men were decidedly the worse for liquor, and one or more, quite intoxicated. Blows were struck and a general disturbance created by these young gentlemen. The case was continued to Monday next, and each of the defendants were ordered to appear at that time.

ERRATUM. The new granite fence around the Adams Academy will cost about $1000 instead of $3000 as was stated in our last issue.

FIRE. The large cotton-gin manufactory of Messrs. E. Carter & Co., at East Bridgewater, was burned on Tuesday night. The origin of the fire is unknown. The flames spread very rapidly, and, after completing the destruction of that building, burned two dwelling-houses near by, a blacksmith shop, a saw mill and tack factory of Z. Keith, Jr., & Co. and a package shop, with about 10,000 feet of hard wood lumber, belonging to Carter & Company. Twelve buildings in all were destroyed, with a total loss not far from $200,000. Over one hundred persons were thrown out of employment. The property was insured in the Manufacturers' Insurance Company for about $25,000.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. A distressing accident happened at Fall River, Tuesday morning to Mr. William H. Smith of Kidderminster, England, a passenger on the New York boat, on his way to Boston to attend the Jubilee. In attempting to get into the second train for Boston he made a misstep and fell to the ground in such a position that his right hand struck upon the track, and was crushed to pieces by the wheels of the trucks. He was helped on the train, his hand temporarily dressed and immersed in cold water until he arrived in Boston, when he was taken to the Tremont House and amputation performed.

BUSINESS IMPROVING. The canals of the State were very late in opening this season, and much grain was diverted from them during the early weeks of navigation, in consequence of fears of trouble from low water. But of late the volume of trade passing through them has been very large. The effect of this increased business is seen in a decided gain in the amount of toll collected.—If the canal business holds out through the rest of the season as heavy proportionately as it has been during the past three weeks, the season's exhibit will compare very favorably with that of its immediate predecessors.—Buffalo Advertiser.

WE desire to call attention to our closing out sale of carpets and straw matting which commences Monday 17th inst., and continues 10 days unless sooner disposed of. See advertisement in another column. B. P. CUNNINGHAM & Co., 296 Washington Street, Boston.

Summary of News.

Lobsters are yearly growing more scarce along the New England coast.

Connecticut is sending medicated cider to Massachusetts to help keep the liquor law.

An Evansville youth, on salary of nine dollars a week, paid fifteen dollars for a bouquet to throw at his lady love at a concert, and she went home with another fellow. His boarding mistress has craped on the kitchen door over the loss of the price of a week's grub.

They had a so-called "Dolly Varden" chicken at South Scituate last week. It had one head, two beaks, three eyes and four legs, but only one body. It lived only a short time.

Shocking to relate, the richest heiress of Milwaukee is soon to marry a widower with three children. The young fellows talk of getting out an injunction.

Mr. Frederick Hudson, for many years the managing editor of the New York Herald, has written a History of Journalism, which the Messrs. Harper have in press.

Tennie C. Clafin has been elected colonel of a New York colored regiment—the eighty-fifth.

The average cost of building a mile of railroad is $44,225 in this country.

Mrs. P. A. Hanaford has been elected chaplain of the Connecticut legislature.

Delaware will peach—1,250,000 baskets this year, the product of 5,000,000 peach trees.

No less than 7,207 treaties of peace have been signed within the last 200 years.

Over 15,000 persons are now engaged in the strikes in New York.

Iron shingles have been lately patented, and are said to be less expensive than slate. They are made about six by thirteen inches in size, and fastened with headless nails.

A corpse was set up against a tree in the Catholic cemetery in Providence, one day last week, and photographed.

Patents to the number of over one thousand have been granted in this country for improvements on sewing machines.

There are three Arabs now at work on the Essex Branch Railroad, viz: Siard Ben Abram, Mirt Ali and Mahomed Benier. They cannot speak a word of English.

The largest orchard in the world is in California. It contains 426 acres, and more than 75,000 fruit trees.

A Nevada horse dotes on sausage meat.

An Iowa ten-year-old boy weighs 110 pounds.

The total bonded debt of New Hampshire on the first of this month was $4,231,895.

Fifty acres of Fairmount Park Philadelphia are to be set apart for zoological garden.

It is reported that the amount involved in the suit against Jay Gould, brought by the Attorney General, is $600,000,000.

During the last six years the annual national taxation has been reduced $308,000,000; the annual expenditure $225,652,228, the principal of the national debt $315,131,730, and the annual interest on it $20,484,802.

Rev. C. C. Rich of Utah, tenth Apostle of Brigham Young, who has six wives and forty-nine children, is to attend the gathering of the Rich family at Truro, on Cape Cod, the 27th of June.

A woman in Fall River was saved from death by an overdose of opium, after she had become so stupid that no medicine could be introduced through the mouth, by the injection of belladonna under the skin of the arms.

Out of the whole number of President Grant's appointments during the last Congressional session, only two were rejected by the Senate.

Mrs. Catherine Haskins, aged 84, of Berkley, made a trip to Taunton last week for the first time since 1812, when she went on horseback.

It is calculated that 150,000 Americans will visit Europe this summer.

Three years ago a Gloucester lady made her husband promise that he would give her each day the five cent piece he had in his pocket, and on his birthday, a few days since, she surprised him by making him a present of a handsome gold watch, costing upward of $100, which she had purchased with the money thus obtained.

There were more visitors at Newport R. I., on Monday last, than at any time within the past thirteen years.

Mr. Sylvanus Baker of Taunton has just finished making cider from last year's apples. He has made 193 barrels, 133, of which were from western apples. He made cider every month during the winter, and spring, and put in the last "cheese" on the last day of May.

Hon. Oliver Ames of North Easton has been elected one of the directors of the Atlantic and Pacific railroads.

THOUGHTFUL OF THE WIDOWS. A wealthy man in Pike county, Ind., recently bequeathed all his property to the widows living within a radius of eight miles from his residence.

In a description of New York published in 1857, this item appears:—"In the year 1735, the first stage between Boston and this city was established. It started from each of these places only once a month, and it required fourteen days to perform the journey. A stage now starts daily from Boston as well as from this city, and arrives at the place of its destination in thirty-six hours."

Found at last! A remedy that not only relieves, but cures that enemy of mankind, Consumption, as well as the numerous statistics which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, cold, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza, &c. The remedy we allude to is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Son, Boston.

AN INTELLIGENT DOG. While Mr. Thayer, 44 Stanford street, was building a fence in Cambridge, he took off his coat, rolled it up leaving his pocket-book in the breast pocket, told his dog (a pointer) to watch it. The dog did so about two hours, when the workmen had got some distance away, the intelligent creature unrolled the coat, took out the pocket-book and brought it carefully to the owner.—Boston Traveller.

Probably the heaviest contract ever undertaken by one man is that of Henry Meigs, with the Peru government, to build a railway across the Andes for the sum of $100,000,000. The highest point to be crossed is 16,000 feet above tide water.

Over 80,000 workmen are employed in the Pittsburgh manufactories, their wages footing up $160,000 per day. The amount of blast furnace and rolling mill machinery turned out this year will be more than double that of any previous year in the history of the city.

THE NATIONAL GOLD BANKS. Only three national gold banks are in operation, two of which are in California, with a capital of $1,000,000 each, and the other in Boston, with a capital of $300,000. Applications are on file in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency for the establishment of other gold banks at Sacramento, Stockton and Oakland, Cal.

Dea. Elias Hayward has been appointed postmaster at South Braintree.

NOTICE. A PURE Blood White and Yellow SETTER DOGS, two years old, partially trained. Address, Box 185 Quincy, Quincy, June 15.

FOUND IN THIS TOWN, on Monday, the 10th inst., a LAP DOG, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges by applying to C. F. ARNOLD, Braintree, Quincy, June 15.

For Sale -- Cheap! A GOOD FAMILY COW.—Apply to WM. G. PRESCOTT, Quincy, June 15.

ICE CREAM. THE subscriber would again make his best bow to his friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, and would inform them that he may be found at the OLD STAND, ON TEMPLE STREET, on and after MONDAY next, June 24th, at 10 o'clock, by PHILIP CARVER.

TO LET. A COTTAGE HOUSE, 7 Rooms, at QUINCY NECK, FLEMING, 3 Rooms, at Quincy Neck. BASEMENT ROOM, well lighted under the Post Office, suitable for a fruit and Meat Market. Small STABLE in the centre of the town.

STABLE & SHEDS, on Faxon Avenue, suitable for the Express or Jobbing Business. Also, Real Estate in all parts of the town, for sale upon favorable terms of payment. By HENRY H. FAXON, Quincy, June 8.

THE NEW SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS, to be established and carried on under my supervision, will open on the 1st of September. The School will be graded, and divided into three departments, under the charge of Miss Faxon, Miss Wadsworth, and Miss Rayton respectively.

The Rooms are intended to accommodate six Pupils. Over forty places are already engaged. Parents desiring to arrange for the admission of their children, are invited to communicate with us as soon as convenient.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

Private School. THE NEW SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS, to be established and carried on under my supervision, will open on the 1st of September. The School will be graded, and divided into three departments, under the charge of Miss Faxon, Miss Wadsworth, and Miss Rayton respectively.

The Rooms are intended to accommodate six Pupils. Over forty places are already engaged. Parents desiring to arrange for the admission of their children, are invited to communicate with us as soon as convenient.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

TOWN OF QUINCY. CLERK'S OFFICE, June 17, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, that copies of the General Laws and Resolves passed by the Legislature of Massachusetts, Session of 1872, can be obtained at the following places, viz: Quincy Savings Bank; Post Office, Quincy; Post Office, Wollaston Heights; Branch Post Office, West Quincy; Stores of George I. Baxter & Co., Wm. A. Holden, Wyman Abernethy, and S. F. Newcomb.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

Dissolution of Copartnership. THE business carried on in Quincy under the firm name of G. McKENZIE & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual consent, by the retirement of John Westland.

The business will be carried on at the old stand, under the firm name of McKENZIE & PATTERSON, and all bills owing by the partnership will be settled by them, and all moneys collected.

ALONZO GLINES, P. F. LACY. Quincy, June 17, 1872.

Dissolution of Copartnership. THE Copartnership heretofore existing under the name and style of GLINES & LACY, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having demands are requested to present the same, and all persons indebted are called upon to make immediate payment to ALONZO GLINES.

ALONZO GLINES, P. F. LACY. Quincy, June 17, 1872.

$100,000 WORTH OF CARPETS, AT COST!

We shall offer for the next 10 days, our entire Stock of Carpets and straw Matting at Cost!

Purchasers will find this one of the most important sales ever held in Boston.

B. P. CUNNINGHAM & CO., 296 Washington Street, BOSTON. Boston, June 19. Sept. 26-1y

Funeral and Furnishing UNDERTAKER. THE subscriber having taken the Furnishing Undertaker's business of Mr. CHAS. H. KIMBALL, and removed to

No. 51 Hancock Street, replenishing the same with a full assortment of CASKETS, COFFINS, ROBES AND HABITS, is prepared to attend to all who may favor him with their orders at the shortest notice. Having had several years experience in the Undertaking business, he hopes by strict attention to make a share of patronage.

JOHN HALL. Quincy, March 19.

A large delegation of singers from the well known Miss Squit family arrived in town the present week. They commenced their concerts at once and each night finds them bleeding their victims.

ORDER OF SEMI-ANNUAL EXAMINATIONS OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

JUNE 24. Willard Primaries and Intermediate. 25. Quincy and Wollaston Primaries. 26. Washington Primaries, Intermediate, and Crane.

JULY 1. Willard Grammar. 2. Quincy and Wollaston Grammar. 3. Washington Grammar. 4. Adams Grammar. 5. Coddington Grammar. 10 & 11. High School.

Parents and friends are respectfully invited to attend. For order, A. WELLINGTON, Sec'y. Quincy, June 22.

Quincy Savings Bank. All money deposited on or before TUESDAY, JULY 2, 1872, will then commence drawing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

The next Semi-annual Dividend will be made on TUESDAY, October 1, 1872. GEO. L. GILL, Treasurer. Quincy, June 15.

WANTED. A SMART AMERICAN BOY, one attending School preferred. Apply at the BOSTON STORE, Quincy, June 15.

FOR SALE. A PURE Blood White and Yellow SETTER DOGS, two years old, partially trained. Address, Box 185 Quincy, Quincy, June 15.

FOUND IN THIS TOWN, on Monday, the 10th inst., a LAP DOG, which the owner can have by proving property and paying charges by applying to C. F. ARNOLD, Braintree, Quincy, June 15.

For Sale -- Cheap! A GOOD FAMILY COW.—Apply to WM. G. PRESCOTT, Quincy, June 15.

ICE CREAM. THE subscriber would again make his best bow to his friends and patrons for the very liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, and would inform them that he may be found at the OLD STAND, ON TEMPLE STREET, on and after MONDAY next, June 24th, at 10 o'clock, by PHILIP CARVER.

TO LET. A COTTAGE HOUSE, 7 Rooms, at QUINCY NECK, FLEMING, 3 Rooms, at Quincy Neck. BASEMENT ROOM, well lighted under the Post Office, suitable for a fruit and Meat Market. Small STABLE in the centre of the town.

STABLE & SHEDS, on Faxon Avenue, suitable for the Express or Jobbing Business. Also, Real Estate in all parts of the town, for sale upon favorable terms of payment. By HENRY H. FAXON, Quincy, June 8.

THE NEW SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS, to be established and carried on under my supervision, will open on the 1st of September. The School will be graded, and divided into three departments, under the charge of Miss Faxon, Miss Wadsworth, and Miss Rayton respectively.

The Rooms are intended to accommodate six Pupils. Over forty places are already engaged. Parents desiring to arrange for the admission of their children, are invited to communicate with us as soon as convenient.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

Private School. THE NEW SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS, to be established and carried on under my supervision, will open on the 1st of September. The School will be graded, and divided into three departments, under the charge of Miss Faxon, Miss Wadsworth, and Miss Rayton respectively.

The Rooms are intended to accommodate six Pupils. Over forty places are already engaged. Parents desiring to arrange for the admission of their children, are invited to communicate with us as soon as convenient.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

TOWN OF QUINCY. CLERK'S OFFICE, June 17, 1872.

NOTICE is hereby given, that copies of the General Laws and Resolves passed by the Legislature of Massachusetts, Session of 1872, can be obtained at the following places, viz: Quincy Savings Bank; Post Office, Quincy; Post Office, Wollaston Heights; Branch Post Office, West Quincy; Stores of George I. Baxter & Co., Wm. A. Holden, Wyman Abernethy, and S. F. Newcomb.

JOHN D. WELLS. Quincy, June 22, 1872.

Dissolution of Copartnership. THE business carried on in Quincy under the firm name of G. McKENZIE & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual consent, by the retirement of John Westland.

The business will be carried on at the old stand, under the firm name of McKENZIE & PATTERSON, and all bills owing by the partnership will be settled by them, and all moneys collected.

ALONZO GLINES, P. F. LACY. Quincy, June 17, 1872.

Dissolution of Copartnership. THE Copartnership heretofore existing under the name and style of GLINES & LACY, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having demands are requested to present the same, and all persons indebted are called upon to make immediate payment to ALONZO GLINES.

ALONZO GLINES, P. F. LACY. Quincy, June 17, 1872.

$100,000 WORTH OF CARPETS, AT COST!

We shall offer for the next 10 days, our entire Stock of Carpets and straw Matting at Cost!

Purchasers will find this one of the most important sales ever held in Boston.

THE QUINCY PATRIOT,
—Established in 1837—
PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY MORNING,
No. 61 Hancock Street, Quincy.
M. ELIZABETH GREEN, Editor.
GEO. W. PRISCOTT, Ass't Editor.

TERMS.—$2.50 per year, in advance.
$1.00, if not paid before the close of the year.

Job Printing Promptly Executed
On the Most Reasonable Terms,
And Greatly Below Boston Prices.

POST OFFICE.

MAILS DUE FROM MAILS CLOSE FOR
Boston, 8:20 A. M. Boston, 8:40 A. M.
Cape Cod, 8:45 " Cape Cod, 8:50 A. M.
Quincy Point, 9:20 A. M. Quincy Point, 9:35 " 5:40 P. M.
JOHN B. BASS, P. M.
Quincy, July 29.

JOS. UNDERWOOD, M. D.
Homeopathic Physician,
Residence near the new Adams Academy
HANCOCK STREET, QUINCY.
Aug. 25.

J. A. GORDON, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon,
4 TEMPLE STREET, QUINCY,
(Opposite the Old Stone Church.)

R. AUGUSTUS DUGGAN,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Entrances to Office,
No. 56 Washington Street, Room 2.
No. 10 State Street, Boston, Room 8.

H. FARNAM SMITH,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law.
Office, No. 5 Pemberton Square, Boston.
Business done promptly, at reasonable
rates of charge.
Quincy, July 22.

EVERETT C. BUMPUS,
Attorney and Counsellor at Law,
OFFICES:
Room 48, No. 51 Water Street, Boston,
and at Weymouth Landing.

E. F. E. THAYER,
AUCTIONEER
And Real Estate Broker,
Bainbridge, & 105 Washington St., Boston.
Office Hours 9 A. M. to 2 P. M.
Particular attention given to selling and purchasing Farms, Houses, &c.
No charge unless sales are effected.

WHITMAN & BRECK,
Architects, Engineers
AND SURVEYORS,
Office, No. 32 Joy's Building,
81 Washington Street, Boston.

ISAIAH WHITE,
Agent for Saratoga Star Spring Water.

B. F. MESERVEY,
WATCHMAKER,
2 CITY HALL AVENUE,
BOSTON.
Watches and Jewelry repaired.
April 29.

G. S. COFFIN,
LOCKSMITH,
REMOVED TO
No. 39 Merchants Row,
opposite Oak Hall, Boston.

W. A. STEARNS,
MASON,
At the Golden Estate, on South Street,
QUINCY POINT.
All kinds mason work promptly attended to
and neatly executed.
White Washing made a specialty.
Quincy, April 6.

AT THE OLD STAND!
The Subscriber has taken the Store recently
occupied by Frederick Hardwick, on FRANK-
LIN STREET, and intends to keep
A NICE ASSORTMENT OF
Woolen & Fancy Goods,
CONFECTIONERY, &c.
A share of public patronage is solicited.
EDWARD HARDWICK.
Quincy, April 26.

JUST RECEIVED 200 Casks of Nails which will be sold at the lowest cash prices.
W. ABERCROMBIE.
Quincy, May 6.

The Quincy Patriot.

A Family Paper devoted to Morals, Education, Agriculture, News and General Literature.

VOLUME XXXVI.

QUINCY, MASS., SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1872.

NUMBER 26.

ORVILLE M. TILDEN, TEACHER OF MUSIC.

—TERMS—
$15 for Twenty Lessons, Payable in Advance.
Pupils taught by a new and improved method.
Post Office Address,
Box 128, NORTH EASTON, MASS.
Any orders left at the Hancock House, Quincy,
will receive prompt attention.
May 18.

Quincy Mutual Fire Insurance Comp'y.

INCORPORATED 1851.
CASH FUND OVER $450,000
THIS COMPANY INSURES
DWELLING HOUSES, BARNES,
HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE,
CHURCHES AND STORES,
WEARING APPAREL,
And the safer classes of property on very favorable terms, and is now paying a Dividend of 50 Per Cent.
L. W. MUNROE, Pres.
CHAS. A. HOWLAND, Sec.

Weymouth & Braintree MUTUAL Fire Insurance Co., OF WEYMOUTH.

INSURES DWELLINGS AND OTHER BUILD-INGS NOT EXTRA HAZARDOUS,
and their contents, at as low rates as any other
reliable Company.
Amount at Risk April 1, 1872,
$2,736,422.00
Cash Assets, $25,942.11
Deposits Notes, $103,898.57—$129,740.59
N. L. WHITE, President.
Wm. B. DUGGAN, Agent, Quincy.
Weymouth, Aug. 1

JOHN HARDWICK, Real Estate and Insurance Agent.

Granite Street, Quincy.
May 4.

LADIES AND GENT'S DINING ROOMS, O. L. SLADER & CO., Proprietors.

FIRST CLASS IN EVERY RESPECT
—MEALS—
From 6 A. M. to 9 P. M. OF THE BEST THE
MARKET AFFORDS.
Remember the Place!
55 Bromfield St. & 15 Montgomery Place
BOSTON.

WILLIAM B. RYAN, Practical Plumber.

Hancock Street, QUINCY.
Under the Post Office,
KEEP Constantly on hand, Sheet Lead, Lead
Pipe, Water-Closets various kinds, Forcing
and Suction Pumps, Bath Tubs and Boilers,
Wash-Bowls various patterns, Brass and Plated
Cocks, &c., &c.
Pumps of all kinds Repaired.
Orders from the Towns adjoining promptly
attended to.
Quincy, June 10.

VISIT GUY & BROTHERS

NEW CROCKERY STORE,
No. 33 Bedford Street,
BOSTON.

FOR RICH CHINA, COMMON GOODS, FANCY GOODS

—AND—A GREAT VARIETY
—OF—
HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS!

Reasonable Prices.
Boston, May 4.

Poetry.

For the Patriot.
1775—June 17th—1872.

BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.
"Tis June the seventeenth, huzza!
Lift up the glorious banner—
The flag our gallant Fathers bore
To victory and to honor.

When Britain sent her legions here,
With mercenary Hosiars,
We lifted up our banner'd spear,
And fought for our possessions.

Old Bunker Hill still tells a tale,
That makes Britannia quail;
Again we hear her mournful wail
Beside the Charlie River.

When her bold sons were stricken down
Like grass before the royal crown,
And scattered lay her mangled form,
Deprived of half its power.

In vain shall all her power essayed
The freedom's hands to fetter;
On every hill we stand we made,
On every hill we meet her.

Lamenting o'er her slaughtered host,
Where many a field was sown,
Britannia saw that all was lost,
And left us in our glory.

And still the name of Bunker Hill
Will be remembered ever;
Britannia can't, she never will Forget it, never—never.

Nor will Americans forget
To tell to their descendants,
That here the Sires of Freedom met,
And fought for Independence.

F. M. ADLINGTON.

Miscellany.

For the Patriot.
General Joseph Palmer.

On the second day of November, 1746, in the good ship Wilmington, commanded by Captain Adams, there arrived at Boston, from England, two young men who afterwards became prominent in the public affairs of Massachusetts. The elder of the two was Joseph Palmer, the younger Richard Cranch. Mr. Palmer was the son of John Palmer and Joan Pearce, and was born March 31, 1716, or about that year, in Higher Abbotston, Devonshire.

In April 1745, he married Mary Cranch, his cousin and sister of Richard Cranch.
When the young couple arrived in America she was in the bloom of her beauty, and to personal attractiveness, she added the charms of a cultivated mind. The union was a very happy one and during the forty-three years that it lasted, was marked by a degree of chival-rous regard and admiration on the part of Mr. Palmer that might well be termed woman worship. This is abundantly evident from his letters to his wife.

Mr. Palmer was possessed of ample means and soon after his arrival he purchased a tract of land in that part of old Braintree called Germantown, which he proceeded to improve by the erection of a dwelling house for himself, and works of considerable extent for the manufacture of common salt, chemical salts, spermaceti candles, and glass ware.

These works were not probably erected all at one time, but followed one another at not very long intervals. During the building of his house, which was constructed upon a plan combining elegance, convenience, and magnitude, he occupied a small house near to the water and opposite Quincy Point. The building had no sooner been completed, than it was destroyed by fire the night of the same day. It had been set on fire by a malicious boy whom Mr. Palmer had punished for an offence. Although great effort was made to take the offender, he was never seen in that neighborhood after the day of the fire, nor was any information obtained of his whereabouts. But Mr. Palmer was not a man to be discouraged, and soon had another large and commodious dwelling erected upon the site of the first one. It is described by one of his grand daughters who lived in it and in the farm house near by, for several years of her childhood, as having been magnificent. It was, she wrote, three stories in height, and had two "boudoirs" built out from it on two sides, a portico, and other belongings which delighted her youthful fancy.

For several years it was the home of six invalid ladies, some of them residents from choice, and others from the generosity of its owner. The room occupied by Miss Eunice Paine, sister of Robert Treat Paine was fitted up in a style of great elegance. Miss Paine was a lady of remarkable intellectual powers and noted for her wit, humor and wisdom. For a time she had an income of her own, but was finally deprived of it wrongly, and then she became wholly dependent upon Mr. Palmer, and received the same deference, nursing, and general kind treatment, as she did in the days of her prosperity. Another of the ladies was Maria Fenno, who married a Boston merchant. Miss Rebecca and Miss Betsey Leppington were two of the others.
The first named married a Colonel Hurd, and was living in Lynde street, Boston, in 1814. It is probable that these ladies were inmates of Mr. Palmer's house in the period between 1775 and 1786, when it went into other hands. The known benevolence of its owner drew to it many visitors, and a pleasant social intercourse sprang up and continued for many years between his family and the families of Mr. Cranch, John Adams, and the Quineys of Braintree. John Quincy's house was near Mount Wollaston, and the residences of the others between three and four miles from Germantown. With Col. Josiah Quincy, Mr. Palmer had a business connection in the salt manufacture. He with his family worshipped in the old Church of Braintree, of which he was a deacon. His pew was No. 67, to the right of the western entrance.

This pew was purchased of his estate by Ebenezer Adams. The building was taken down in 1828. Shortly after the commencement of hostilities we find him a Colonel, and next a Brigadier General.

In 1753, a company of German and Swedish Glass-workers arrived in Germantown. Their coming was made the occasion of a great rejoicing. In Mr.
Whitney's History of Quincy, mention is made of an aged lady who came from Europe with the party when she was eighteen years of age, and who well remembered the occasion. At a period of time not known to those, who in their children, played in its gloomy apartments, the Germans had built for themselves a house at Germantown, wholly of stone—walls, floors and partitions. The stair-

Receipts, Wit & Humor.

PUDDING. Five and one half cups of sifted flour, one cup of molasses, two cups of milk, two cups raisins—part currants an improvement—one and one half teaspoonful of soda, one teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of butter, cinnamon fresh ground, and a little of ground cloves
—add carefully to taste; boil in a tin french (boiling is to be desired). Eaten with hard white sauce or boiled molasses sauce.

MINUTE PUDDING. One quart sweet milk, three eggs; beat the flour and eggs together, and stir it in the milk while the milk is hot; keep stirring till it is thick enough for pudding; serve with sugar and cream. This equals the best cornstarch pudding.

throwing its rider. Fools ride him bare-backed and without a bridle.

Read not books alone, but men,
and chiefly be careful to read itself.

Fashionable fastness is now known as Dolly Vardenism, which is a very good name for it.

The first question that ever disturbed man was the woman question, and it will probably be the last.

Young man: Are you waiting for some door to open into a broad and useful future? don't wait. Select the door and pry it open, even though you get your fingers pinched.

A writer, describing the ecstasies from Eden, says, "The devil drove woman out of Paradise, but he could not drive Paradise out of woman."

Daniel Webster said: "If we work upon marble it will perish; if upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon our immortal minds—if we imbue them with principles, with the just fear of God and love of our fellow-men—we engrave on those tabletsome-thing which will brighten through eternity."

A Western editor places on the marriage notices an illustration representing a large trap sprung, with this motto:
"The trap down—another idiot caught."

It is useless, it is mad, for men in this age to talk of getting rich at any business that does not require work.
That a man must work in order to succeed, or even to be a man, is a blessed law.

Lavater says thou shalt never know a man until you have dived an inheritance with him. I would say that you never know a man until have got into a scrape with him, and see whether he is willing to take fair share of the blame.

Help others who you can, but never give what you cannot afford to, simply because it is fashionable.

Henry Ward Beecher said to his congregation in a sermon home-life and hospitality, Sunday, "I note the woman who comes to me when I am in a dress suited to her work. I let her to sit in the parlor in plush in the parlor waiting three-quarters of an hour for a toilet.
What is good enough for you is good enough for your friends."

A lady writer said women were as particular in choosing virtuous husbands as men are in selling a virtuous wife, a moral reformation would soon begin, which would be coming more from froth and foam.

case had banisters of stone, supported by stone posts. It was supposed that the Germans were moved to construct this building that fire could not destroy, by the fate of the "Great House," as the first one erected by Mr. Palmer, was called. No vestige of this stone house remained in the later years of the life of the lady who described it to her children. Gen. Palmer, had doubtless, removed the materials, for building purposes elsewhere.

Mr. Palmer, or General Palmer, as he is usually called, kept his grounds in a state of high cultivation. Being a man of fine taste, he added to the other attractions of his estate a garden of rare and beautiful plants. He planted an orchard, extending back from his house to the little bay in its rear, and on the other side of which were situated the salt works. He moved about among his laborers more as the friend and helper than the master, and thus attached strongly to himself those whom he employed.

It was his desire to see around him a community of independent artisans, and he labored to this end assiduously. His kindness of heart led him to assist those who had become unfortunate from no fault of their own, and he established many worthy persons in business, who otherwise would have been driven to this end. In his tastes he was English. He was fond of the sports of the field, particularly hunting. Being a man of good education, he collected for his own reading and for that of his family, a library of choice books. His letters, by the clear and plain and often elegant chirography, and the careful punctuation of the sentences, indicated in a marked manner the character of his mind. He was deliberate in forming his opinions, and prudent in his speech, and he possessed a sagacity that seldom, if ever, found him at fault in results.

Up to the time of the Revolutionary troubles, Gen. Palmer continued in the quiet prosecution of his business in Germantown and Boston. He was obliged to be, much of the time, in the last named place, often remaining for several days together. Lotteries were provincial affairs in those days. Money was raised by means of them for public expenses.—
In 1758, the Town of Boston instituted one of them, and Gen. Palmer was interested in this lottery and Gen. Palmer took occasion to administer a charge to him not to do nor say anything that might prejudice the "government" against him, of which he seems to have had apprehensions. This was at a meeting for drawing the numbers, on 23d
February, 1758.

The year 1765 was a sad one for him and his friends by reason of an event to which he was a party, and which caused a life long injury to the health of his favorite daughter, and bitter grief to himself and Col. Quincy, who was the unintentional but direct agent in the injury that was done. The two gentlemen had just returned from a hunt, and had entered the parlor of Gen. Palmer and deposited their guns. His oldest daughter, unaware of their presence, was reclining upon the lawn outside, reading—
Her father was proud of her beauty and her courage. She was in robust health and perfectly fearless, and frequently rode into Boston to pay or receive money or attend to other commissions for her father, and returned after dark over lonely roads, and regardless of inclement weather. The distance that she went, was twelve miles. Gen. Palmer was sure that she could not be frightened, and Col. Quincy declared that he could frighten her, and to settle the point, the General permitted him to discharge his gun out of the parlor window and over the girl's head. The result was most melancholy. She was directly thrown into convulsions which continued for a long time. From that moment her health both of body and mind was broken.
She became timid in storms and afraid of fire arms. During her residence at West Point in 1790 and 1791, she was constantly apprehensive that the magazine would explode. After more than twenty-five years invalidism, she died at that place, at the age of forty-four.

Gen. Palmer was an earnest and active opponent of the aggressions of the Royal Government upon the rights of the Colonies. He took part in almost all the important political meetings that preceded the outbreak of hostilities, was placed upon more than thirty-five committees in the year 1775 alone, and was, at one time, President of the Provincial Congress. He, with his son, took an active part in the events of the celebrated nineteenth of April, and he himself was engaged in the conflict upon Breed's
Hill, from which he came forth unharmed.
It may be mentioned here, that his son was one of the party who threw the cargo of tea into the waters of Boston harbor, on the 10th of November, 1773.

In the year 1778, Brigadier General
Palmer had command of an expedition whose object was to capture or dislodge the British forces then occupying Rhode Island. Forseeing a disastrous issue from want of the necessary preparations which should have been furnished him, he decided, in a council of officers, not to proceed with the undertaking. The failure of the expedition created great disappointment among the authorities and the people, and subjected him to cruel detraction and animadversion. He was, however, fully acquitted by a Court-Martial. His letters (some of which were published in a memoir that appeared in a number of the New-Englander for 1846), defending his conduct, will satisfy any one who reads them, both in respect of his sincere patriotism, and his wisdom in declining to carry out a plan which would have resulted in inevitable defeat and useless loss of life. He did not continue long in the service after this event, and it is related that he and his son both quitted it in consequence of being as-persed by Southern officers, on a reorganization of the military forces.—

During the years of his active participation in the political and military doings in his State and neighborhood, he expended in the public service, from his private purse, five thousand pounds sterling. For this, and for unpaid services, his grandchildren in the year 1851, obtained a miserable pittance from Government.

Losses by the war, and in other ways, obliged him to borrow money, and he became, thus, indebted to John Hancock in a large sum.

Hancock had been his personal friend until a difference in political opinions estranged him. He gave expression at a convivial meeting, to words which portended no good to Gen. Palmer, and he refused to retract them at the earnest entreaty of friends who were present.—
Ever after, his treatment of his old friend was like that of an enemy who had determined to destroy his opponent.
Gen. P. had purchased lands in Connecticut for speculative purposes, and exerted himself, strenuously, to sell them, in order to discharge his indebtedness to the Governor.

He spent much of his time in the years 1781 and 1782, in Pomfret and Canterbury, for this purpose, but did not succeed to the desired extent, although he disposed of some of the lands.

Continental money depreciated rapidly in those days, so that every day made him poorer. But his anxiety on this point was relieved when Hancock advertised that he would receive payment of debts due him, in Continental money, at the coin value which the currency then bore, before a day and hour which he named. Gen. Palmer, to avail himself of this opportunity to make himself even with the Governor, proceeded directly to Connecticut, and sold his property at a great sacrifice; but being detained by a storm of rain, arrived in Boston one hour too late. Finding the Governor unyielding, his fortitude almost left him.
He saw that he was a ruined man, and that his beautiful estate at Germantown
—the home of himself and family for thirty-six years, must be sacrificed. His friends, and particularly the gifted woman, Eunice Paine, who had been long a member of his family, administered every comfort that "words fitly spoken" could afford. Encouraged by this sympathy, and by nature formed to surmount difficulties he continued to exert himself in the hopes still to save his property. But Hancock laid an attachment upon it, his lawyer, "Mr. Thomas Dows," executing the process during Gen. Palmer's absence.

There is no existing record of the date of this execution, among the papers in possession of the writer, but it is known that General Palmer left Germantown, finally, in 1786. During the year 1787,
he dwelt in Charlestown.

On the 10th of March, 1787, he petitioned the Selectmen of Boston, to sell him the fee of certain low lands lying on the easterly side of Boston Neck, for the purpose of "setting up several sets of large works for the purpose of making both bay and white salt." Several of the influential men of the town, among whom was Ebenezer Dorr, John May, Charles Jarvis, John Hurd, and five others, requested the Selectmen to call a Town-meeting to consider the petition.

In the meeting of the Freeholders and others qualified to vote, March 20th, a committee was appointed to report upon the matter on the 24th of April. The result was, that Gen. Palmer commenced an extensive dyke to keep out, and regulate the supply of water. The enterprise was in a fair way to succeed, when it was brought to an end by his death. He had discovered a method of expediting the process for obtaining the salt, and had called upon some of his friends to call upon them with this important fact; after which he returned to the salt works, late in the evening. The day was a very warm one.

Probably "Dawn" is the right reading.

CONDITIONS.

No Subscription nor Advertisement will be discontinued previous to the payment of all arrearages, unless at the option of the Publisher.
Advertisements correctly and conspicuously
inserted at the customary prices, and will be charged until ordered out.
The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited
to their own immediate business.

Advertising Agents.

The following gentlemen are authorized Agents
to receive Advertisements for the Patriot.
BOSTON.—S. M. PETTINGILL & Co., S. R.
NILES, HORACE DODD, and T. C. EVANS.
NEW YORK.—S. M. PETTINGILL & Co.,
GEO. P. ROWELL & Co., and PEARSON & Co.
PHILADELPHIA.—COB, WETHERILL & Co.

could one, and he had become chilled probably, for upon arriving at his house on the Neck (he had removed hither from Charlestown), and sitting down before a warm fire, he became paralyzed in the organs of speech. The paralysis soon became general, and, although everything was done that medical skill suggested, he did not rally, and on the 25th of December, 1788, he expired, without having been able to make any communication to his family. His remains were placed in the tomb of a Mr. Pierpont,—
"in the Old Burial Ground upon the Neck,"— wrote one of his grandchildren.

The subscribers to the salt-works enterprise were unwilling to allow Gen.
Palmer's son, whose scientific attainments and previous thorough knowledge of the manufacture, should have entitled him to their confidence, to carry on the works.
The construction of these had been expensive, and great loss to the subscribers and workmen was experienced by the interruption to the business which the death of its leading spirit occasioned.—
They were abandoned and part of the pans and other utensils were shipped to a port in Maine. The great dyke alone, remained long a monument of the energy and enterprise of its constructor.

General Palmer's family removed to Quincy, where President John Adams, their old and valued friend, gave them the use of his unoccupied dwelling for a season; after which, they lived in a house belonging to Judge Richard Cranch, and near his own. There, Mrs. Cranch died, on the 6th of February, 1790. The two daughters removed to West Point, where the elder, Mary, died, 12th November, 1791. The other, who had married Joseph Cranch, Armorer at the Point, died in Dedham, January 21, 1814. General
Palmer's son left a large family.

A fine portrait of the General, painted by the artist Copley, in England, which country he visited in 1770, exists, in an excellent state of preservation. It is the property of A. Winslow Palmer, Esq., his great-grandson, of Boston.

The materials from which the preceding notice has been prepared, were in part, a memoir published in the New Englander in 1846, but mainly from letters and papers of Gen. Palmer, his children and grandchildren, in the possession of the writer.

It is not work that kills men, it is worry. Work is healthy. You can hardly put more on a man than he can bear.
Worry is rust upon the blade. It is not the revolution that destroys the machinery, but the friction. Fear secretes acid, but love and truth are sweet juices. We know a man with a patient, good, Christian wife, and we never heard him speak a kind, pleasant word to her, and doubt if he ever did, in the half century they have lived together. He is always in a fret. Every thing goes wrong. You would think he was made of cross-grained timber, and had always been trying to digest a cross-cut saw. He is eternally cross, and thinks his wife and children, hired hands, and all the domestic animals, have entered into a combination to worry him to death. He is not only rusty, but fairly crusted over with it. Friction has literally worn him out, and he will soon worry himself to death. Of course he has never worked to any advantage to himself or anybody else. With him everything goes wrong. He superstitiously believes it is because the devil has a spite against him, when in truth it is nothing but his own fretfulness.

Guard Against Vulgar Language.

There is as much connection between the words and the thoughts as there is between the thoughts and actions. The latter is not only the expression of the former, but they have a power to react upon the soul, and leave the stain of corruption there. A young man who allows himself to use one vulgar or profane word, has not only shown that there is a foul spot upon his mind, but by the utterance of that word extends that spot, and inflames it till, by indulgence, it will pollute and ruin the soul. Be careful of your words and of your thoughts. If you can control the tongue that no improper words are pronounced by it, you will soon be able also to control the mind, and save it from corruption. You extinguish the fire by smothering it, or by preventing bad thoughts from bursting into language.
Never utter a word anywhere which you would be ashamed to speak in presence of the most refined, female, or the most religious man. Try this practice a little while, and you will soon have command of yourself.

A servant girl at Pittsfield, it is related, was so much impressed the other night by dreaming that some one was robbing the clothes line, that she got up and looked out of the window, when she saw a man carrying off some of the clothes. She was so overcome by the singularity of the affair that she let him go and did not tell the story till the next day.

Popping the Question.
I recollect, in my former days,
I loved a maiden with blue eyes;
Her smile was gentle, and her hand
Exactly formed the proper size.
Her voice in cadence had the sound
An eddy makes in mossy nook,
And when she spoke to me, I thought,
With slightly extra interest took.
Thus dawning of sweet love began—Delightful trappings in my chest—
Foremost the bliss to come at noon,
When all the truth had been confessed.
Oss charming day, when larks were high,
And we were on the walk alone,
I thought that Providence had marked
The hour especially our own.
I told her in few words my love;
She answered with accepting ear;
And just before the setting kiss,
Sighed, "What's your income, dear?"

Home, Farm and Garden.

Grapes and their Easy Culture.
It is surprising that so many families in the country are willing to live year after year, without cultivating a single grapevine about their dwellings. They are compelled to purchase this delicious fruit for the table, or not taste it during the season. There is a common impression that to cultivate grapes perfectly, a vast amount of knowledge and tact is required. To many the simple trimming of a vine is a mystery, more difficult to comprehend than the hardest problem of Euclid. This is an erroneous view, and ought not to prevail. Any person of common intelligence can learn in an hour how to trim and nourish vines; and, if instruction cannot be obtained from some experienced cultivator, there are books filled with cuts and illustrations which make everything plain. Three vines of as many different varieties, planted in some sunny nook, or by the side of some building, so as to obtain shelter, will if properly cared for, furnish many a bushel of delicious grapes every year. Select a Concord, a Delaware, and an Adirondack; make the ground mellow and rich by the use of a spade, and by employing old manure finely ground bones, and ashes; and set out the plants. In three years the rich clusters will appear, and in four years the product will be abundant. It is well to have vines planted so that the waste liquids from the dwelling can be used in fertilization. If there is any food the vine especially loves, it is the soapy liquids which accumulate on washing dishes in families. Vines drenched every week with these liquids will flourish astonishingly, and extend themselves so as to cover large buildings, every branch bearing fruit. We say to our readers, plant vines.—Science of Health.

To Preserve Flowers.
1. Mix a tablespoonful of carbonate of soda in a pint of water, and in this place your bouquet. It will preserve the flowers for a fortnight.
2. Sprinkle the bouquet lightly with fresh water, and then put it in a vessel containing soap suds. This will keep the flowers as fresh as if just gathered. Then every morning take the bouquet out of the suds, and lay it sideways—the stock entering first—into clean water, keep it there a minute or two, then take it out and sprinkle the flowers lightly by the hand with water, replace it in the soap suds, and it will bloom as fresh as when first gathered. The soap suds need changing every three or four days. By observing these rules, says a lady who has tested them, a bouquet may be kept bright and beautiful for at least a month, and will last still longer in a passable state.
3. We have heard that the natural color of flowers may be preserved for any length of time by dipping them for a moment in clear glycerine. When the glycerine dries, the various tints are seen almost as bright as before the flowers were plucked.

Incidents.

A bachelor, after having been taunted for his single-blessedness until he could stand it no longer, called upon a maiden lady of his acquaintance, when the following conversation took place.
"Do you wish to change your condition?" asked the bachelor.
"No."
"Neither do I!" And turning on his heel, our bachelor exclaimed: "Thank Heaven! I've got that off my mind!"
A female "pussen of collah" was asked, few days since, why she never wore white, as black women generally were fond of decking themselves out in showy apparel. "Kaise," said she, "I allus thinks a white dress makes a nigger look like a fly in a pan of milk."
A quarrelsome couple were discussing the subject of epitaphs and tombstones, when the husband said:
"My dear, what kind of stone do you suppose they will give me when I die?"
"Brimstone, my love!" was the affectionate reply.
"Sam, you're learned in de law; can you say if ole Lucifer was to lose his tail, what would be to him another one?"
"Why, to de tabern, ob course, you ignoramus—dat's de only place I know on wher dey retail dem spirits!"
"How can they bring up another," said a lady, absorbed in pleasing retrospection.
"Yes," replied the practical Dibble; "an emetic, for instance."

90 Hancock St., opp. Post Office,
GEORGE SAVILLE
HAVING purchased the entire stock of FURNISHING GOODS of J. W. LOMBARD, is now prepared to offer a good assortment of Hats, Caps, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, and Drawers, Socks, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, as can be found in Quincy.

READY-MADE CLOTHING.
A large stock of HATS and CAPS, for Men, Boys and Children.
TRUNKS, VALISES, UMBRELLAS, &c.
Call and see me and I will do you good.
GEORGE SAVILLE,
Opposite the Post Office,
90 Hancock St., Quincy, March 16.

RICHARD HALLS, Merchant Tailor!
HANCOCK AND GRANITE STS.
WOULD inform the citizens of Quincy, and vicinity, that he has a large and CHOICE ASSORTMENT of goods adapted to the season which he will make to measure in the

JOHN A. HOLDEN, Merchant Tailor & Dealer
CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, DOESKINS AND VESTINGS,
Hancock, cor. of School St., Quincy.
HAS on hand and is constantly receiving from the best sources, New and Desirable Goods, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Trunks, and all the latest fashions. He has a large stock of Custom Made Garments, for a fair price, and respectfully invited to call.
It is a pleasure to remember, that Cheapness and Daintiness are relative attributes; they have a relation to the QUALITY of the article, and which, which does not answer well the purpose for which it was intended, is DEAR at any price.
Quincy, March 20

GENTLEMEN
I STILL Live and am ready at all times to show you as good a line of Clothing
Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods,
As can be found in town,
and at
LOW PRICES.
"If you don't believe me call in and see me" and satisfy yourself.
A large assortment of
NECK TIES,
IN BLACK AND FANCY SILKS,
Suitable for all ages.
The newest and best goods in the market.
Paper Collars, all prices.
Just received 10,000 of these Quincy Granite, Linen Faced, Paper Lined Collars, round and square corners. They are made expressly for me and need no recommendation; as many who have already used them will testify in their favor.
White Shirts, Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts, Gingham Shirts, Hickory Shirts, and Shirts at all prices.
A full line of Undershirts and Drawers for Fall and Winter, very low.
Overalls and Jumpers in Blue and Brown Denims, White Duck, Kersey, &c.
Handkerchiefs, Suspenders, Bosoms, Cuffs, Socks in good variety.
Good Hats, all styles, suitable for Fall and Winter, from $2.50 upwards. Caps and Vests at various prices. Hats and Caps, a fine variety, new and fashionable styles.

CUSTOM CLOTHING!
I am now prepared to take the measure of any who may favor me with a call and to warrant satisfaction in all cases.
I have a good Stock of Cloths, Tricots, Doeskins, Cassimeres, and Fancy Goods to sell, and would invite all in want of a good garment at a moderate price, to give me a call.
GOODS BY THE YARD.
GARMENTS Cut and Trimmed.
C. A. SPEAR,
86 Hancock Street. Next Door to QUINCY SAVINGS BANK.
Quincy, Sept. 2.

THERE IS NO NEED
OF going to BOSTON to buy your HATS, when by calling at
NO. 90 HANCOCK STREET,
you can find all the LEADING STYLES, and can save money as well as time by buying of
GEORGE SAVILLE, 90 Hancock St.,
Quincy, April 27.

NEW Franklin Market,
Beach Street, between Lincoln
AND SOUTH STREETS.
A. CHASE & CO.,
FISH STALLS, No. 16 and 18,
KEEPS constantly on hand all kinds of Fresh Fish, Smoked Salmon, Mackerel, and the best of Oysters at $1.20 per gallon,
Or 20 cents per quart. Parties out of town can have their orders filled, and goods sent to Depot to care of Baggage Master.
Boston, Dec. 20.

NEW MARKET.
THE Subscriber having taken the store recently occupied by McLellan, on Temple Street,
is prepared to furnish to his old friends and the citizens generally, with
The best quality.
Vegetables, of all kinds.
Also, FRUITS, NUTS, &c.
Also, Fresh and Salt Fish, Oysters, &c.
Thankful for favors received the Subscriber hopes to merit a continuance of the same.
G. F. WILSON.
Quincy, Oct. 20.

SOUTH MARKET.
THE Subscribers would respectfully announce to the Public that a large and fresh stock of Fruit, Provision, &c.,
can be constantly found at their store
On Elm Street, near of Episcopal Church,
at very reasonable prices.
G. TOTTMAN & SON.
Quincy, Sept. 18.

A Wonder that cannot be Beat.
MRS. E. HAYDEN has for sale and has sold for the last 44 years, and it has always proved satisfactory.
She has also Jayne's Carmine Balm, another Excellent Old Fashioned Medicine.
Quincy, Dec. 22.

S. H. KIMBALL,
MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF
LOOK!!!
BUSINESS SUITS.
$15, $16, $17, $18, $19, $20, $22, $23, $25, $27, $28, $29, $30.
TRICOT SUITS,
$22, $23, $24, $25, $26, $27, $28, $29, $30, $32, $33, $34, $35, $36, $37, $38.
DIAGONAL SUITS!
$30, $32, $33, $34, $35, $36, $37, $38, $39, $40, $42, $43, $44, $45, $46, $47, $48, $49, $50, $52, $53, $54, $55, $56, $57, $58, $59, $60, $62, $63, $64, $65, $66, $67, $68, $69, $70, $72, $73, $74, $75, $76, $77, $78, $79, $80, $82, $83, $84, $85, $86, $87, $88, $89, $90, $92, $93, $94, $95, $96, $97, $98, $99, $100, $102, $103, $104, $105, $106, $107, $108, $109, $110, $112, $113, $114, $115, $116, $117, $118, $119, $120, $122, $123, $124, $125, $126, $127, $128, $129, $130, $132, $133, $134, $135, $136, $137, $138, $139, $140, $142, $143, $144, $145, $146, $147, $148, $149, $150, $152, $153, $154, $155, $156, $157, $158, $159, $160, $162, $163, $164, $165, $166, $167, $168, $169, $170, $172, $173, $174, $175, $176, $177, $178, $179, $180, $182, $183, $184, $185, $186, $187, $188, $189, $190, $192, $193, $194, $195, $196, $197, $198, $199, $200, $202, $203, $204, $205, $206, $207, $208, $209, $210, $212, $213, $214, $215, $216, $217, $218, $219, $220, $222, $223, $224, $225, $226, $227, $228, $229, $230, $232, $233, $234, $235, $236, $237, $238, $239, $240, $242, $243, $244, $245, $246, $247, $248, $249, $250, $252, $253, $254, $255, $256, $257, $258, $259, $260, $262, $263, $264, $265, $266, $267, $268, $269, $270, $272, $273, $274, $275, $276, $277, $278, $279, $280, $282, $283, $284, $285, $286, $287, $288, $289, $290, $292, $293, $294, $295, $296, $297, $298, $299, $300, $302, $303, $304, $305, $306, $307, $308, $309, $310, $312, $313, $314, $315, $316, $317, $318, $319, $320, $322, $323, $324, $325, $326, $327, $328, $329, $330, $332, $333, $334, $335, $336, $337, $338, $339, $340, $342, $343, $344, $345, $346, $347, $348, $349, $350, $352, $353, $354, $355, $356, $357, $358, $359, $360, $362, $363, $364, $365, $366, $367, $368, $369, $370, $372, $373, $374, $375, $376, $377, $378, $379, $380, $382, $383, $384, $385, $386, $387, $388, $389, $390, $392, $393, $394, $395, $396, $397, $398, $399, $400, $402, $403, $404, $405, $406, $407, $408, $409, $410, $412, $413, $414, $415, $416, $417, $418, $419, $420, $422, $423, $424, $425, $426, $427, $428, $429, $430, $432, $433, $434, $435, $436, $437, $438, $439, $440, $442, $443, $444, $445, $446, $447, $448, $449, $450, $452, $453, $454, $455, $456, $457, $458, $459, $460, $462, $463, $464, $465, $466, $467, $468, $469, $470, $472, $473, $474, $475, $476, $477, $478, $479, $480, $482, $483, $484, $485, $486, $487, $488, $489, $490, $492, $493, $494, $495, $496, $497, $498, $499, $500, $502, $503, $504, $505, $506, $507, $508, $509, $510, $512, $513, $514, $515, $516, $517, $518, $519, $520, $522, $523, $524, $525, $526, $527, $528, $529, $530, $532, $533, $534, $535, $536, $537, $538, $539, $540, $542, $543, $544, $545, $546, $547, $548, $549, $550, $552, $553, $554, $555, $556, $557, $558, $559, $560, $562, $563, $564, $565, $566, $567, $568, $569, $570, $572, $573, $574, $575, $576, $577, $578, $579, $580, $582, $583, $584, $585, $586, $587, $588, $589, $590, $592, $593, $594, $595, $596, $597, $598, $599, $600, $602, $603, $604, $605, $606, $607, $608, $609, $610, $612, $613, $614, $615, $616, $617, $618, $619, $620, $622, $623, $624, $625, $626, $627, $628, $629, $630, $632, $633, $634, $635, $636, $637, $638, $639, $640, $642, $643, $644, $645, $646, $647, $648, $649, $650, $652, $653, $654, $655, $656, $657, $658, $659, $660, $662, $663, $664, $665, $666, $667, $668, $669, $670, $672, $673, $674, $675, $676, $677, $678, $679, $680, $682, $683, $684, $685, $686, $687, $688, $689, $690, $692, $693, $694, $695, $696, $697, $698, $699, $700, $702, $703, $704, $705, $706, $707, $708, $709, $710, $712, $713, $714, $715, $716, $717, $718, $719, $720, $722, $723, $724, $725, $726, $727, $728, $729, $730, $732, $733, $734, $735, $736, $737, $738, $739, $740, $742, $743, $744, $745, $746, $747, $748, $749, $750, $752, $753, $754, $755, $756, $757, $758, $759, $760, $762, $763, $764, $765, $766, $767, $768, $769, $770, $772, $773, $774, $775, $776, $777, $778, $779, $780, $782, $783, $784, $785, $786, $787, $788, $789, $790, $792, $793, $794, $795, $796, $797, $798, $799, $800, $802, $803, $804, $805, $806, $807, $808, $809, $810, $812, $813, $814, $815, $816, $817, $818, $819, $820, $822, $823, $824, $825, $826, $827, $828, $829, $830, $832, $833, $834, $835, $836, $837, $838, $839, $840, $842, $843, $844, $845, $846, $847, $848, $849, $850, $852, $853, $854, $855, $856, $857, $858, $859, $860, $862, $863, $864, $865, $866, $867, $868, $869, $870, $872, $873, $874, $875, $876, $877, $878, $879, $880, $882, $883, $884, $885, $886, $887, $888, $889, $890, $892, $893, $894, $895, $896, $897, $898, $899, $900, $902, $903, $904, $905, $906, $907, $908, $909, $910, $912, $913, $914, $915, $916, $917, $918, $919, $920, $922, $923, $924, $925, $926, $927, $928, $929, $930, $932, $933, $934, $935, $936, $937, $938, $939, $940, $942, $943, $944, $945, $946, $947, $948, $949, $950, $952, $953, $954, $955, $956, $957, $958, $959, $960, $962, $963, $964, $965, $966, $967, $968, $969, $970, $972, $973, $974, $975, $976, $977, $978, $979, $980, $982, $983, $984, $985, $986, $987, $988, $989, $990, $992, $993, $994, $995, $996, $997, $998, $999, $1000, $1002, $1003, $1004, $1005, $1006, $1007, $1008, $1009, $1010, $1012, $1013, $1014, $1015, $1016, $1017, $1018, $1019, $1020, $1022, $1023, $1024, $1025, $1026, $1027, $1028, $1029, $1030, $1032, $1033, $1034, $1035, $1036, $1037, $1038, $1039, $1040, $1042, $1043, $1044, $1045, $1046, $1047, $1048, $1049, $1050, $1052, $1053, $1054, $1055, $1056, $1057, $1058, $1059, $1060, $1062, $1063, $1064, $1065, $1066, $1067, $1068, $1069, $1070, $1072, $1073, $1074, $1075, $1076, $1077, $1078, $1079, $1080, $1082, $1083, $1084, $1085, $1086, $1087, $1088, $1089, $1090, $1092, $1093, $1094, $1095, $1096, $1097, $1098, $1099, $1100, $1102, $1103, $1104, $1105, $1106, $1107, $1108, $1109, $1110, $1112, $1113, $1114, $1115, $1116, $1117, $1118, $1119, $1120, $1122, $1123, $1124, $1125, $1126, $1127, $1128, $1129, $1130, $1132, $1133, $1134, $1135, $1136, $1137, $1138, $1139, $1140, $1142, $1143, $1144, $1145, $1146, $1147, $1148, $1149, $1150, $1152, $1153, $1154, $1155, $1156, $1157, $1158, $1159, $1160, $1162, $1163, $1164, $1165, $1166, $1167, $1168, $1169, $1170, $1172, $1173, $1174, $1175, $1176, $1177, $1178, $1179, $1180, $1182, $1183, $1184, $1185, $1186, $1187, $1188, $1189, $1190, $1192, $1193, $1194, $1195, $1196, $1197, $1198, $1199, $1200, $1202, $1203, $1204, $1205, $1206, $1207, $1208, $1209, $1210, $1212, $1213, $1214, $1215, $1216, $1217, $1218, $1219, $1220, $1222, $1223, $1224, $1225, $1226, $1227, $1228, $1229, $1230, $1232, $1233, $1234, $1235, $1236, $1237, $1238, $1239, $1240, $1242, $1243, $1244, $1245, $1246, $1247, $1248, $1249, $1250, $1252, $1253, $1254, $1255, $1256, $1257, $1258, $1259, $1260, $1262, $1263, $1264, $1265, $1266, $1267, $1268, $1269, $1270, $1272, $1273, $1274, $1275, $1276, $1277, $1278, $1279, $1280, $1282, $1283, $1284, $1285, $1286, $1287, $1288, $1289, $1290, $1292, $1293, $1294, $1295, $1296, $1297, $1298, $1299, $1300, $1302, $1303, $1304, $1305, $1306, $1307, $1308, $1309, $1310, $1312, $1313, $1314, $1315, $1316, $1317, $1318, $1319, $1320, $1322, $1323, $1324, $1325, $1326, $1327, $1328, $1329, $1330, $1332, $1333, $1334, $1335, $1336, $1337, $1338, $1339, $1340, $1342, $1343, $1344, $1345, $1346, $1347, $1348, $1349, $1350, $1352, $1353, $1354, $1355, $1356, $1357, $1358, $1359, $1360, $1362, $1363, $1364, $1365, $1366, $1367, $1368, $1369, $1370, $1372, $1373, $1374, $1375, $1376, $1377, $1378, $1379, $1380, $1382, $1383, $1384, $1385, $1386, $1387, $1388, $1389, $1390, $1392, $1393, $1394, $1395, $1396, $1397, $1398, $1399, $1400, $1402, $1403, $1404, $1405, $1406, $1407, $1408, $1409, $1410, $1412, $1413, $1414, $1415, $1416, $1417, $1418, $1419, $1420, $1422, $1423, $1424, $1425, $1426, $1427, $1428, $1429, $1430, $1432, $1433, $1434, $1435, $1436, $1437, $1438, $1439, $1440, $1442, $1443, $1444, $1445, $1446, $1447, $1448, $1449, $1450, $1452, $1453, $1454, $1455, $1456, $1457, $1458, $1459, $1460, $1462, $1463, $1464, $1465, $1466, $1467, $1468, $1469, $1470, $1472, $1473, $1474, $1475, $1476, $1477, $1478, $1479, $1480, $1482, $1483, $1484, $1485, $1486, $1487, $1488, $1489, $1490, $1492, $1493, $1494, $1495, $1496, $1497, $1498, $1499, $1500, $1502, $1503, $1504, $1505, $1506, $1507, $1508, $1509, $1510, $1512, $1513, $1514, $1515, $1516, $1517, $1518, $1519, $1520, $1522, $1523, $1524, $1525, $1526, $1527, $1528, $1529, $1530, $1532, $1533, $1534, $1535, $1536, $1537, $1538, $1539, $1540, $1542, $1543, $1544, $1545, $1546, $1547, $1548, $1549, $1550, $1552, $1553, $1554, $1555, $1556, $1557, $1558, $1559, $1560, $1562, $1563, $1564, $1565, $1566, $1567, $1568, $1569, $1570, $1572, $1573, $1574, $1575, $1576, $1577, $1578, $1579, $1580, $1582, $1583, $1584, $1585, $1586, $1587, $1588, $1589, $1590, $1592, $1593, $1594, $1595, $1596, $1597, $1598, $1599, $1600, $1602, $1603, $1604, $1605, $1606, $1607, $1608, $1609, $1610, $1612, $1613, $1614, $1615, $1616, $1617, $1618, $1619, $1620, $1622, $1623, $1624, $1625, $1626, $1627, $1628, $1629, $1630, $1632, $1633, $1634, $1635, $1636, $1637, $1638, $1639, $1640, $1642, $1643, $1644, $1645, $1646, $1647, $1648, $1649, $1650, $1652, $1653, $1654, $1655, $1656, $1657, $1658, $1659, $1660, $1662, $1663, $1664, $1665, $1666, $1667, $1668, $1669, $1670, $1672, $1673, $1674, $1675, $1676, $1677, $1678, $1679, $1680, $1682, $1683, $1684, $1685, $1686, $1687, $1688, $1689, $1690, $1692, $1693, $1694, $1695, $1696, $1697, $1698, $1699, $1700, $1702, $1703, $1704, $1705, $1706, $1707, $1708, $1709, $1710, $1712, $1713, $1714, $1715, $1716, $1717, $1718, $1719, $1720, $1722, $1723, $1724, $1725, $1726, $1727, $1728, $1729, $1730, $1732, $1733, $1734, $1735, $1736, $1737, $1738, $1739, $1740, $1742, $1743, $1744, $1745, $1746, $1747, $1748, $1749, $1750, $1752, $1753, $1754, $1755, $1756, $1757, $1758, $1759, $1760, $1762, $1763, $1764, $1765, $1766, $1767, $1768, $1769, $1770, $1772, $1773, $1774, $1775, $1776, $1777, $1778, $1779, $1780, $1782, $1783, $1784, $1785, $1786, $1787, $1788, $1789, $1790, $1792, $1793, $1794, $1795, $1796, $1797, $1798, $1799, $1800, $1802, $1803, $1804, $1805, $1806, $1807, $1808, $1809, $1810, $1812, $1813, $1814, $1815, $1816, $1817, $1818, $1819, $1820, $1822, $1823, $1824, $1825, $1826, $1827, $1828, $1829, $1830, $1832, $1833, $1834, $1835, $1836, $1837, $1838, $1839, $1840, $1842, $1843, $1844, $1845, $1846, $1847, $1848, $1849, $1850, $1852, $1853, $1854, $1855, $1856, $1857, $1858, $1859, $1860, $1862, $1863, $1864, $1865, $1866, $1867, $1